

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Donatio Augustini pro libertate ecclesiæ S. Petri & Pauli Doroberniæ scripta majusculis literis Romanis.

Sigillum est rotundum ex plumbo, facies una habet effigiem Salvatoris cum hac inscriptione a, altera vero figuram ecclesiæ Christi cum hac inscriptione, "Sigillum Augustini episcopi."

Donatio Ethelberti, & Eadbaldi ejus filii, antiqua & veneranda plane vetustatis monumenta, extant adhuc in archivis monachorum Augustinenis, quas ego vidi, legi, atque adeo contrectavi.

Crux, quam Augustinus in Angliam veniens suis manibus portabat, extat ibidem, cum hac inscriptione, "Crux Augustini."

Est & altera crux ex marmore porphiritico, paucis laminulis argenteis ornata; & sunt qui hanc etiam fuisse Augustini crucem commemorant.

Psalterium Hieronymi vetustissimum, & majusculis literis Romanis scriptum, quo more constans fama est veteres Romanos scripsisse.

Sanctus Neotus. Oppidum antea dictum Arnulphesbury.

Sanctus Neotus, monachus Glessoburgensis, translatus à Neotesstoke, in Cornubia olim monasterio, nunc vero parochiali ecclesia, ad Arnulphesbury in provincia Huntingdunensis, in quo oppido palatium erat Elfridi comitis, quod postea verum est in usum cœnobii, in quo fuerunt ad multos annos monachi nigri, donec Anselmus, archi: Cant: introduxit Gallos monachos albos.

Barrius, Neoti servus, ibidem sepultus.

Monasterium S. Neoti à Danis spoliatum & incensum, quod

Gumiceſter, vulgo Godmanceſter.

Gumiceſter olim opp: magni nominis, ut apparet ex fundamentis & numismatibus erutis. Eruuntur etiam & ossa, sed majora quam habeant hujus ætatis homines. Usa tantum dividit hoc opp: ab Huntingduno. Unde conjectura est, Huntingdunum antiquitus partem fuisse Gumiceſtriæ, vel, hac fatif-

cente

cente præ senio, Huntingdunum principia sumpsisse. De Guma (nisi fallor) ille mentionem facit, qui scripsit vitam S. Machuti, quem ait Gunīcastrīæ fuisse episcopum, & patrem ejus ibidem fuisse comitem; nisi quis velit per Gunīcastrīam Guincastrīam intelligere. At quamvis impressus libellus de vita S. Machuti Gunīcastrīæ legat, ego tamen vidi libellum manu scriptum, qui habebat Gumicastrīæ, quæ lectio mihi videtur esse verior. Emi ibidem à quodam sacrificulo numismata, inter quæ unum erat C. Antii prælonga cæsarie, qualem Romani habebant ante notos tonfores.

Ex libello qui est Ebor: apud monachos Marianos de vita S. Machuti episcopi.

Machutus factus fuit episcopus Guminæ civitatis, ubi pater ejus comes fuit. Leyland. Quisquis vitam scripsit, elegantissime scripsit. Sunt qui Guincastrīæ fuisse episcopum scribunt, quod verosimilius est. Nuper didici natum fuisse in Guenta, parte Suthwalliæ, autoritate Bili levitæ.

Venandunum, vulgo Huntingdune.

In hoc cœnobio ostendunt poculum Stephani regis ex Turcho lapide, rem ingentis pretii.

Huntingdune, i. e. mons venatorum, oppidum aliquot ab hinc seculis quindecim parochialibus ecclesiis insigne, quarum tantum quatuor nunc supersunt, reliquæ vetustate & incuria collapsæ sunt, extantibus tamen etiamnum in aliquot locis murorum vestigiis & cimiteriis.

Cœnobium canonicorum, quod nunc paululum quiddam distat ab oppido, erat eo loco, ubi nunc ecclesia S. Mariæ est, quod per Eustachium, Huntingdunensem comitem, translatum est in locum paulo remotiorem, propter oppidi strepitum. David Brucius, Scotus, comes Huntingdunensis, sepultus in hoc cœnobio. Est & ibidem sepulchrum elegantis operis cujusdam (ut illi putant) comitis Huntingdunensis, in quo eques insculpitur cum insignibus venatoriis. Habent & oppidani in sigillo publico venatorem cum suis armis. Habent numisma vetustissimum, non procul ab opp: erutum, cum imagine canis leporarii, sed inscriptio præ vetustate oblitterata est.

Eye.

Eye Saxonice insulam significat, unde & Eye op. nomen accepit, quod esset quasi tota circumdata aquis, quibus quamvis in præsentia non usque adeo abundet, loca tamen vicina uliginosa sunt, & hyeme plerumque obducta aquis, manifestum inditium stagnantis olim paludis. Veniebant antiquitus & naviculæ onerariæ ad oppidum de portu Chromarico, vel ex sinu aliquo Chromariæ vicino. Hoc satis vel ex hoc liquet, quod cum monachi Eyenles fossas purgent, inveniunt rudentes majusculas pice oblitæ, clavos nauticos, & cetera id genus arma navalia. Nunc vero naviculæ non perveniunt cis Burstane, qui locus ab Eya duodecim distat miliaribus.

Eya olim nobile castellum habebat paludibus adjacens, cuius nunc tantum specula & murorum in aliquot locis ruinae extant. Hoc castellum vi Gulielmi Normanni (ut oppidani prædicant) dirutum fuit, quod ejus violentum imperium non admiserit.

Mallet, comes Suthfolk, Dominus de Eye.

Monachi Eyenles olim habebant cœnobiolum apud Dunwic: opp: maritimum, antiquitus Dunmoc dictum, & civitatis nomine insigne, in quo Felix, Orientalium Anglorum episcopus, sedem habuit. Sed postquam sedes alio traducta fuit, veterem occupabant monachi. Nunc vero cœnobiolum (ut plura ibidem alia) à mare devoratum est. Eyenles ad huc servant evangeliorum librum reliquias exhausti cœnobioli, & à vulgo ruber liber de Eya vocatur, per quem apud vulgus solenne est jurare. Monachi constanter adfirmant, librum fuisse

Est humilis ecclesia inter ostia Tini & Wedræ D. Hildæ dicata, atque longius distat à Vedra quam à Tina. Sita est autem in quadam prominentia, quam vulgus Sowter vocat. Forſan hic olim fuit Begæ monasteriolum.

Tertio Herutey, qui locus Latinæ sonat cervi insula, commigravit, cœnobiumque virginum ibi condidit, pauloque post Hildæ, sacræ virgini, cessit, quæ post victoriam Oswi regis accepit Eanfledam virginem, ejus filiam, voto promissam cum annuo agrorum censu.

Unde postea animos sumpſit ædificandi monasterium in Streneshalc, & posito ibidem cœnobio, monachos induxit, & sacras virgines, quibus ipsa abbas præfuit.

Bega autem, relicta insula de ¹ Herutey, contulit se Calciam, quæ à Saxonibus vocatur ² Helcacester, & novum sibi monasterium condidit. Leyland. Ubi sit Calcaria civitas hætenus à nemine potui discere. Tamen, si Antonini Itinerarium recte scriptum est, dubio procul est in provincia Eboracensi.

Galfredus Chaucer, vates & fama poësis

Maternæ, hac sacra sum tumultatus humo.

Joannes Gower sepultus est apud canonicos Marianos in ripa Tamesis, in cujus effigiei capite corona est ex hedera solis distincta, in collo catena, equestris ordinis inditium. Sub capite tres libri, instar pulvinariorum, cum his inscriptionibus: "Speculum meditantis: Vox clamantis: Confessio amantis." Vixit tempore Ricardi 2. & Henrici quarti, cui libros suos dedicavit. Tempore Joannis cœnobium Sæ. Mariæ conflagravit, quod post multos annos cura & industria, partim etiam sumptibus suis restauravit. Nam ante illius tempora quamvis canonici veteres sedes retinebant, squallebat tamen semirutæ ecclesia.

Malmesbiri.

Cœnobium de Malmesbiri initium sumpsit à quodam Meildulfo, natione (ut aiunt) Scoto, eruditione philosopho, professione monacho, adeo angustis sumptibus elaboratum, ut inhabitantes ægre quotidianum victum expedirent; sed postmodum per beatum Aldelmum & Sanctum Leutharium episcopum tempore Kenwalki, regis Westsaxonum, magnifice auctum, & possessionibus amplissimis ditatum est, circa annum domini DCKLVIII^o.

Templum dei in

Eodem tempore idem rex Kenewalkus primus antecessorum suorum templum deo per id seculi pulcherrimum construxit.

Glasconia.

Anno domini DCCXXVII^o. Ina, rex Occidentalium Saxonum, abbatiam Glasconie construxit jamdudum destructam, & multis possessionibus ditatam privilegiorum suorum munimine roboravit.

Bathonia.

Monasterium Bathoniense fundavit rex Offa. Sed Eadgarus rex, sicut pleraque alia, more suo magnifice auxerat, delectatus loci amœnitate, & quod ibi coronam regni susceperat.

Ambresbiri.
Warwell.

Anno domini DCCCLXXIX^o. Ethelfrida, interfecitrix Sancti Eadwardi martyris, causa penitentiae duo cœnobîa fundavit feminarum, videlicet Ambresbiri & Warwelle.

Abbendon.
[Inz.]

Abbendon cœnobium fundavit Cissa, pater Hyne; sed Elfredi tempore regis, cum barbarica ubique discursaret petulantia, ædificia loci, ad solum complanata. At vero rex Ethelredus loci miseratus solitudinem, simulque avi animæ consulens, cuncta restituit ablata per manum Athelwoldi, quem ibidem posuerat, tantumque Athelwoldus institit cœptis, ut fere ad finem perduceret. Sed per Eadgarum regem ad episcopatum Wintoniensem vocatus est, antequam summam manum rebus imponeret. Complevit magistri nomen & molimina Ordgarus ab eo in abbatiam substitutus. Regnavit autem Ethelredus rex, prædicti loci restaurator, anno domini DCCCLXVII^o.

Institutio monachorum ad ecclesiam Roseto.

Anno domini M.LXXXIII^o. Lanfrancus, archiepiscopus Cant. & Gundulfus, Rofen. episcopus, restituerunt monachos in ecclesiam Sancti Andreæ Rofecestrie. Audierant enim hic quondam monachos fuisse, Unde ad antiqua statuta rede-uptes,

tantes, monachorum ordinem statuere sanxerunt. Tempore ergo brevi elapso ecclesia nova, veteri destructa incipitur. Officinarum ambitus convenienter disponitur. Opus omne intra paucos annos, Lanfranco pecunias subministrante multas, perficitur. Igitur perfectis omnibus, quidam tamen ex quinque clericis, qui hic inventi fuerant, ad religionis habitum confluentes, associatis multis aliis, ad sexagenarium numerum & amplius in brevi sub doctrina patris Gundulphi subcrevere monachi. Quem numerum Gilbertus de Glanvilla, istius loci episcopus, minuit, cujus memoria minuitur in recensione Rosenfium pontificum, & in li^o. vitæ.

Ex fine libri 11. Gulielmi à Maildulphi curia de reg.

P. g. 76.

Epilogium de obitu Bedæ.

Dilectissimo in Christo lectori Cuthuino Cuthbertus discipulus in deo æternam salutem. Munusculum, quod misisti, multum libenter suscepi, multumque gratanter literarum devotæ eruditionis legi, in quibus, quod maxime desiderabam, missas videlicet & orationes sacrosanctas pro deo dilecto patre ac nostro magistro Beda à vobis diligenter celebrari repperi. Unde delectat magis pro ejus charitate (quantum fruor ingenio) paucis sermonibus dicere, quo ordine migravit è seculo, cum etiam hoc te desiderasse & poscere intellexi. Gravatus quidem est infirmitate maxime creberrimi anhelitus, ~~sus~~ dolore tamen, ante diem resurrectionis dominicæ, id est, fere duabus hebdomadibus; & sic postea lætus & gaudens, gratiasque agens omnipotenti deo omni die & nocte, immo horis omnibus usque ad diem ascensionis dominicæ, id est vii. Cal. Junii, vitam ducebat, & nobis suis discipulis cotidie lectiones dabat, & quicquid reliquum erat diei in Psalmorum cantu occupabat. Totam vero noctem in lætitia & gratiarum actione pervigil ducebat, nisi tantum modicus somnus impediret. Evigilans autem, statim consueta repetivit, & expansis manibus, deo gratias agere non desivit. O vere beatus vir! Canebat sententiam beati Pauli apostoli, "Horrendum est incidere in manus dei viventis;" & multa alia de sancta scriptura, & in nostra quoque lingua, ut erat doctus in nostris carminibus, dixit. "For yam nedfere nemýr yeli ýances snotera, ýone hým ýearf ýýtoge higgenne, ár his gaste godes oyýe ýuolýs áfter cleaye heuon demed ýeorge.. Cantabat etiam Antiphonas, ob nostram consolationem, & sui, quarum una est: "O rex gloriæ, domine virtutum, qui triumphator hodie super omnes cœlos ascendisti, ne derelinquas nos orphanos, sed mitte promissum patris in nos, spiritum veritatis. Alleluya." Et cum venisset ad illud verbum, "ne derelinquas nos," prorupit in lachrimas, & multum flevit, & post horam cœpit repetere quæ inchoaverat, & nos hæc audientes luximus cum illo. Altera vice legimus, altera ploravimus, immo semper cum fletu legimus. In tali lætitia quinquagesimales dies usque ad diem præfatum deduximus. Et ille multum gaudebat, & deo gratias agebat, quia sic meruisset infirmari. Referebat, & sæpe dicebat, "Flagellat deus omnem filium quem recipit," & multa alia de sancta scriptura, & sententiam Sancti Ambrosii, "Non sic vixi, ut me pudeat inter vos vivere; sed

^a Nam & tunc hoc Anglico carmine componens, multum compunctus aiebat: Forþam neodþene nenig pýnkeð þancef rnottna þonne cum þearf gy 10 ge higgenne ær his heonen fange. hƿer his ðaƿe goðer oððe yuelƿ, ærþen ðeaþe heonen demed pýnðe. Quod ita Latine sonat, Ante necessarium exitum prudentior quam opus fuerit nemo existit, ad cogitandum; videlicet antequam hinc proficiscatur anima, quid boni vel mali egerit, qualiter post exitum iudicanda fuerit. Cantabat etiam Antiphonas, secundum nostram consuetudinem & sui, &c. in codd. quibus usus est Sim. Dunelmensis, quem videtis lib. ægotare in anhelitu; & modicus tumor in pedibus apparuit. Totum autem illum diem docebat, & hilariter dictabat, & nonnunquam inter alia dixit: "Discite cum festinatione; nescio quam diu subsistam, & si post modicum tollat me factor meus." Nobis autem videbatur, quod suum exitum bene sciret, & sic noctem in gratiarum actione pervigil duxit. Et mane illucescente, id est, quarta feria, præcepit diligenter scribi quæ cœperamus. Et hoc facto usque ad tertiam horam, "à tertia hora ambulavimus" cum reliquiis Sanctorum, ut consuetudo illius poscebat diei. Et unus erat ex nobis cum illo, qui dixit illi: "Ad huc, dilectissime magister capitulum unum deest: & videtur tibi difficile esse plus te interrogare?" At ille inquit, "facile est. Accipe, inquit, unum calamum, & tempera, & festinanter scribe." Et ille hoc fecit. Ad nonam autem horam dixit mihi: "Quædam autem pretiosa in mea capsella habeo, id est, piperium, oraria, & incensa. Sed curre velociter, & presbyteros nostri monasterii adduc ad me, ut & ego munuscula, qualia deus donavit, illis distribuam. Divites autem in hoc seculo aurum, argentum, & alia quæque pretiosa dare student; ego autem cum multa charitate & gaudio fratribus meis dabo^b quod dederat. & hoc cum tremore feci. Et cum allocutus est unumquemque, monens & obsecrans pro eo missas & orationes diligenter facere. Et illi libenter sponponderunt. Lugebant autem & flebant omnes maxime, eo quod dixerat, "quia amplius faciem ejus in hoc seculo non essent visuri." Gaudebant autem quia dixit, "Tempus est ut revertar ad eum, qui me fecit, qui me creavit, qui me ex nihilo formavit. multum tempus vixi: bene mihi pius iudex vitam meam prævidit. Jam tempus resolutionis meæ instat, quia cupio dissolvi, & esse cum Christo." Sic & alia multa locutus, in lætitia diem usque ad vesperem duxit. Et præfatus c puer dixit: "Adhuc una sententia, magister dilecte, non est descripta." "At, inquit, scribe cito." Post modicum dixit puer: "Modo sententia descripta est." At ille inquit, "Bene: veritatem dixisti, consummatum est. Accipe meum caput in manus tuas, quia multum me delectat sedere ex adverso, sancto meo loco in quo orare solebam, ut & ego sedens patrem meum invocare possim." Et sic in pavimento suæ casulæ, decans "Gloria patri, & filio, & spiritui sancto," cum spiritum sanctum^d invocavit, suum è corpore exhalavit ultimum, ac sic regna migravit ad coelestia. Omnes autem qui audire vel videre beati patris obitum, nunquam se vidisse ullum alium in magna devotione ac tranquillitate vitam sic finisse dicebant. Quia, sicut audisti, quousque anima in corpore fuit, "Gloria patri." & alia quædam cecinit spiritualia. Et expansis manibus deo vivo & vero gratias agere non cessabat. Scito autem, frater charissime, quod multa narrare possum de eo, sed brevitatem sermonis ineruditio linguæ facit.

Hybernia post Britanniam omnium insularum est optima, quæ quamvis Britannia divitiis cedat, latitudine, salubritate, ferenitate præstat. Quæ sicut versus aquilonem brevior est, ita versus meridiem trans illius fines protenditur. Hæc autem proprie patria Scotorum est. Nam, sicut legitur, Aegyptiis in mari rubro submersis, illi, qui superfuerunt, expulerunt à se quendam nobilem Scythicum, qui debebat apud eos, ne dominium super eos invaderet. Expulsus ille cum familia sua, pervenerunt ad aras Philistinorum, & per lacum Salinarum, ^a & per montana Syriae, transierunt per Mauritaniam, & ad columnas Herculis navigaverunt ^b Tyrrenum mare, & pervenerunt ad Hispaniam, & ibi per annos habitaverunt multos, & progenies illorum multiplicata est nimis. Inde venerunt Hiberniam post annos mille duobus additis à transitu filiorum Israhel per mare rubrum, & inde pars eorum egressa, tertiam in Britannia Britannis & Pictis gentem addiderunt. Pars eorum quæ remansit in Hibernia Navarii vocantur, & adhuc eadem utuntur lingua.

Erat in Sacro vestiario Ripoduni liber Petri Blesensis de vita S. Wilfridi, dedicatus Galfredo archiepiscopo Ebor:

Ex libello de privilegiis ab Æthelstano rege Ripensi ecclesiæ concessis.

Æthelstanus sanctuarium Riponensi ecclesiæ concessit, & terminos hinc inde ad unum miliare, extra oppidum sanctuario designavit: quorum unus appellatus crux Athelstani.

Æthelstanus dedit ecclesiæ Ripensi easdem libertates quas dedit ecclesiæ Beverlacensi.

Qui pacem sanctuarii intra ecclesiam Ripensem violaverit reus sit bonorum omnium & vitæ.

Æthelstanus venit cum omni exercitu ad ecclesiam S. Wilfridi in Ripon.

Voluerat Osbertus, vicecomes Ebor: vim tulisse libertati Ripensis ecclesiæ anno Dⁱ. 1106. sed Gerardus archiepiscopus rem regi detulit. Mortuo Edwino, rege Northanhumbr: successerunt ei 2. reges, quorum unus filius patru sui Elfrici erat Ofricus nomine. Alter filius Ethelfridi, qui ante Edwinum regnaverat, dictus Enfridus. Hii Northanhumbr: gentem, secundum quod antiquitus erat, in duas provincias dividentes, Ofricus, Oswini pater, regis Deiorum, & Enfridus Berniciorum, sibi gubernacula quasi successiones jure vendicarunt.

Oswinus adolescens, interfecto à Ceadwallo rege Ofrico, exulavit per 10. annos apud occiduos Saxones.

Cedwalla tyrannice uno anno Northumbr: reg: gubernavit.

Oswaldus, Enfridi frater, ex Accha, sorore regis jam dicti Edwini, progenitus, devicto Ceadwallæ exercitu apud Denisburnam, non solum fratris Enfridi successor fuit in reg: Berniciorum, sed quasi Edwino avunculo tuo ab intestato succedens, per novam annos utramque in unam Northanhumbr: redigens, summa cum æquitate rexit.

Interfecto Oswaldo à Penda rege apud Maserfelde, successit ei frater ejus nothus Oswi, juvenis 30. agens annum, regnumque per annos 28. laboriosissime rexit.

Oswinus cum exercitu occurrit Oswio in Wilfareldune, sed postea volens declinare effusionem sanguinis, noctu, solo comitatus Tondhere, Tylsi filio, in Gethlingum secessit ad domum Hunwaldi ducis, cui prædictum vicum & multa alia prædia donaverat, atque ab hoc fidum sibi autumaverat.

Hunwaldus Oswinum prodidit Oswio.

Oswius clam noctu Ethelwinum, domus suæ procuratorem, ad Hunwaldi domum cum armata manu misit, qui eo veniens Oswinum interfecit.

^a Hac voce utitur Plin. N. H. XXXVI. 25. Romæ (pavimentum) scalpturatum in Jovis Capitolini æde primum factum est post tertium Punicum bellum initum. Ex Eliote interpretatione constat eum pavementum scalpturatum à tessellato non distinxisse. Alii etiam non distinguunt. Tessellatum nimirum à tessellis sive crustis parvis, scalpturatum vero ab ipsis instrumentis vocabatur. Ad me quod attinet, existimo. et pavimenta propria vocari scalpturata, quæ non tantum paullo elegantiora essent facta, verum etiam decorum, bonipum, animaliumque figuris ornata; barbarica præterea item hominunda, sicut è Plinio ipso colligimus. Sed quale demum fuerit pavimentum scalpturatum, è pavimenti Stunsfeldiani tabula nostra accuratissima longe facilius erui potest, quam è verbis ullis in medium à nobis hic loci proferendis.

Meildulphus vitam heremiticam ducens sub castello de Bladon, quod Saxonice dicitur Ingebðone castel. Fuit autem constructum a quodam rege Britanno nomine Dunwallo Mo-liuncius. Civitas quondam ibi fuerat, quæ penitus destructa fuit fuit ab alienigenis. Castellum se munitum custodivit, quod per multum tempus stetit sine habitatione propinqua. Regia enim habitatio & ejus manerium tam paganorum quam Christianorum non longe fuit à castello apud Kairdurberg, quod Saxonice dicitur Brohambergh, nunc vero Brokenberg. Prædictus heremita petiit à castellanis tugurium sibi fieri sub castello, & obtinuit. non enim ibi erat magna hominum frequentatio. Hic dum sibi necessaria deficerent, scholares sibi in disciplinatum adunavit, ut eorum liberalitate tenuitatem victus emendaret. Brevi enim tempore scholares in exiguum conventum coaluere. Horum consortio & exemplo S. Aldelmus ad plenum informatum artem dialecticam adjecit erudire. Unde hinc fugiens ad pedes Adriani philosophi, abbatis S. Augustini Cantuar: per aliquod tempus studuit, & sufficienter edoctus Meldunum repetiit. Qui postea cum sociis suis sub Maildulpho monacho attonsus est, vivente Maildulpho post fusionem ejus annos XIII. Castellum prænotatum tunc fuit sub dominio Eleutherii, episcopi Wintoniensis, qui dominabatur in tota Westsaxonia. Mortuo Maildulpho prædictus episcopus dedit situm Malmesbiriæ S. Aldelmo.

Anno D. 1215. Alexander Necham fuit abbas sextus Corinii, qua provincia (ut potui ex cœnobii annalibus colligere) ad triennium usus est. Sepultus est, ut canonici affirmant, Wigornia in ipso monachorum clauetro. Usus est familiaritate cujusdam episcopi Wigorn. Floruit regnantibus Richardo & Joanne.

Floruit tempore Edgari regis.

Ealredus abbas. Iste antiquas criptas subterraneas veteris civitatis, quæ Werlamcester dicebatur, perscrutatus, evertit omnia & implevit, ^d tracones vero & vias cum meatibus subterraneis, & solide per artificium arcuatis, quorum quidam subtus aquam Warlamie, quæ quondam maxima civitati fuit circumflua, transierunt, diruit, implevit, aut obturavit. Erant enim latibula latronum, ^a vespillonum, & meretricum. Fossata vero civitatis, & quasdam speluncas, ad quas, quasi ad refugia, redeunt malefici, & fugitivi, à densis sylvis vicinis fugerunt, in quantum potuit explanavit. Tegulas vero integras, & lapides quos invenit, aptos ad ædificia seponens, ad fabricam ecclesiæ reservavit. Proposuit vero, si facultates suppetere, diruta veteri ecclesiæ, novam construere. Propter quod terram in profunditate evertit, ut lapideas structuras inveniret. Quod cum fecissent fossores, juxta ripam asseres quernos cum clavibus infixis, pice navali delinitos (quales solent esse in carinis), invenerunt. Nec non & quædam navalia armamenta, utpote anchoras rubigine semiofas, & remos abiectos, in certum & manifestum signum aquæ marinæ, quæ quondam Warlæcestrense vexit navigium, repperunt. Quæ unda quo modo in parvum rivulum nunc contrahatur, & quo miraculo, historia de S. Albano evidenter explanat. Conchilia vero & conchas, quales litus maris solet ^d educare vel projicere cum arenis æquoreis, quas insolito vestigio cives Verolamie properantes ad martyrium novi martyris quondam calcarunt, non sine admiratione invenerunt. Unde nomina ^{er} locis, ubi talia reperiunt, incolæ hæc videntes vel imposuerunt, vel retulerunt se à veteribus relata meminisse utpote Oisterhulle, Selleford, ^f Auterpole, Fischepole, nomen vivarii regis, ex reliquiis aquæ diminutæ. Specum quoque profundissimum, monte continuo circumseptum, cum spelunca subterranea, quam quondam draco ingens fecerat & inhabitavit, in loco qui Wormenhert dicitur, in quantum potuit, explanavit; vestigia tamen æterna serpentinæ habitationis derelinquens. Iste autem Ealdredus, cum jam multam tam in lapidibus vel tegulis, quam materie lignea, ad fabricam ecclesiæ coacervasset quantitatem, matura nimis morte preventus imperfecto negotio, viam universæ carnis ingressus est.

Ex vita Eadmari, abbatis 9ⁱ.

Iste quæ prædecessor ejus viriliter in primis est profectus, non in tantum deo placuit & martyri; ut domum ipsius martyris ædificaret & consummaret; ^a simul factus ^b David." Acquisita tamen, tam in thesauris, quam in materiæ adunata, ad ecclesiam construendam, non dispersit, vel consumpsit. Istius abbatis tempore dum fossores muros & abscondita terræ rimarentur, in medio civitatis antiquæ cujusdam mag. palatii fundamenta diruerunt, & cum tantorum vestigia ædificiorum admirarentur, invenerunt in cujusdam muri concavo deposito quasi armariolo, cum quibusdam minoribus libris & rotulis, cujusdam codicis ignotum volutem quod parum fuerat ex tam longæva mora demolitum, cujus nec littera nec idioma alicui tunc invento cognitum præ antiquitate fuerat, venustæ tamen formæ & manifestæ litteræ fuerat, quarum epigrammata & tituli aureis litteris fulserunt redimitti. Asseres querni, ligamina serica pristinam in magna parte fortitudinem & decorem retinuerunt. De cujus libri notitiæ cum longe lateque fuerat diligenter inquisitum, tandem unum senem jam decrepitum invenerant, sacerdotem litteris benè eruditum nomine Unwonam, qui imbutus diversorum idiomatum linguis ac literis legit distincte scripta libri prænominati. Similiter quæ in aliis codicibus in eodem armariolo & in eodem habitaculo repertis legit indubitanter & exposuit expresse. Erat enim litera qualis scribi solebat, tempore quo cives Werlamecestriam inhabitabant, & idioma antiquorum Britonum, quo tunc temporis utebantur. Aliqua tamen in Latino. sed hiis non opus erat. In primo autem libro, scilicet majori, cujus prius fecimus mentionem, scriptam invenit historiam de S. Albano, Anglorum protomartyræ, quam etiam diebus hodiernis recitat legendo. Cui perhibet egregius doctor Beda testimonium in nullis discrepando. In aliis vero libris passim invenitis reperit lector prædictus invocationes & ritus idololatrarum civium Werlamcestrensiū, in quibus comperit quod specialiter Phœbum deum Solis invocaverunt & coluerunt; quod perpendi potest per historiam S. Albani, si eam sedulus lector intellegat. Secundario vero Mercurium, Woden Anglice appellatum, à quo quartus dies septimanæ intitulatur, deum videlicet mercatorum; quia cives & compatriotæ, propter navigium civitatis & commodum loci situm, per unam diætam tantum à Londoniis distantem, fere omnes negotiatores & infitores fuerunt. Abjectis igitur & combustis libris, in quibus commenta diaboli continebantur, solus ille liber, in quo historia S. Albani continebatur, pro thesauro reponebatur. Et sicut prædictus presbyter illam, antiquo

Unwonam:

Anglico vel Britannico idiomate conscriptam, in quo peritus extitit, legerat, abbas iste Eadmarus per prudentioris fratrum in conventu fecit fideliter & diligenter exponi, & plenius in publico prædicando edoceri. Cum autem conscripta historia in Latino pluribus, ut jam dictum est, innotuisset, exemplar primitivum ac originale, quod mirum est dictu, irrestitabiliter in pulverem subito redactum cecidit. Et cum abbas memoratus profundiora terræ, ubi civitatis Verolamii apparuerunt vestigia, diligenter perscrutaretur, & antiquos tabulatus lapideos cum tegulis & columnis inveniret, quæ ecclesiæ fabricandæ fuerant necessaria, sibi reservaret, quam proposuit S. martyri Albano fabricare, invenerunt fossores in fundamentis veterum ædificiorum, & concavitatibus subterraneis, urceos & amphoras opere fictili & tornatili decenter compositos; vasa quoque vitrea, pulverem mortuorum continentia. Solebant enim antiquitus cadavera mortuorum comburere, unde funus quasi fumus dicebatur. Inventa sunt insuper sana semiruta, altaria subversa, & idola, & numismatum diversa genera, quibus utebantur antiqui cives Verolamii idololatræ. Quæ omnia ex præcepto abbatis sunt comminuta.

ORDINAUNCES by Margaret Countesse of Richmond and Derby, as to what Preparation is to be made against the Deliveraunce of a Queen, as also for the Christening of the Child of which she shall be delivered.

[From a Manuscript in the Harleian Library, N^o 6079].

HER Highnes Pleasure beinge understoode in what Chamber she will be delivered in, the same must be hanged with riche Clothe of Arras, Sydes, rowffe, Windowes and all, excepte One Windowe, which must be hanged so as she may have Light when it pleaseth her. Then must there be set a Royall Bedde, and the Flore layed all over and over with Carpets, and a Cupboard covered with the same Sute that the Chamber is hanged withall. Also there must be ordayned a faier Pallet, and all Things appertayninge therunto, and a riche Sparker hanginge over the same. And that Daye that the Queene (in good Tyme) will take her Chamber, the Chappell where her Highnes will receive and heare Devine Service, must be well and worshipfully arrayed. Also the greate Chamber must be hanged with riche Arras, with a Clothe and Chaire of Estate, and Quishins thereto belonginge, the Place under and aboute the same beinge well encarped. Where the Queene (comminge from the Chappell with her Lords and Ladyes of Estate) may, either standinge or sittinge, at her Pleasure, receive Spices and Wyne. And the next Chamber betwixt the greate Chamber and the Queenes Chamber to be well and worshipfully hanged; which done, Two of the greatest Estats shall leade her to her Chamber, where they shall take their Leave of her. Then all the Ladyes and Gentilwomen to goe in with her, and none to come into the greate Chamber but Women; and Women to be made all Manner of Officers, as Butlers, Panters, Sewers, &c. and all Manner of Officers shall bringe them all needfull Things unto the greate Chamber Dore, and the Women Officers shall receive it there of them.

The Furniture appertayninge to the Queenes Bedde.

Fyrst ij Pale of Sheets of Reines, every of them 4 Yardes broad, and 5 Yardes longe, 2 Head Sheets of like Reines, 3 Yardes broad, and 4 Yardes longe, 2 longe and 2 square Pillows of Fustian, stuffed with fine Downe, every of them with 2 Beeres of Reines, a Pane of Skarlet furred with

Ermyn,

Ermyrn, and embroudered with Crimfon Velute upon Velute, or riche Clothe of Golde; and a Head Sheete of like Clothe of Golde furred with Ermyrn, a Kevertoure of fine Lawne of v Breadthes, and 6 Yardes longe; and an Head Sheete of 4 Breadthes, and 5 Yardes longe; a Mattres stuffed with Wolle, a Fetherbed, with a Bolster of Downe, a Sparver of Crimfon Sattin embroudered with Crownes of Golde, the Kinge and Queenes Arms, and other Device, lyned with double Tarteton, garnished with Frengs of Silke, blew Ruffet, and Golde, with a rounde Bowlle of Golde, or Sylver and gylte, 4 Quishins of Crimfon Damaske Clothe of Golde, a rownde Mantell of Crimfon Velute plaine furred throwgheout with Ermyrn, Backe for the Queene to weare aboute her in her Pallet. The Pallet at the Beddes Feete must be arraied, accordinge as the Bedde is, with Sheets and Panes, &c. excepte the Clothe of Golde of the Panes that longe to the Pallet to be of another Coloure then that of the Bedde. It must be forseene, that suche Estats as shall please the Kinge to appoint to goe to the Christninge, be placed neere to the Place where the Queene is delivered, to the ende, that anon after the Deliveraunce they may geve their readys Attendaunce upon the Childe to the Church.

How the Church shall be arraied againste the Christenings.

Note, that the whole Church where the Childe shall be christened must be hanged with riche Arras or Clothe of Golde in the best Manner, and in like Sorte shall the Auter be arayed also, and well carpetted throughout the whole Chauncell under Foote; also there must be longe and large Carpets layde under Foote at the Church Dore, and the Porche must be hanged and seeled with riche Clothe of Golde of Arras Worke. And on the one Side of the Church neere unto the Fonte there must be hanged a Traves, with Carpets and Quishins to the same, a faire Panne of Coles welle burnte before they come there for Smellinge, and sweete Perfumes to caste therin, Chafrons of Water, with Basons of Silver, and gilte, to washe the Childe, if Neade be; and to every of these Affaye must be made.

Then must the Fonte of Silver that is at Canterbury be sent for, or els a new Fonte made of Purpose, to be kepte in suche Place as shall please the Kinge, to serve to like Use hereafter. Or els his Highnes Pleasure wolde be knowne, whether he will have it done in a Fonte of Stone, as it hath bene sometimes seene: but wherof soever the Fonte be, it must be covered all over the Bottome with softe Raynes laied in divers Folds. And the Fonte must be set of a greate Heighte, that the People may see the Christening without preasinge to nigh the Fonte; and the same must be hanged all aboute with Clothe of Golde. Over the Fonte there must be hanged a greate and large Canape of Damaske, Satten, or Reynes, the Bordure beneath the Clothe of Golde, or well embroudered; or els a riche See of Golde, with a large and rich Valence, and underneathe the saide Canape there must be reserved a large Space for the Comminge to the Fonte of the Childe, and suche Ladyes and Estats as pleaseth the Kinge shall accompany the same therto. Also there must be ordained viii Peece of Bankelyns of Golde to hange aboute the Fonte. Also there must be provided a little Taper for the Childe to carye in his Hande up to the highe Auter after his Christendome. Note, that the Gossippes must be lodged nigh the Quenes Deliveraunce, that they (accompaignied with the Lordes abovesaide, bothe Spirituall and Temporall, and thother Estats) may be ready to attende upon the yonge Prince or Princeesse to the Christeninge.

When the Childe goeth to Church to be christened, a Dutchesse must beare the Childe, and a Dutchesse must beare the Crispe before it upon her Shoulder, on a Kerchewe of smalle Raines; and if it be a Prince, an Erle shall beare the Trayne of the Mantell, which must be of riche Clothe of Golde, with a longe Traine furred throughout with Ermyn; but if it be a Princeesse, then a Countesse shall beare the Traine. There must be borne before it to the Church 200 Torches, of which 24 shal be borne aboute the Childe with Esquiers; and when they come to Church they shall all stande aboute the Fonte in Order, and as neare therunto as they may conveniently. Then shall the Sergeante of the Kings or Queenes Pantry be readye at the Church with a faire Towell of Reynes about his Necke, and a Salte Seller in his Hande, with Salte therein, and that he be ready to take the Assaye of the Salte before it be hallowed, and the Treasorer of Howsholde to goe before him and present the Assaye. Also the Sergeant of the Ewery shal be ready in the Church, with Basannes covered and uncovered, suche as the Case shall require, for the Byshoppes to washe in, and like Basannes and Ewers for the Gossippes to washe in. Also the Sergeant of the Spicery and the Butler shall geve their Entendance at the Church with Spice and Wyne, for the Gossippes and other Estats to take when the Prince is christened. When the Prince or Princeesse is brought to the utter Porche of the Church, the Bishoppe shal be there ready to receave it, and to doe such Solempnities as therunto appertaineth.

taineth. After which Solempnities done and finished, there must be ready at the Church Dore a Canape, to be borne over the Childe by 4 Men of Worshipp, eyther Knights, or els Esquiers assigned therunto before. The Prince or Princess being brought into the Church, it shal be forthwith borne into the Traves, where shal be Fire and Water (as aforesaid) ready for the Changinge of the Childe out of the Clothes, and makinge it ready unto Christendome. In the meane time the Gossippes (savage the Lady Godmother) and all suche Estats as shal please the Kinge, shal be nere therunto, shal place themselves within the Canape of the Fonte; so that when the Baptizor (which must be an Archbishoppe or a Bishoppe) with the Officers of the Church, doe come therunto, they may be there readye placed, and there must be assigned certaine worshipfull Knights and Esquiers to spreade and holde at large the saide Canape in good and seemely Order. And in the meane tyme, whilst the Childe is makinge ready, the Fonte must be hallowed by the Abbot of Westmester, or some one in his Steade; whiche done, the Childe shal be brought forth of the Traves to be christened. As soone as the Christeninge is done, all thasafaid Torches shal be lighted, and the Childes Taper abovefaide, which the saide Childe shall beare up to the highe Auter in his Hande, and there offer the same, with suche a Somme of Money as shal please the Kinge to appointe; and then shal it be confirmed in the same Place. All which Solempnities accomplished, the Childe shal be brought downe from the highe Auter into the Traves againe, where it shal abide while the Gossippes and other Estats do take Spice and Wyne. Then shall the Gossippes geve their Giftes, which must be delivered to Erles, Barons, or Banneretts, which shall beare the same before the Childe to the Queenes Chamber Dore, and there shall delyver them to the Ladyes and Gentilwomen every Gifte before other, and the Gifte of greatest Estats hyndermoste. But herin the King's Pleasure must be knowne, whether he will have the Gifts caried prively or openly; and the hindermost Gifte aforesaid must be borne by the greatest Estate there present. But yf yt be a Princess, the Gifts must in like Manner be borne of Ladyes, which shal beare them to the Queene. The Gifts given to the Erles in Manner aforesaid, and all Things accomplished in the Church with requisite Solempnitye, the Childe shal be borne Home againe in suche Sorte as it was carried to the Church, savinge that the Torches must be lighted, and a Cloth of Estate borne over it; and the same Waye that it was brought to the Church shall it be carried carried Home againe. Note, that the Parliament Chamber must be richely hanged, and seeled with a riche and stately Bed therein, with Staiers up to the faide Bed, which Stayers must be covered with blewe Worsted, garnished with Rybands, and gylte Nayles; the Bed covered with a goodly Emperiall, the Curteynes and Traves of blewe Tartaron, Carpetts laied with the riche Araye for the Queene to be purified in. The Cupborde and Wyndowes in her Chamber covered with blewe Worsted, Bankers of red Worsted, a Traves of blewe Sarcenett, and another of blewe Tartaron.

The Childe broughte Home, and the Gifts presented and delivered to the Queene as aforesaide, the Childe must be borne into the Nurcery, where it shal be nourished with a Ladye Governesse of the Nowrce, and the drye Nowrce, and they shall have 3 Chambers, which shal be called the Rockesters, and they shall have their Othes geven them by the Chamberlaine. It must be scene that there be bothe Yeomen and Gromes to wayte upon the Chamber, Sewers, Panters, and all other Officers for the Monthe, and that Othes be ministred to every of them in most straitest Maner. Furthermore it must be scene that the Nowrces Meate and Drinke be assayed duringe the Tyme that she geveth Suck to the Childe, and that a Physicion do oversee her at every Meale, which shall see that she geveth the Childe reasonnable Meate and Drinke.

As touchinge suche Necessaries as belonge unto the Childe. First, he must have a riche Mantell of Clothe of Golde with a longe Train, furred throughe out with Ermyne, to bear the Prince or Princesse in to the Christeninge, and for other Necessaries 12 Yards of Skarlette, 24 Yards of fyne Blankette, and 24 Elles of fyne Reynes, a Elle of Bauldkin of Gold lynyed with Buckeram, frenged by the Valence with Silke to hange over the Prynce by his Chimney, a Mantell of Skarlett furred with Mynivere, 2 Palletts of Canvas, 2 Mattresses, 2 Payr of Blanketts, 4 Payr of Sheets, 2 Tappets of red Worsted, 2 Quissins covered with Crymson Damaske, a Quissin of Lether, made like a carvinge Quissin for the Nowrce, a greate Potte of Lether for Water, a greate Chafer, and a Bason of Lattyn, 2 greate Basonnes of Pewter for the Lawndery in the Nowrcery, 8 large Carpetts to cover the Flores of the Chambers, &c. also a Traves of red double Tartaron, with a Celle to hange in the Chamber. It must be foreseene, that there be a little Cradell of Tree, of a Yarde and a Quarter longe, and 22 Inches broad, in a Frame faire set forthe by Painters Crafte; the Cradell shall have

A sborte and a brief Memory by Licence and Corvecon of the First Progresse of our Souveraigne Lord King Henry the VII. after his noble Coronacon, Cristemas, and Parliament holden at his Palays of Westminster towards the North Parties.

[From a Manuscript in the Cottonian Library.]

THE King on the Day of March toke his Hors wele, and nobely accompanied at Seint Johns of London, and rode to Waltham; and from thens the High Way to Cambridge, wher his Grace was honorably receyvede both of the Universitie, and of the Towne. From thens he roode by Huntingdon, Stamford, and to Lincolne; and ther his Grace kepte right devoutly the holy Fest of Ester, and full like a Christine Prince hard his dyvyne Service in the Cathedrall Church, and in no prive Chapell. On Shere Thursday he had in the Bishops Hall 29 poore Men, to whom he humbly and cristenly for Christes Love, with his noble Hands did weshe ther Fete, and gave as great Almes, like as other his noble Progenitors, Kings of England, have been accustomed aforetyme. Also on Good Friday, after all his Offerins and Observaunces of halowing of his Rings after Dynner, gave merveilous great Summes of Mony in Grotes to poore People, besides great Almes to poore Freres, Prisoners, and Lazares Howles of that Country; and on Shere Thursday, Good Friday, Ester Even, and Ester Day, the Bishop of that See did the dyvine Service, and everyche of the 3 Dayes folowing, the principallest Residenciers ther being present, did ther divine Observaunce. The King himself kepte every Day thus, during both the High Masse and Even Songe in the saide Cathedrall Church, and that same Weke he remeved unto Notingham withoute any Bayting, bycause they died at Newark, &c. The Meir and his Brethren of Notingham in Scarlet Gounes on Horsbake, accompanied with 6 or 7, with other honest Men al on Horsbake, also receyvede the King a Myle by South of Trent, and bytwene both Briggs the Proceffion both of the Freres and of the Pariche Chirches receyved the King, and so proceded thorough the Towne to the Castell. From thens the King the next Weke folowing remevede towarde Yorke, at whos Removing th Erle of Derby, the Lorde Strange, Sir William

E B R A N C U S.

O Reverende Right wis Regent of this Regalitie, Whos primatyve Patron I apper to your Presence,
Ebranc of Brytayne. I situate this Citie,
For a Place to my Pleasure of most Prehemynence.
Herunto I recourfede for moost Convenyence,
In conforting, that by Cours of lynyall Succession,
Myn Heires this my Cete shuld have in Possession.

Of Right I was Regent and ruled this Region,
I subdued Fraunce, and lede in my Legeaunce,
To you Henry, I submitte my Citie, Kee, and Coronne,
To rule and redresse as your Due; and to Defence.
Never to this Citie to presume Pretence,
But holly I remytte it to your Governauce,
As a principal Parcell of your Enheritaunce.
Please it I beseeche you, for my Remembraunce,
Sith that I am a Primatyve of your Progenye,
Shew your Grace to this Citie, with suche Habundaunce,
As the Ruyn may recover into Prosperitie.
And also of your great Grace, gif not your Ye
Only to this Citie of Insufficiency,
But graciously consider ther Wille and Diligence.
It is knowen in Trough of great Experience,
For your Blod, this Citie made never Digression,
As recordeth by the great Hurte for Blode of your Excellence,
Wherefor the rather I pray for Compassion,
And to mynd how this Citie of olde and pure Affection,
Gladdeth and enjoyeth your Highnesse, and Comyng,
With hole Consente, knowing you ther Souveraigne and King.

At the hider Ende of House Brigge, ther was ordeyned another Pajannt garnyshe with Shippes, and Botes in every Side, in Tokenyng of the Kings Landing at Milforde Havyn, and Salomon in his Habite Roiall crownede, hadde this Speche as herafter foloweth.

S A L O M O N.

Moost prudent Prynce of provid Provision,
Ther premordiall Princes of this Principallitie,
Hath preparate your Reign, the vii by Succession,
Remytting this Reame, as right to your Roialtie.

Therof

Therof Kings comyng of your Consanguinitie,
Full Roial and right wise in Rule of ther Liegeaunce.

Sith God full of Glorie, eternal Sapience,
Did enfence me Salomon of his affluente Grace,
Wher thorough I am taken as Patorne of Prudence,
To discusse upon Conscience yche judicial Cause,
Revolvyng how with Sapience ye have spent your Space,
To the Tyme of this your Reign mysteriously,
Opteyning as moost worthy your Right, not rogesly.
Now reigne ye, rule ye now your Realme right wisely,
By politek Providence as God hath enduede.
To you Souveraigne in Sapience submytting me humbly,
Your sage sober Sothfastnesse hath so be shewede
In yche judicial Right this Realme to be renewede,
Ye be advised moost worthy by graciouse Affluence, Submytting to your Souveraignetie my Septer of Sapience.
Beseeching you of bountevous Benevolence
This your Citie to supporte with Subsidie of your Grace, Thies your noble Progenitors, recordeth the Assistance
Of this Citie, to the Assufferayn in yche Tyme and Place.
Proofs maketh Experience, now Souveraigne in your Space
Of purede Witt, to your Blood of great Antiquitie,
This your Citie is solacede to have your Soveraigntie.

Beyond the Brigge, at the Turnyng into Conyeux Strete, ther was a Pajiant of the Assumption of our Lady, whiche had a Speche as ensueth.

OUR LADIE.

Henry, sith my Sone as thy Souveraigne hath the sothly assigned
Of his Grace to be Governor of his People's Protection.
Full specially that thyn Heirs of Pytie bee declynede,
I pray thee sith thy People hath me muche in Affection,
My Sone and my Souveraigne, in whom is Election,
Singluly this City hath honorrede humbly,
And made me ther Meane withoute Objection,
In Hope of their Helpe to have it holly,
What I aske of his great Grace he graunteth it goodly,
As a Bone of al bountevous Benynge,
The his Knyght he hath chosen victoriously
To convok and conceede this thy Country condigne.
For this Citie is a Place of my Pleasing.
Than have thou no Drede nor no Doubting Continuelly her in thy Reynyng,

I thee

I thee pray in this Space.

I shall shewe to my Sonne to fende thee his Grace.

In divers Places of the Citie was hanging oute of Tapestry, and other Clothes, and making of Galaries from on Side of the Strete over thwarte to that other. Some casting oute of Obles and Wafers, and some casting out of Comfettes in great Quantitie, as it had been Haylestones, for Joye and Rejoycing of the King's Comyng. At the further Ende of Conyeux Strete was ordeyned another Stage with a Pageant, wherein King Davide stode armede and crownede, having a nakede Swerde in his Hand, and making the Speche as ensueth.

K. D A V I D.

Moost prepotent Prince of Power imperial,
Redoubtete in iche Region of Christes Affiance,
Your Actes victorious bith notede principall,
In Maner mor noble than Charles of Fraunce.
Sith God so disposith of his Providence,
Like as he gave me Might to devince Goly ^a.
I David submytte to you my Swerde of Victory.
When I reignede in Jude I know and testifie,
That Ebranc the Noble whiche subdued Fraunce,
In Memory of his Tryumphe, this Citie did edifie,
That the Name of his Nobley shulde have Contynuaunce.
In Wittenesse that this Citie withoute Variaunce
Was never devincede by Force ne Violence,
Wherfor I have chofen it for my Place; To your Presence Submitting it with that Force and Truth to your Excellence.
Beseeching your Highnesse the more for myn Instaunce,
To this your Enheritaunce take gracious Complacence.
Sith that it your Citie not filede with Dissaveaunce,
True and bolde to your Bloode, not dreading Perturbance, Whiche causede moost this Citie to bee desolate,
Now Revivying in Comforte to atteigne your Astate.

lotharum From thens the King procedede to the Mynster, wher within the West Doore th Archebifshop, with the Dean and Proceffyon of the hole Quere of the same Mynster receyvede the King as accustemed, and so procedede up into the Quere byfor the high Auter, wher after the Orifons redde by th Archebifshop, the King offrede. And from thens the King went and offrede at Seint William's Shreyn, and thaa turned into the Quere into the Deanes Stalle. Th Archebifshop standing in his Trone, beganne Te Deum, &c. whiche by them of the Quere was right melodiously fongen with Organ as accustomede, and after the Collect the King went into the Paleys, wher he loggede as longe as he was in that Citie. On the Satirday next folowinge, whiche was Seint Georges Even, the King harde his Evenfong in the Mynster Chirche, having a blew Mantell above his Sircote, and on his Hedde his Cap of Maintenance, for he was coronwed on the Morn, having thAbite of the Garter above al other Robes of Estate. Th Erle of Oxinforde bare his Trayne. Also in the Morne the Trayne of the Mayntell of the Garter coverde the Trayne of the Mantell of Astate, and the Furre of the Astate sufficiently shewed the King kept his Estate. In the Bifshops great Hall th Erle of Oxinforde gave Attendance upon the Coroun, havng also thAbet of the Garter above thHabite of his Estate, and Antony Browne served that Day. The Lorde Scrop of Bolton, bycause he was a Knyght of the Garter, in both his Habites served the King of Water. Item, Sir David Owen in his Habite kervede. Item, Sir Charles of Somersfett in his Habite was Copeberer. Item, th Archebifshop, whiche ministrede the Dyvine Service, sat on the King's Right Hande, in no other Array but as he dayly goeth in: And at that other Ende of the King's Borde that Day satt no Man.

Item, in the forsaide Hall were 6 Tables, that is to say, 2 in the Middles of the saide Hall, and in every isle 2. At the first Table, in the Myddes of the Hall, sat my Lorde Chancellor, my Lord Privy Seale, th'Abbot of Seynt Mary Abbey, th'Abbott of Founteyns, thArchebifshops Suffragan, with other Prelats, and the King's Chapeleyns. Item, at the 2d Table satt the Erles of Lincoln, of Shrewsbury, Ryvers, and of Wiltshire. Barones, Knyghts, and Esquiers for the Body, &c. Item, at the furst Table, on the right Isle of the forsaide Hall, satt the Lorde Scrope, Sir Thomas of Burgh, and Sir John Cheyne, Knyghts of the Garter, all on one Side, and byneith theym left a voide Space. And then other honest Personnes fulfilled and garnished that table. Item, at the 2d Table of that Isle, satt the Dean and his Bretheren, with the hole Quere of the Mynster. Item, at the furst Table of the 2d Isle next to the Walle, satt the Mair and his Brethren, with other Citizens in great Number. Item, at the 2d Table of that Isle, sat the Jugges, and byneith theym other honest Personnes. At the Kings Tables Ende ther was ordeynede a Stage for his Officers of Armes, whiche, whiche, at the Tyme accustomede, cryed his Largeffe 3 Tymes. De treis haute, treis puissant, treis excellent Prince, le treis victorions Roy d'Angleter, & de Fraunce, & de Irland, & Souveraigne de la treis noble Order, larges, estfoves treis larges. De treis haute, treis puissante, treis excellent Prince, le treis Cristen Roy de Fraunce & d'Angleter, &c. as above. Item, Sir John Turburville, Knyght Marshall drewe the Surnap, and after Dyner was ther the voide. And then the King and the Lords did off ther Robes, excepte thAbite of the Garter, wherin the Knyghts of the same according to ther Statuts, roode to Evenfong, and on the Morne to the Masse of Requiem, whiche was songen by the Suffragan Mytrede, and after Masse, the King and the Knyghts of the Garter went to the Chapter-house, and ther helde his Chapter of the Garter. It is to be remembrede, that on Seynt Georges Day th'Abbot of Seint Mary Abbey redde the Gospell, th'Abbot Fountens the Pistill.—The Suffragan was Croyfer, and bar th'Archebishops Crosse, and all were in Pontificalibns. This doone, I had Leve for to departe. At Wytsene Even, at whiche Tyme I came to the Kings Grace at Worcester, wher as I underfande wer ordeyned certeyn Paiaunts, and Speeches like as ensuen, whiche his Graca at that Tyme harde not.

K. HENRY VI.

Welcome Nevew, welcome my Cousyn dere,
Next of my Blood descended by Alyaunce,
Chosen by Grace of God both fer and ner,
To be myn Heir in Englande and in Fraunce,
Ireland, Wales, with al the Apertenaunce
Of the hole Tytle which I sumtyme had,
All is thyn owne, wherefor I am right glad.

I am Henry the viith. sobre and sad,
Thy great Uncle, sumtyme of England King.
Full xxxix Yeres this Realme myself I had,
And of the People had the Governyng.
Slaine was I, Martir by great Tormenting,
In Chartesey buried, translate unto Windesore,
Ther logge I now, and arst ther was I bore.

Mek and mercifull was I evermore,
From Crueltie refreynyng and from Vengeance,
God hath me rewarded largely therfor.

And

And gentil Cosyn, sith thou hast this Chaunce
To be myn Heire, use wele my Governauce.
Pytie with Mercy, have alwey in thy Cure,
For by Meknesse thou shalt lengest endure.

Advertise wele what founde is in Scripture,
The Gospell seith, whofo right well it markes, Mercifull Men of Mercy may bee sure.
For God himself this writeth, and seith al Clerks, Preserved Mercy above all his Werks.
Now for his Sake, shewe it to Free and Bonde :
And he shall guyde thee both by See and Lande.

And here thou may dere Cousyn undrestande,
This poore Citie with humble Reverence
A poore Bill have put into myn Hande,
Becheching me of my Benevolence,
It to declare to thy Magnificence,
Wherto I muste my pitfull Herte embrace,
And this procede whose Luste is here in Place.

Humbly besechith your high and noble Grace,
Your poore Subjects, Liegmen, and Oratours,
Wher late befell a lamentable Case.
A Gentilman detected with Riottours,
Making Suggestion agenst you and youres,
Contryved falsely by Information,
Shewing so largely by his Confession,

That of your Grace he had graunted his Pardon
By great Charter of lif Goods and Landes,
Desiring Heder to come for his Devotion
To offer at our Lady wher that she standeth.
By Ignorance thus bee they brought in Bandes,
Beseching you moost mekely or ye passe,
Graciously pardon theym this Trespasse.

For greatly greven theym both mot and laffe
So many Men by oop to be deceyvede,
Your oune Citie that never pollutede was,
Is now defiled, for she hath hym receyvede,
Your saide Subgetts that al this hath perceyvede.
They enclyne theymsilfs, and to your Mercy ealle,
Seing they have a Warnyng perpetuall.

And from this Tyme, after whatever befall,
 They will entende to put theymsilf in Devoure
 You for to please, both olde, yonge, great and smale,
 With al ther Service your High Grace to recover.
 And your saide Orators promysse to pray for ever
 For your noble Estats and Prosperitie
 Long to contynue in Joye and Felicitie.

And now swete Henry doo somewhat for me.
 I stod for vi. and now ye stande for vii.
 Favor thoos Folks that fele Adversitie;
 God wille rewarde the therfor high in Heven.
 Now as myghty Lyon bere the even,
 Whos noble Angre in his cruell Rage,
 To prostrate People never wolde doo Damage.

That he may this with al his Counseill sage Here, I besече the Holy Trynitie,
 And the swete Moder, whiche in her tender Age
 Bare God and Man in pure Virginitie.
 And ye, both Seints of myn Affynitie,
 Ofswolde and Wolstan, right holy Confessors,
 Pray for my good Sone King Henry at al Houres.

Hevenly Fader, that art of Power moost!
 And thou his Sonne approvede unto Witte!
 O thou swete Spirite, named the Holy Gooft,
 Thre Persones in on Godhede fuerly knytt,
 For King Henry the vii. I me submytt.
 Beseching you to graunte hym in the Place,
 Power, Wildome, and al Foyfer of Grace.

O Hevenly Lord! Celestiall God durable!
 Above al Kings having Preemynence,
 Both in and on and undefenerable!
 I the besече for thy Magnyficence,
 King Henry the vii. to kepe from all Offence.
 Graunt hym longe Liff in Virtue the to please,
 And al his Dayes for to reigne in Peace.

O Eternal God, that made al Thing of nought!
 Fader and Sonne, and Holy Gooft ful preste!
 Beholde the Handemaide whiche they thre have wrought,
 And namely thou my Sone which soke my Breste,
 Henry the vii. preserve at my Requeste.

England

Englande my Dowre, so for to rule and guyde, Therby to wynde the Blisse that ever shal abide.

O Henry! moche art thou beholde to us
That thee have reysede by our oune Election.
Be thou therfor mercifull and graciouse;
For Mercye pleaseth moost our Affection.
Follow King Henry, whiche is thy Protection,
As welle in Worke as in Sanguinitie.

And in this Worlde it wille rewarded bee right welle,
If thou serve God in Love and Drede.
Savyng Compassion of them that hath Nede,
Everlasting Joye shal be thy Mede
In Heven above wher al Seints dwelle.

Loquitur JANITOR ad Januam.

*Ecce advenit Dominator, Domine,
Et Regnum in manibus potestas & Imperium.
Venit desideratus cunctis gentibus.*
To whom this Citie both al and some Speking by me, biddeth hertely welcome.
And as I crave, welcome I shall expresse,
Beseeching your Grace to pardon my Simplenesse.

Quis est ille qui venit, so great of Price?
I thought Noe, whiche came late from the Flodde.
Or is it Jafon with the Golden Flece,
The noble Mount of Riches and of Good,
Manly of Dede, mercifull, meke of Mode?
Or is it Julius with the Triumphe of Victorie,
To whom I say welcome most hertely?

Welcome Abraham, which went from his Kynnerede,
Of al this Lande to take Possession.
Welcome Ysaac, that sumtyme shulde have be dedde,
And now is Heire to his Fader by Succession.
Welcome Jacob, opteynyng the Benefon,
Whiche many Yeres dwelled with his Ungle true,
Fleyng his Countrey from Drede of Esau.

Welcome Joseph, that was to Egipte sold.
Frely welcome oute of the depe Cesterne.
Welcome David, the myghty Lion bolde,
Chosen of God, this Realme to rule and governe.

Whiche in the Felde great Goly a did prosterne,
And al his Enemyes overcome in Fight,
God being Guyde that gave him Strength and Myght,

Welcome Scipio, the whiche toked Hanyball.
Welcome Arture, the very Britain Kyng.
Welcome Defence to England as a Walle.
Cadwaladers Blodde lynally descending,
Longe hath bee towlde of such a Prince comyng.
Wherfor Frenedes, if that I shal not lye,
This fame is the Fulfiller of the Profecye.

Whiche he is this mor pleynely to expresse.
Henry the vii. chofen by Grace and Chaunce
For single Beautie and for high Prowesse,
Now to be King of England and of Fraunce,
And Prince of Wales with al thAppertenaunce,
Lord of Irelande moost famous of Renoune,
Withal the Titill perteynyng to the Coronne.

And now welcome our noble Souveraigne Lorde.
Better welcome was never Prince to us.
We have desired long God to recorde,
To see your moost noble Persone graciouse.
Welcome myghty Pereles and moost famous.
Welcome comyng, byding, goeing, and always known.
In Token whereof I yelde to you the Keyes,
Now al this Citie feith welcome to your oune.

On Wittfsonday the King went in Proceffion, and hard his dyvyne Service in the Cathedrall Chirche of the faide Citie, having no Robes of Estate upon hym, but a Gowne of Cloth of Golde of Tissue lynede with blake Satine. The Bisshop of that See did the dyvyne Service in Pontificalibus, and in the Proceffyon comynge towards the Quere agene, the Bisshop went into the Pulpitt, and made a bref and a fruet-full Sermonde. In Conclusion of the whiche he declared the Popes Bulls touching the Kings and the Quenes Right, and the Confirmation of the same. Present ther, the Bishops of Ely and of Excester, the Duc of Bedeforde, the Marques of Dorset, th Erle of Lyncoln, th Erle of Oxinforde, the Vicount Welles, the Lorde Fitzwater, Sir William Stanley, called Lorde Chamberlayn, the Lorde Husey, chief Juge of the Kings Benche, and great Number of Knyghts and Esquiers.

Esquiers,

Esquiers, and of other People. Byfor Dynor, in his Chamber, Sir Thomas Towneshende, Justice Knyght. And at the Tyme accustomed on that Day he had his Larges cried by his Officers of Armes, &c. On the Monday the King remevede, and roode to Herforde, wher a Myle and moore oute of the Town, and over long Brigge, the Meire of the

xx

Towne, with an vi Horse and above, mette the King, and receyved hym; and further nere the Towne, the Freres of the saide Citie gave ther Attendaunce in the Processyon, and after the Parishes Chirches as accustomed with great Multitude of People of the Countrey, whiche in rejoicing of the King's Comyng, cried, KING HENRY, KING HENRY, and holding up ther Handes, blessed and prayde God to preserve our King; and when he entred the Gate, ther was ordeyned a Pageant of Seint George, with a Speche as ensueth.

SAINT GEORGE.

Moost Cristen Prince, and Frende unto the Feith, Supporter of Truth, Confounder of Wikkednesse,
As People of your Realme holy reporteth and saith,
Welcome to this Citie withoute eny Feintnesse;
And thinke verely as ye see her in Likenesse,
That this Worme is discomfited by Goddes Ayde and myn.
So shal I be your Helpe, unto your Lives Fine,
To withstonde your Enemyes with the Help of that blessed Virgin,
The whiche loveth you right wele I dar playnly it say.
Wherefor ye be right welcome, I pray God further you in your Way.

At the Crosse in the Market Place was ordeyned another Pageant of a King and 2 Bishops, the whiche sensede the King, and the King of that had this Speche as ensueth.

ETHELBERT REX.

Moost vertuose Priace, and gracious in Governauce,
Not rigorous, but mercifull, as David in his Juggement.
The People of your Citie wolde ful fayne your Pleasaunce,
And prayde me as ther Patrone to informe you of ther Entent.

My Name is King Ethelbert, that sumtyme was King of Kent.
Whiche in my yong Age loost myn erthly Liff,
And now am Protector of this Cathedraill and Citie present.
Wherefor

Wherfor I say welcome both of Man, Child, and Wiff.
 And that blessed Virgin that cessith our mortal Striff Abideth your Comyng. Her what I say to you.
 Wherfor I will not ye tary, but I pray God be with you.

At the Entre of the Minster was the 3d Pajaunt of our Lady, with many Virgins mervealous and richely besene, and our Lady had her Speche as hereafter ensueth.

OUR LADY.

In the best wise welcome myn oune true Knyght
 To my Chirche and Chapelins of our oune Foundation.
 Wherfor I thank you, and pray you both Day and Nyght
 For to kepe and defende from al fraudulent Imagination.
 For many Thyngs I thanke you, the Dedes sheweth Probation,
 Unto my Lande and Honor you doth ever atteyne,
 Wherfor I thanke you of your good Supportation,
 Your Rewarde is behinde, it shall come certeyne,
 That is the Blisse of Hevyn wherein my Sone dooth reigne.
 That veraly I promysse you I have graunt afor,
 Now goo in and see my Chirche, I will tary you no more.

At the Entre within the Chirche Doore the Bisshop in Pontificalibus, with the Dean and the Quere, receyvede the King as in other Cathedrall Chirches accustomed; and on the Morne, as the King went in Proceffion, the Bisshop of that same See made a Sermonde, declaring the Popes Bulles touching the Kings and the Quenes Stile. Then the Friday next folowing, the King roode and remeved to Gloucester, wher 3 Myles withoute the Towne the Mair, with his Brethern and Shrifles in Scarlet Gownes, and other People in great Nomber in Rede Gownes, and al on Horsebakks, welcomed the King. Without the Gate betwyxte both Brigges the Proceffion of the Freres, and also the Proceffion of the Town of al the Parishes Chirches, receyvede the King; and in that Towne ther was no Pageant nor Speche ordeynede.
 Th'Abbot and his Monks receyved the King with Proceffion at th'Abbey Chirche Doore, wher the King abode Satrday and Sondag al Day, whiche was the Trinytie Sondag, and th'Abbot mitred songe the Highe Masse, and in Proceffion.
 The Bisshop of Worcester prechide, shewing the Popes Bulles touching as afor; and on Monday the King remeved to Bristow Warde, and lay at th'Abbey of Kings Woode; and on Tewfday dynyd at Acton with Sir Robert Poynes, Shryef

Shryef of Gloucestershire. Threë Myles oute of Bristow, the Maire, the Shrifves, the Bailiffs with ther Brethern, and great Number of other Burgesse al on Horsebake, in whos Names Treymayle, Recorder of the same Towne, right conyngly welcomed the King. But the Mair of Bristow bar no Mase, nor the Shrif of that Towne bar no Rodde, unto the Tyme they came to a Gate of the Suburbs, wher beginneth ther Fraunches. And on a Causey Way within that Gate the Proceßion of the Freres receyved the King; and then at the Ende of the Causey Way the Proceßion of the Pariche Chirches receyved the King, and in th'Entre of the Towne Gate ther was ordeigned a Pageant with great Melodie and Singing. The whiche cessed, ther was a King had Speche as herafter ensueth.

KING BREMMIUS.

Moost dere Cosine of England and Fraunce,
King Henry the vii. noble and victorious,
Seint Hider, by the holsome Purviaunce
Of Almyghty God moost mercifull and gracious,
To reforme Thyngs that be contrarious
Unto the Comen Wele, with a myghty Hande,
I am right gladde ye be welcome to this Lande.

Namely to this Towne, whiche I Bremmys King
Whilom bildede, with her Walles olde,
And called it Bristow, in the Begynnynge,
For a Memoriall that Folke ne wolde
Oute of Remembraunce that Acte Race ne unfold.
And welcome to your Subjects her that with oon Accorde, Thankking God highly for such a Souveraigne Lorde.

This Towne lefte I in great Prosperitie,
Havyng Riches and Welth many Folde;
The Merchaunt, the Artyficer, ev'ryche in his Degre,
Had great Plentye both of Silver and Golde,
And lised in Joye as they desire wolde,
At my departing; but I have been so long away,
That Bristow is fallen into Decaye.

Irrecuparable, withoute that a due Remedy
By you, ther herts Hope and Comfort in this Distresse, Proved bee, at your Leyser conveniently,
To your Navy and Cloth-making, wherby I gesse
The Wele of this Towne standeth in Sikernesse,

May

May be maynteigned, as they have bee
In Days hertofo in Prosperitie.

Now farwell, dere Cosyn, my Leve I take
At you, that Wele of Bountie bee
To your saide Subjects for Maries Sake,
That bereth you ther Fidelitie.
In moost loving wife now graunte ye
Some Remedye herin, and he wille quit your Mede,
That never unrewarded leveth good Dede.

And from thens the King procedede into the Towne, and at the High Crosse ther was a Pageant ful of Maydyn Chil-dern richely besene, and PRUDENTIA had the Speche as ensueth.

PRUDENTIA.

Mooste noble Prynce our Souveraigne Liege Lorde,
To this poore Towne of Bristow that is youre,
Ye be hertly welcome God to recorde,
And to yur loving Subjects and Orators,
That hertely pray for your Grace at al Houres.
The good Fame of your Renoune so fer dooth sprede,
That al your saide Subjects both love you and drede.

For in quiet wife and pefable
Your Subjects ye kepe from Devisyon.
Ye gef not Credence too lightly
To feyned Tales that make myght Discention, Wher Peas reigneth is al Perfection.
It kepeth Subjects, as they shulde bee,
From al Stryves in Quayete and Unytie.

Crist therfor that on Crosse diede,
Thoroughe the Mediation of Holy Seints all,
Save your moost High Noblesse, and bee your Guyde.
Confounde your Enemyes, make theym to you Thraull,
And strenketh with me Prudence in Especiall,
To withstonde the Things that bee contrarious;
And to doo that may please God moost glorious.

From thens the Kyng procedede ad portam Sancti Johannis, wher was another Pageant of many Mayden Childern richely besene with Girdells, Beds, and Onches, wher Jus-TICIA had the Wordes that herafter ensueth.

JUSTICIA.

JUSTICIA.

Welcome mooft excellent high and victorious.
Welcome delicate Rose of this your Brytaigne,
From al Myfaventures and Thing contrarious.
Preserved by dyvyne Power certeygn,
And so hider sentt. I will not fayne.
Welcome King of Englande and of Fraunce,
To this youre oune Towne. God send you right good Chaunce.

I am Justicia the Kinde and Nature
Of God that hath me made and ordeignede,
Over Realmes and over every Creature.
By me Justicia, is shedding of Bloode refreynnyng,
And Gilte punysshed whan it is compleynede.
I, Justice, defende Possessions,
And kepe People from Oppressions.

This is welle considerde by your noble Grace.
For ye have had alway on ye therunto
Ministring Justice duly in every Place
Thorough this Region, wher ye ride or goo
Indifferently both to Frende and Foo.
God sende you therein good Perseverance,
As may bee to his Grace most singular Pleasaunce.

I have oftyme rede in Bokes olde,
That omnia parent virtuti,
The whiche maketh me more bolde
To eschewe you this Proffesse. By and by Praying Almyghty God whiche is on high,
That from Vertue to Vertue ye may procede,
And in all your Journeys sende you right good Spede.

And then the King proceded towarde th Abbey of Seint Auleyns, and by the Way ther was a Bakers Wiff cast oute of a Wyndow a great Quantite of Whete, crying, Welcome and good Look; and a litill furthermor ther was a Pageant made, called The Shipwrights Pageannt, with praty Concepts pleyng in the same, withoute any Speche; and a litill further ther was another Pageannt of an Olifaunte, with a Castell on his Bakk, curiously wrought. The Resurrection of our Lorde in the highest Tower of the same, with cer-teyne Imagerye smytyng Bellis, and al went by Veights,

And on the Morne when the King had dynede, he roode on Pilgremage to Seint Annes in the Wodde. And on the Thurſday nexte folowing, whiche was Corpus Chriſti Day, the King went in Proceſſion aboute the Great Grene, ther callede The Sanctuary, whither came al the Proceſſions of the Towne alſo; and the Biſhop of Worceſtre prechide in the Pulpit in the Midds of the forſaide Grene, in a great Audiance of the Meyre, and the Subſtance of al the Burgeſſe of the Towne and ther Wiſſs, with muche other People of the Countrey. After Evenſonge the King ſent for the Mayre and Shriſe, and Parte of the beſt Burges of the Towne, and demaunded theym the Cauſe of ther Povertie; and they ſhewde his Grace for the great Loſſe of Shippes and Goodes that they had looſt within 5 Yeres. The King comforted theym, that they ſhulde ſett on and make new Shippes, and to exerciſe ther Marchandife as they wer wonte for to doon. And his Grace ſhulde ſo helpe theym by dyvers Means like as he ſhewde unto theym, that the Meyre of the Towne towlde me they harde not this hundred Yeres of noo King ſo good a Comfort. Wherefor they thanked Almighty God, that hath ſent theym ſoo good and graciouſe a Souveraigne Lord. And on the Morne the King departede to London warde.

Item, it is to be remembred, that in every Shire that the King our Souveraigne Lorde rode, the Shriſſs of the ſame Shire gavé ther Attendaunce, and bare ther white Roddes, And in like wiſe the Nobles of that Countre viſitede the Kings Grace as he paſſed by. As touching the Gifts and Preſents whiche Cities, Townes, or Abbeyes gave the King's Grace, I am not certayned; but I underſtande ther wer dyvers both of Golde, Silver, Wyne, Bedes, and Metens. On the 5th Day of June, whiche was upon a Monday, the King came by Water from Shene, and landed at Weſtminſter Brigge. The Maire of London, with al his Brethern, and al the Crafts in London in great Multitude of Barges, garnyſhede with Banners, Penounces, Standers, and Penſells, mett with his Grace as far as Putnaine, and hertely welcomede hym home, and then went aboute ther Barges, and landede byfor the King. Every Craft ſtoode by theym ſiſſe alonge in a Rowe from the Brygg Ende thorough the Paleys to Seint Margaretts Chirche Yerde, wher th Abbot and Proceſſion of Weſtminſter receyvede the King, and gave hym his Septre, and the Proceſſion of Sent Stevens Chapell, whiche had receyvede hym in the Paleys byfor, departede.

Then

Then when the King had offrede in the Abbey, and Te beum fongen, the King went to his Paleys. On the Morne the Maire of London, with his Brethern, came offenes and sitede the Kings Grace. Sir Fitzwilliam, Recorder of London, in al ther Names made to the King a oble Proposition, in the Rejoicing of the Kings good Spede.
After that, the King receyved in his great Chámber a great mbassat from the King of Skotts Letters, to wit, the Lorde oythvayle, th Abbot of Holy Roode Houfe, Robert Lorde enedy, Maister Archeball, Secretary to the King of Scotts;
ohn Rooffe, Esquier, and Counceller of the saide Kinge, yon King of Armes. Also Roos Herald and Unycorne ursuyvant gave their Attendaunce, and came with the saide mbassadours, with dyvers other Gentilmen and Servants, to ong Proposition in Latin, and they were loggede at Seint Johns at the Kings Coost. After at ther Departure they had great Gifts and Rewardes. And sone after the King departed from Westminster towarde the West Parties, and hunted, so to Wynchester, where on St. Eustachius' Day the Prince Arture was borne.

The Christening of Prince Arthur. His Majestys Progresse to Canterbury, and other Parts, and the Battle of Stoke.

[From the same Manuscript.]

ON St. Eustachius' Day, which was in the Year of our Lord M.CCCC.LXXXVI. the Dominical Letter A, and and the ijde Yete of the Reigne of our saide Souveraigne, the Prince Arture was born at Winchester, whiche was the firste begotten Sone of our said Souveraigne Lorde King Henry the viiith, and cristened in Manner and Forme as ensueth, but not untill the Soneday next folowing, bycause th Erle of Oxynforde was at that Tyme at Lanam in Suffolke, whiche shulde have ben on of the Godfaders, at the Font, and also that Season was al rayny. Incontynent after the Birth, Te Deum with Procession was songe in the Cathedral Chyrche, and in all the Chyrches of that Citie; great and many Fiers made in the Streets, and Messengers sent to al the Astats and Cities of the Realme with that comfortable and good Tydyng, to whom were geven great Giftes. Over al Te Deum Laudamus songen, with Ringyng of Belles, and in the moest Parties, Fiers made in the Praying of God, and the Rejoyfing of every true Englissemán.

The Body of al the Cathedral Chyrche of Wynchester was hangede with Clothes of Arras, and in the Medell, beside the Font of the saide Chyrche, was ordeyned and prepared a solempne Fonte in Manner and Forme as ensueth. Furst ther was ordeynede in Manner of a Stage of vij Steppes square or rounde like, an high Crosse coverede with rede Woistede, and up in the Myddeft, a Poost made of Iron, to bere the Fonnt of Silver gilte, whiche within fourth was wele dressede with fyne linnen Clothe; and nere the same on the West Side was a Steppe like a Blokk for the Bishep to stonde on, coverede also with red Say; and over the Font, of a good Height, a riche Canape, with a great gilte Bolle celid and fringed, without Curteyns. On the North Side was ordeynede a Travers hanged with Cloth of Arras, and upon the one Side therof within fourth another Travers of redde Sarlenet, wherof James Hide and Robert Brent had the Charge. Ther was Fyer without Fumygationes redy agenste the Prince's Comyng; and without, the Grese of the saide Fonnt was raylede with good Tymbre, and coverede as the Grelis wer, having ij Entres, on over the Este, and another in the Weste, whiche were kept by v Yeomen of the Coronne, that is to say, Rake, Burle, Robert Walker, William Vaughan, and John Hoo. After the Lorde John Alkok Bishop of Worcestre had halowed the Fonnt, it was kepte by Sir David Owen and Sir Hugh Persfall, Knyghts for the Body, and Richarde Wodeville, Thomas Poyntz, John Crokker, and Thomas Brandon, Esquiers for the Body. On the Sonday, when the Chapell was come into the Priours great Hall, whiche was the Quenes great Chamber, the Tresourer of Houfholde toke the Assay of Salt to the Sargeannt of the Pantery, and delyverde it to th Erle of Essex, and a Towel withall, whiche the saide Yerle caste aboute his Nek. In like wise the Sergeant of the Chaunderye bare a Taper garnished with iiij wrethen Bowtes, and Bowles, and with Barnekolls and Pensells, with praty Imagery and Scripture, the whiche the Lorde Nevell, Sone and Heire of th Erle of Westmorlande, bare. Item, the Sergeaunt of the Eury delyvered to the saide Trezoror a Pere of gilt Bafons, with a Towell fowlden upon theym, whiche were delyvered to the Lorde Strannge, and as followeth they proceeded towarde the Chirche. Furst ther were ^{xx}vi Torches borne unlight ij and ij togeders by Henxmen, Squiers, Gentilmen, and Yomen of the Coronne, the Gouvernaunce of whom had Kuyfson, Gedding, Pers of Wreyton, and John Amyas. After theym the Chappell. After the Chapell ther wer withoute Order certain Knyghts and Esquiers. After them Kings of Armes, Herauldes and Purfuivants having their Cots on their Armes, and Sergeaunts of Armes, as been accustomede. Then th Erle of Derbye and the Lord Maltravers. After them the Bafonns; then the Taper; then the Salte of Golde covered; and then a riche Crefome, whiche was pinnyde on the right Brest of my Lady Anna, Sister of the Quene, hanging on her left Arme. Sir Richarde Gilforde, Knight, Constable, on the right Hand, and Sir John Turburvill, Knight Marshall, on the lefte Hande, bering ther Staves of Office. After theym my Lady Cecill, the Quenes eldest Sister, bare the Prince wrappede in a Mantell of Cremefyn Clothe of Golde furred with Ermyn, with a Trayne, whiche was borne by my Lady the Marquesse of Dorset, and Sir John Cheyny supportede the Midell of the same. The Lorde Edwarde Widevill, the Lorde La Warre, the Sonne and Heire of the Lorde Audeley, and Sir John of Arundell, bare the Canapie. The Marques of Dorcett and th Erle of Lincolln gave Assistance to my Lady Cecill. At the Cristen-

ing

ing was my Lady Margaret of Clarence, my Ladye Gray Rithyn, my Lady Strannge th Elder, my Lady La Warre, Maistres Fenys, my Lady Vaux, my Lady Darcy, Lady Maistresse, my Lady Bray, my Lady Dame Katyn Grey, my Lady Dame Elyonor Hant, my Lady Wodell, with dyvers other Gentilwomen. And thus proceeded thorough the Closter of th'Abbey, unto a litill doore beside the West End of the Chirche, in the South Parte of the saide Chirche, wher was ordeyned a riche and a large Clothe of Estate; for the Wether was to cowlde and to fowlle to have been at the West End of the Chirche. And the Queen Elizabeth was in the Chirche abyding the Comyng of the Prince. At whiche Tyme Tydings came that th Erle of Oxynforde was within a Myle. There was the Bishopp of Worcester, Lorde John Alkok, whiche cristende the Prince in Pontificalibus, and the Bishopp of Excestre, Lorde Pers Courtney, and the Bishop of Saresbury, Lorde Thomas Langton, th Abbot of Hide, and the Por of the same Place; in like wise accompaniede, with many noble Doctors in riche Copes and grey Amys. Mayster Robert Morton, the Maister of the Rowles, the Deane of Welles, Maister John Gonthorp, Doctor Fox the Kings Secretary, with many moo. Howbeit they taried iij Oures largely and more after the saide Erle of Oxynforde, and after that by the Kings Commandement, proceeded, and th Erle of Derby and the Lorde Maltravers weren Godfaders at the Fonnt, and Quene Elizabeth Godmoder. Incontinent after the Prince was put into the Fonnt, the Officers of Armes put on ther Coots, and all the Torches weren Light, and then entrede th Erle of Oxynforde. From the Font the Prince was had to his Travers, and above him a Cremesyn Cloth as byfore. From thens in saire Order was he borne to the High Auter, and leide therupon by hys Godmoder. After certeyn Ceremony, whan the Goospele was doon, Veni Creator Spiritus was begon, and solempnely songen by the Kings Chapell with Orgons, and Te Deum also. During whiche Season th Erle of Oxynforde toke the Prince in his right Arme, and the Bishop of Excestre conferred hym; and the Bishop of Saresbury knytt the Bande of Lynene about his Nek. Then the Marquise of Dorcet, th Erle of Lyncolln, and the Lorde Strannge, served Quene Elizabeth of Towel and Water, and Sir Roger Cotton, and Maister West, served the other Goffseps. Byseide the saide High Auter was ordeyned a Travers for the Prince, wher Quene Elizabeth gave a riche Cuppe of Golde coverede, whiche was borne by Sir Davy Owen. Th' Erle of Oxynforde forde gave a Pere of gilte Bafonns, with a Sayer, whiche were borne by Sir William Stone; th Erle of Derby gave a riche Salte of Golde coverede, whiche was borne by Sir Raynolde Bray: And the Lorde Maltravers gave a Cofer of Golde, whiche was borne by Sir Charles of Somersett. From thens they proceedede to Seynt Swythens Shryne, and offrede, wher was another Travers. Then Iste Confessor, with an Antyme of Seint Swythyne, was songen, and Spices and Ipocras, with other swete Wynys, great Pleyntyje. Whiche doone, the Prince retournede, and was borne Home by my Ladye Cecill, accompanied as byfore, saving the Salt, the Bafons, and the Taper, and all the Torches brennyng. In the Entering of the Noiserye wer the Kings Trumpets and Mynstrells pleying on ther Instruments, and then was he borne to the King and the Quene, and had the Blessinge of Almyghty God, our Lady, and Seint George, and of his Fader and Moder. In the Chirche Yerde wer sett ij Pipes of Wyne, that every Man myght drynke ynow. Memorandum, that the Bisshop wesshed at the Font with coverede Bafons.

AFTER that the Quene was purified and hole of an Agu that she had, the King and the Quene, my Lady the Kings Moder, and al the Court, remeved to Grenewiche, and ther they kepte the solempne Feste of Al Halowes, greatly accompanied with Estats and noble People as folowing. Furst, the Marquis of Dorcet, th' Erle of Lyncolln, th' Erle of Oxinforde, th' Erle of Derby, th' Erle of Nottingham, the Viscount Lisley, the Lorde Maltravers, the Lorde Strannge, the Lorde Dodeley, and many more great Lordes, Knyghts, and Esquiers, in great Nomber. That Day the King went in a Goune of Clothe of Golde furred, and in no Robes of Estate. Also the King gave his Larges to his Officers of Armes as accustomed, and they did ther Devoir therfor. Likewise the King kept his Cristemas at the same Place asorfaide, howbeit he was not accompanied with Lords, as he was at Halballutyde. The King kept ther non Astate in the Halle, but his Grace gave to his Officers of Armes on the 3 Dayes, as of olde he and other Kings have accustomed. And on New Yeres Day Thomas Lovell delyverde the King Larges in Boke; but that and al other Lordes and Ladies Gefts ben in our Regefter, as the Rewards of my Lady the Kings Moder, the Marquis of Dorcett, th' Erle of Derby, &c. After Cristemas the mooste Reverende Fader in God the Lorde John Morten asorfaide was on a Sonday, the . . . Day of Janyver, intrononyfed at Canterbury, greatly accom-accompanied with Lords both Esprituels and Temporals, as it aperethe more at large in a Book made of the same Feste. As I understande; he by hys Journey towards his Inthronyzation, after his Licence of the King at Lambeth, and gretely accompanied, roode furst to Croydon, and from thens to Knowle, from thens to Maydeston, from thens to Charing, and from thens to Chartham, wher he lay the Satirday at Nyght; and on the Soneday, when he entrede Canntribury, al the Belles of the Citie were rong; and he alight and went on his Fete. At the great Gate (Fourthe within) met hym the Processyon of Christe Chirche, and senfede hym. And when he was entrede a litil within the West Door, ther was ordeynede a Stole with a riche Clothe of Silke, and Coushyns, wher he knelede a Tracte of While or Tyme, and lete falle many a Tere of his Yene; and after proceded to the High Auter. Then Te Deum was songe, and he and al the Prelats did on theym riche Coopes, and with Procession went and recounted the Pall sent from our Holy Fader the Pope, whiche was borne by the Bisshop of Rochester. Then they retourned byfore the High Auter, wher the Bisshop of Worcester red and declared the Popes Bulles, and made a great Proposition of the same, shewing the Vertue and the Betokenyng of the Pall. Whiche so delyvered to the saide Lorde of Canterbury, he sat in a Cheire, and all the Prelats that wer ther kyste the saide Relique or Palle, and after, the Cheeke of the saide Archebisshop. And in likewyse after them al the religiouse People of that Housse. This doon th Archebisshop and al other Prelats went into the Vestery. The Bisshop of Ely was Deken, and rede the Gospel. The Bisshop of Rochester bar the Crosse, and redde th Epistell. The Bisshop of Saresbury was Channter, and beganne the Office of the Masse. As for al the Solempnytie of that Masse, and in that Feste, it is written in the other Boke, wherfor I passe over her. But it was the best orderde and served Feste that ever I sawe, or that myght be comparede to. And the Kings Servaunts and Officers of Armes that wer ther, on the Morne when they toke ther Leve were wele and worshipfully rewardede. Also ther was the Marquis of Dorcet, with 8 or 9 other Barons, besids Knyghts and Esquiers, whiche were in marvelous great Number, and al in his Lyverey of Mustredevelles *. And after Candell Masse, the King being at Shene, had a great Counsell of his Lords both Spirituels and Temporels. At whiche Tyme ther was a great Ambassad of Fraunce. And at that Counseill was th Erle of Lyncolln, whiche incontynently after the faide Counseil departede the Land, and went into Flaunders to the Lorde Lovell, and accompanied hymself with the Kings Rebels and Enemyes, noyng in that Countrey, that th Erle of Warwik shulde be in Irelande, whiche himselfe knew, and daily spake with him at Shene afor his Departing. And in the Begynnyng of Lent, after his Arryvyng in thoos Parties, ther they dayly preparede them to the See; and in Conclusion fo departed into Ireland, al thorough the narrow See. The King departede the 2d Weke of Lente, and roode into Essex, and so into Suffolke to Bery, and from thens kept his Ester at Norwiche in the Bishshops Paloys, and al the dyvyne Servyce was al that Season doon ther by the moost Reverende Fader in God the Archebishop of Canterbury. On the Thursday the King did his Halmes, and the Observaunce of the Maundy, in the Hall of the Paloys. Also ther wer with the King at that Fest, the Reverende Fader in God the Lorde Fox Bishop of Excester. Item, the Duc of Suffolke, th Erle of Oxynford, th Erle of Derbye, the Lorde Fitzwater, Stewarde of the Kings Howse, Sir Robert Willoughby, and a great Nomber of Knyghts and Esquiers, and in Substance al the Nobles of that Parties, for in that Tyme they had dayly Tydings of the preparing of his Rebelles and Enemyes, whiche then wer in Selande and Flawndres to the Seewarde, and (as was reportede) to lande in this Realme, in what Parte it was no certeynte. Wherfor the King, on the Monday in Ester Weke, rode to Walsingham, and ther with good Devotion did his Offering. And from thens fourth towards the Middel of his Realme, that is to say to Coventrye, whether dayly his true Servaunts and Subjects drewe towards his Grace, and rode by Cambrige, Hentyndon, and Northampton; and on Seint Georges even came to Coventrye, wher he kept his Fest of Seint George. Ther th Archebishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Wynchester, the Bishop of Ely, the Bishop of Lincoln, the Bishop of Worcester, the Bishop of Excester, and the Priour of Coventrye, al in Pontificalibus, redde and declared the Popes Bulls, touching the Kings and the Quenes Right; and ther in the Quere, in the Bishshops Seete, by the Auctoritie of the same Bulls, cursed with Boke, Bell, and Candle, al thoos that dyd any Thyng contrary to ther Right, and approving ther Tytles good. That Yere the King ordeyned the Duc of Suffolke to bee his Depute at Wyndesore, for the Fest there, whiche was accompanied with the Lorde Maltravers, the Lorde Dodely, and other. And when the King had very Worde, that his Enemyes and Rebelles wer landed in Irelande, the great Party of the Nobles of the South Parties, to ther great and importunat Charge, wer whith his Grace at his Citie of Coventrye lycensed dyvers of theym to goe to ther Countreyes, and prepare theymsilf, that they myght upon a Day sygned retorne unto his Grace for Aide and Strengeth of theymsilf, and of the hole Realme. And some Nobles wolde not departe from his Grace, but sent Parte of ther People into ther Countries for ther Releve, upon Warnyng as above is saide. Then the King hymself roode to Kenelworth to the Queen, and to my Lady the Kings Moder, whether within a shorte Whyle after came Tydyngs that his Enemyes were londede in the North Parties, besidesse Furnesse Felles. Incontynent the King assemblde his Counsell for the ordering of his Hooft, and the noble and coraygious Knyght th Erle of Oxenforde desired and besaught the King to have the Conduyt of the Foward, whiche the King graunted, and accompanied hym with many great coragious and lusty Knyghts; that is to say, th Erle of Shrewesbury, the Vicount Lisley, the Lorde Gray Rythyn, the Lorde Gray, the Lorde Hastings, the Lorde Ferris of Charteley, with great Number of other Baneretts, Bachelers, and Esquiers. The Lorde Powis, Sir Edward Wydwyle, whos Sole God pardon, Sir Charles of Somersett, Sir Richard Hant, with many other Galants of the Kings Howse wer the For Ryders, and also the Wyng of the Right Hand of the Fowarde; and Sir Richard Pole and others of the Lefte Hande. And when the King had thus preparat and ordeynede his Fowarde, he ordeynede by his Proclamations, for goode Rule of his Hooft, by the Advise of the Reverende Fader in God the Archebischop of Canterbury, the Bysshop of Wynchester, the Bischop of Excester, and of al other Temporall Lordes ther present, and of other his Councellers in Maner as en-fueth. The King our Souveraigne Lorde straytly charge and comaunde, that no Maner of Man, of whatsoever State, Degre, or Condition he bee, robe ne spoyle any Chyrche, ne take oute of the same any Ornament theron belonging, nor touche, ne sett Hande on the Pixe wherin the Blessed Sacrament is conteynede; nor yet robbe ne spoyle any Maner Man or Woman, upon Peyne of Deth. Also, that no Maner of Persones ne Persones, whatsoever they bee, make no Quarell to any Man, nor seafe, nor vex, ne trouble any Man, by Body or Goodes, for any Offense, or by Color of any Offence hertofor doon or comyttede agens the Roial Majestie of the King our saide Souveraigne Lorde, withoute his Auctoritie and especial Comaundement geven unto hym or theym

Kings Hooſte, upon Payne of Imprifonment, and openly to be punyſhed in Example of al other. Alſo, whanſoever it ſhall pleaſe the King our Souveraighe Lorde to comaunde any of hys Officers of Armes to charge any Thing in his Name, by hys high Comaundement, or by the Comaundement of his Counſtable or Marſhall, that it be obſerved and kept upon Payne of Imprifonment, and his Body to be punyſhed at the Kings Pleaſure.

From thens the King procedede to Coventrye, wher the Biſhop of Wynchefter toke his Leve, and went to the Quene, and the Prince and the Subſtance of his Companye wayted upon the King under the Standerde of his Neveu th Erle of Devonſhir. From Coventrie the King remeved unto Leyceſter, wherby the Comaundement of the mooſte Reverende Fader in God th Archbiſhop of Canterbury, then Chancellor of England, the Kings Proclamations were put in Execution. And in eſpecial voydyng comen Women, and Vagabonds, for ther wer imprifoned great Number of both. Wherfor ther was more Reſte in the Kings Hooſte, and the better Rule. And on the Morow, whiche was on the Monday, the King lefte ther the forſaide Reverende Fader in God, and roode to Loughborough; and the ſaide Lorde Chancellors Folks were comyttede by his Neveu Robert Morton unto the Stander of th Erle of Oxinforde in the Fowarde. And at Loughborough the Stokks and Priſonnes wer reaſonably fylled with Harlatts and Vagabonnds. And after that were but fewe in the Hooſte, unto the Tyme the Felde was doon. On Tewſday the King remeved, and lay al Nyght in the Felde, under a Wode callede Bonley Rice. And on the Wedneſday the Kings Marſhalls and Herbigers of his Hoſte did not ſo welle ther Diligence that Way; for when the King remeved, ther was no propre Grounde apoyntede wher the Kings Hooſte ſhulde logge that Nyght hen folowing, but it was a royal and a marvelouſe faire and a wele tempered Day. And the King with his Hooſte wandrede her and ther a great Eſpace of Tyme, and ſo came to a fayre longe Hille, wher the King ſett his Folks in Array of Batell, that is to ſay, a Bow and a Bill at his Bak, and al the Fowarde were wele and warely loggede under the Hille to Notynham warde. And when the King hade ſene his People in this fayr Array, he roode to a Village 3 Myles a this Side Notingham on the Highway Syde, wher in a Gentilmanneſ Place his Grace logede. And in that Village, and in a Bene Felde to Notingham warde, longede al his Batell;

Batell; whiche Evening wer taken certeyn Espies whiche noysede in the Contrey, that the King had ben fledde. And fume were hangede on the Ashe at Notyngham Brygge Ende. And on the Morowe, whiche was Corpus Christi Day, after the King had harde the dyvyne Serwyce in the Pariche Chirche, and the Trumpetts hadde blowne to Horse, the King not letting his Hoste to understand his Entente, rode bakewarde to see, and also welcome the Lorde Strannge, whiche brought with hym a great Hoste, I now to have beten al the Kings Enemies, only of my Lorde his Faders th' Erle of Derbye Folks, and his. And al wer fayre embaytailed, whiche unknowne turnyng to the Hooft, causede many Folks for to marvaile. Also the King's Standerde and muche Cariage folowde after the King, unto the Tyme the King was advertyfede by Carter King of Armes, whom the King comaunded to turne them al ageyn, whiche so dide theym al in Bataile, on the hef heder Side of the great Hille a this Side Notingham, unto the Tyme the King came. That Nyght the Kings Hooft lay under the Ende of al that Hille towarde Notingham to Lenton warde, and his Fowarde byfor hym to Notynham Bruge warde. And th Erle of Derbyes Host on the Kings lifte Hand to the Medowes besides Lenton. And that Evenyng ther was a great Skrye, at wiche Skrye ther fiede many Men; but it was great Joy to see how sone the King was redye, and his true Men in Array. And from thens on the Friday the King, understanding that his Enemyes and Rebelles drew towards Newarke warde, passing by Southwelle, and the Furside of Trente, the King with his Hoste remevede thedarwards, and logged that Nyght beside a Village called Ratcliff, 9 Miles oute of Newarke. That Evening ther was a great Skrye, whiche causede many Cowards to flee; but th Erle of Oxenforde, and al the Nobles in the Fowarde with hym, wer sone in a good Array, and in a fayr Bataile, and so was the King, and al the very Men that ther wer. And in this

Estrye I harde of no Man of Worship that fledde, but Raskells. On the Morne, whiche was Satirday, the King erly arros, and harde 2 Masses, wherof the Lorde John Fox, Bishop of Excester, sange the Ton; and the King had 5 good and true Men of the Village of Ratecliff, whiche shewde his Grace the beste Way for to conduyt his Hooft to Newark, whiche knew welle the Countrey, and shewde wher wer Marres, and wher was the River of Trent, and wher wer Vilages or Grovyys for Busshements, or strayt Weyes, that the King might conduyt his Hooft the better. Of whiche Guides the King

King gave 2 to th Erle of Oxinforde to conduyt the Fowarde, and the Remanent reteyned at his Pleasure. And fo in good Order and Array, before 9 of the Clok, beside a Village called Stook, a large Myle oute of Newwarke, his Fowarde recountrede his Enemyes and Rebels, wher by the Helpe of Almighty God he hadde the Victorie. And ther was taken the Lad that his Rebels callede King Edward, whos Name was indede Lambert, by a Vaylent—and a gentil Esquier of the King's Howse, called Robert Bellingham. And ther was slayne th' Erle of Lincoln John, and dyvers other Gentilmen, and the Vicount Lorde Lovell put to Flight. And ther wer slayne of Englishe, Duche, and Whiche Duc, with other, by Force of the saide Commission, att the said Day in the Whitehall at Westminster, and let make a Proclamation by an Officer of Armes, that al Maner of Men, what Estats or Degre they be, that helde any Lande by Service Royal, that is to say, to do any Servyce at the Coronation of the Quene, shulde come in and schew their Clayme. And they shulde therupon be answerede, and have that wiche Right and Law requirede.

The Kings Highnesse, for the Determynation and good accomplishment of the said Coronation by hym as above determyned, the Satirday nexte byfore the Feste of Alhalowes beganne his Jorney, and both he and the Quene received from Warwick towards London, and in his Way at Saint Albons kepte the Feste of Alhalowes. On Alsoules day the Morne after, when he had harde dyvyne Service and synede, his Grace remevede from thens to Barnet, and theryal nyght. And on the Morne, as he was comyng towards London, in Harnesses Park, the Mayre, Shryffs, and Aldermen, and dyvers Comens of London therto chosende of every Craft, met his Grace al on Horsbak ful welled honorably besene in on Liverey, to attend upon his Highnesse, wher Sir William Horne, Maire, was dubbed nyght, and bytwene Iseldon and London Sir John Percyule was also dubbed Knight. Agenthe the Comyng of the King into his Citie of London, al the Streys that his Grace shulde ride thorough with his Roiall Company, were clenfede, and of both Sids the Strete the Citizens of every Crafte that wode not, wer sett in Row, every Craft in due Order in their Lyveres wel besene, from Bishops Gate unto Powles. And so at Afternone the King, as a comely and roiall Prince, parailled accordingly, entred into his Citie wele and honorably accompanied, as was fitting to his Estate, with many great Lordes and other clenly horsed, and richly besene, and so came riding thorough the Citie to the Westendore of Powles, wher his Grace alightyde. To receyve hym into the Chyrche was the Quere of Powles in their habites and Copes. Ther was present the Bishop of Canterbury, and many other Bishops and Prelats of the Chyrche gave ther Attendaunce upon his Hyghnesse. And at his

Tom. III. E c Eare

Entre into the Chirche, his Grace was sensende with the great Senser of Powles by an Angell commyng oute of the Roof. During whiche Tyme the Quere fange a solemne Antyme, and after Te Deum Laudamus for Joy of his late Victory and prosperous Comyng to his saide Citie. And in his so comyng thorough the Citie, al the Howses, Windowes, and Strets as he passed by wer hogely replenyshede with People in passing great Nomber, that made great Joye and Exaltation to beholde his most Royall Person so prosperously and princely comyng into his Citie after his late Triumphe and Victory agenste his Enemyes; and so to beholde the faire and goodly Sight of his so comyng. The Quenes Grace and my Lady the Kings Moder, with other dyvers Ladies and great Astats in ther Company, were secretly in an Hous—besids Seint Mary Spetell withoute Bishops Gate. And when the Sight was passede theyme, they went from theyns to Grenewiche to ther Bedds. After the Kings Highnesse was thus receyvede in Powles, and had offred at Places accustomed ther, he went into the Bishops Palays of London, and ther rested al Nyght. And on the Morne, whiche was Sunday, he went ⁱⁿ a Proceffion in Powles, and harde the Sarmonds ther.

On the Fryday next byfor Seint Katheryns Day, the Quenes good Grace royally apparelled, and accompayned with my Lady the Kyngs Moder, and many other great Estats, both Lords and Ladyes richely besene, came forwarde to the Coronation. And at ther Commyng fourth from Grenewiche by Water, ther was attendyng uppon her ther, the Maire, Shriffs, and Aldremen of the Citie, and dyvers and many worshipfull Comeners chofene oute of every Crafte, in ther Lyveres, in Barges freshely furnysshed with Baners and Stremers of Silk richely besene—with the Armes and Bagges of ther Crafts, and in especiall a Barge called The Bachelers Barge, garnysshed and apparellede, passing al other, wherein was ordeynede a great red Dragon spowting Flamys of Fyer into Temmys. Also many other gentlemanly Pajants wele and curiously devysed to do her Highnesse Sport and Pleasure with. Her Grace thus roially apparellede, and accompanied; and also furnysshed on every Behalf with Trumpetts, Clarions, and other Mynstrelles apperteignyng and fitting to her Estate royall, came from Grenewiche aforesaide, and landed at Towr Warff, and so entred into the Towre, wher the Kyngs Hyghnesse welcomede her in suche Maner and Forme as was to al th Astats and other ther being present, a very good Sight, and right joyous s and comfortable to beholde. Ther the Gentilmen, by the Kings moost honorable Letters to receyve the of Knyghhod, were created Knyghts of the Bath in r and Forme as the Picture therof made shewethe.

Names, with the Names of the Esquiers, Governors
: Kings Appoyntement to attende upon the Tyme of Next theym folowed ij Chares coverde with riche Cloth of Gold, welle and clenly horsede. In the furst Chare satt my Lady of Bedeforde, and my Lady Cecill. In the ijde Chare satt the Duches of Suffolke, the Duches of Norfolke, and the Countes of Oxinforde. Then folowed vi Baronesses, the Lady Straunge, Lady Gray, Lady Lawar, Lady Ferres of Chartley, Lady Dudley, Lady Powes, uppon faire Palfereys in Gownes of Cremesyn Velvett, al in a Sute. Ther Horse Harnesse and the Sadells of the same Sute that the Henxmen's Horses wer of. After theym came ij other Chares richely coverede, and wele horsede, with the Remenaunt of the Quenes Ladies and Gentilwomen. After those Chares, the Gentilwomen of my Lady Bedford in a Sute, and next theym the Gentilwomen of my Lady Cecill in another Sute. And so folowing iche other, the Gentilwomen of every Astate that wayted upon the Quene came riding upon goodly Palferees wele and richely besene, with great Bedds and Cheynes of Golde aboute ther Neks in marveolous great Number. The Quene thus riolly commyng to Westminster had her Voyde, &c.

On the Morne, the Day of the Coronation, she was apparelde in a Kirtill and a Mantell of Purple Velvett furred with Ermyns, with a Lace afor the Mantell. On her Hair, a Serkelett of Golde richely garnysshede with Perle and precious Stonys. And so apparelled, my Lady Cecill bering her Trayne, she remevede furthe of Westminster Hall, and ther stode under a Cloth of Astate unto the Tyme the Procession was orderde, from the whiche Place to the Pulpit in Westminster Chirche she wentt upon new Ray Clothe. Al the Day from thens forth, the Bande of the v Ports bare the Canapie according to ther Privileges. And the Order of the Procession was as ensueth.

Furst,

Furst; Esquiers proceeded, and Knyghts folowed them. After theym went the new made Knyghts wele besene in dyvers Silks, every Man as hym best likede after his Degre. After theym the Barons, and other Estats in Order as they wer, the Heraldes on every Side the Procession, and Sergeannts of Armes to make Rome. Then folowed Abbotts, and next theym Bishops in Pontificalibus, to the Number of xv Bishops, besyde Abbotts, wherof the Bishop of bare Seint Edwards Chales, the Bishop of Norwiche bare the Patent, byfor whiche Prelats went the Monks of Westminster al in Albes, and the Kings Chapell folowing theym. Next to the Quene went al the other Bishops, except the Bishop of Wynchester, and the Bishop of Ely, whiche went on ether Hande the Quene under the Canapie to susteyne her Grace. Then went th Archebishop of Yorke. After him was Garter King of Armes; the Maire of London next byfor the Counstable and Marshall as befor reherfede. Next unto theym th Erle of Arondell bering the Virge of Iverye, with a Dove in the Tope. After hym the Duc of Suffolke bering the Septre. Then th Erle of Oxinforde Great Chamberlayn, in his Parliament Roobees, having in his Hand the Staff of his Office. Then the Duc of Bedforde bar hedede in his Roobees of Astate bering a riche Corowne of Golde. Then folowed the Quene appareld as is asor reherfede; and next her my Lady Cecill, whiche bar her Trayne. Next her folowd the Duchesse of Bedeforde, and another Duchesse and Comtesse apperelled in Mantells and Sircoots of Scarlet, furred and powderde, the Duchesses having on ther Heds Coronatts of Golde richely garnysshed with Perle and precious Stones, and the Comtesse on her Hed Serkeletts of Golde in like wise garnysshed, as dooth apper in the Bok of Picture therof made. But the more Pitie ther was so Hoge a People inordynatly presing to cut the Ray Cloth, that the Quenes Grace gede upon, so that in the Prefence certeyne Persones wer slayne, and the Order of the Ladies folowing the Quene was broken and disturbed.

The Quenes Grace thus comyng forth, when she came to the Entre of the West Dore of the Chirche of Westminster, ther was saide by the this Orison, Omnipotens sempiterna Deus, &c. That doon she procedede thorowgh the Quer unto the Pulpit, wherin was a Sege Royall dressed with Cloth of Golde, and Cusshins accordingly. Th Archebishop of Canterbury ther being present, and reveysted as apperteyneth to the Celebration of the Masse, receyved the Quene comyng from her Royall Sege with the Lordes bering her her Crowne, Septer, and Rodde, and the Bishops susteynyng her as is abovesaide. The Grecis byfor the High Auter^s wer honorably dressed and arrayed with Carpetts and Cushions of Astate, wherupon the Quene lay prostrate asfor the Archebischop, whiles he seide over her this Orison, Deus qui solus habes, &c. That doon she aros and kneled, and my Lady toke her Kerchef from her Hede, and th Archebysshop opend her Brest, and anoynted her ij Tymes. Furst, in the former Parte of her Hede, and secondly, in her Breste asfor, sayng thies Wordes, In nomine Patris & Filii, &c. prosit tibi hec unctio, with this Orison, Omnipotens sempiterne Deus. That doon the said Lady closed her Brest, and folowingly the saide Archebischop blessed her Ring, seing this Orison, Creator, and cast holy Water upon it. Then he put this same Ring on the iiij Finger of the Quenes right Hande, saing theyes Words, Accipe annulum, and then he said, Dominus vobiscum, with this Collect, Deus tuus, &c. Then after the said Archebischop had blessed the Quenes Corone, seing, Oremus Deus tuorum, he sett the Crowne uppon her Hede, wherupon was a Coyff put by my seid Lady for the Conservation of the holy Uncion, whiche is afterwarde to be delyverede unto the saide Archebischop, seing theyes Words, Officium nostrum, &c. Then he delyverede unto the Quene a Septer in her right Hande, and a Rodde in her left Hande, saing this Orison, Omnipotens Domine. The Quene thus corowned, was lede by the abovesaide Bishops up into the Sege of her Estate, al the Ladies folowing her. Whiles the Offratory was in playing at Organs, she was ledde corowned, from her Sege Roiall by the saide ij Bishops unto the High Auter, her Septer and Rodde of Golde borne byfor her as is asorsaide. Then th Archebischop turned his Face to the Quer warde, and after this the Quene was, as byfor, brought up ageyn to her Sege Royall of Astate, wher she satt stille, until Agnus Dei was begone, and after Per omnia secula seculorum, he turned hym to the Quene, blessing her with this Orison, Omnipotens Deus carissime, &c. wherunto the Quene answerde, Amen. In the Tyme of singing of Agnus Dei, the Pax was brought to the Quene by the Bishop of Worcester, whiche brought, when the Quene had kissed it, she descendid and came to the High Auter, and had a Towell holden byfor her by ij Bishops. And ther she lowly inclynnyng herself to the Grounde, seide her Confiteor, the Prelats seing Misereatur, and th Archebischop the Absolution, and then the Quene sumwhat areysyng herself, receyved the Blessed Sacrament. Thies Things reverently reantly accomplisshede, the Quene retourned to her Sette Roiall, and ther abode til the Masse was ended. The Masse doon, her Grace, accompanied with Prelats and Nobles, descended from her Sege Roiall of Astate, and went to the High Auter, and then the saide Archebischop arrayde in Pontificalibus, as he saide Masse, with all the Mynisters of the Auter byfore hym, went byfor the Auter of the Shryne of Seint Edward the King, and after hym folowed al other Prelats and Lordes. Then the Quenes Grace commyng byfor the saide Auter of the Shryne, the said Archebischop toke the Crowne from her Hede, and sett upon the same Auter.

In the forsaide Chirche, on the right Side betwixt the Pulpit and the High Auter, was ordeyned a goodlye Stage coverede and well besene with Clothes of Arras, and wele latyzede, wherin was the Kings Grace, my Lady his Moder, and a goodly Sight of Ladies and Gentilwomen attending upon her, as my Lady Margaret Pole, Doughter to the Duc of Claraunce, and many other. When the dyvyne Service was thus solemnly ended and al doon, the Retourne of the Quene to her Paloy, with all her goodly and royal Company, was after the Maner as ensueth.

Furst, Esquiers and Knyghts, then the Barons of the Exchequer, the Jugges and Officers of Armes. Then al th Abbots and Bishops in their Coppis or Robes of Parliament, al on the right Side. The Barons in ther Roobes, and th Erles in ther Roobes of Astate, saving the Great Chamberlayn whiche was in his Parliament Roobes, wer al on the lefte Side. After theym went next the Presence, the Duks and Garter, with the Maire of London, next byfor the Constable and Marshall. When the Quene was come into the Hall, she went thens unto the White Hall, and so to her Chambre. In the meane tyme the high and myghty Prince Duc of Bedeforde, in a Gowne of Clothe of Golde richely furrede, mounted on a goodly Courser richely trapped with a Trapper embroderde with red Rosas, a Border of Golde Smythes Werk encompasshede with rede Dragons, a longe white Rodde in his Hande, a riche Cheyne aboute his Nek. Th' Erle of Derby, Ro. Lorde Standely Constable of England also in a riche Gowne furred with Sables, a marveolous riche Cheyne of Golde many Fowlds aboute his Neke, mounted also his Courser richely trapped, and enarmed, that is to say, Quarterly Golde, in the furst Quarter a Lyon Gowls, having a Mannes Hede in a Bycokett of Silver, and in the ijde a Lyon of Sable. This Trapper was right curiously wrought with the Nedell, for the Mannes Visage in the Bicokett shewde veryly wel favorede, and he had his Staff of Office in his Hande. Also th Erle of Notingham roode also on another Courser richely trapped in a Trapper of Cloth of Golde bordered with and his gylte Staff of his Office in his Hand. Thus theys iij great Estats roode aboute the Hall. In especiall th Erle Marshall had great Plenty of his Servaunts with tipped Staves to voyde the People, for the Preyse was so great. After that the Quene was retourned, and had washede, th Archebischop of Canterbury saide Grace. Then Dame Katheryn Gray and Maistres Ditton wente undre the Table, wher the satt on ether Side the Quenes Fete al the Dynner Time. Th Archebischop of Canterbury satt at the Tables Ende on the right Hande. The Duches of Bedeforde, and my Lady Cecill the Quenes Sister, satt at the other Ende on the lisse Hande. The Countesse of Oxinforde and the Countesse of Ryvers knelede on ether Side the Quene, and at certeyne Tymys helde a Kerchief byfor her Grace. At the Ende of the Hall on high byfor the Wyndow, ther was made a Stage for the Trumpetts and Mynstrells, whiche when the furste Course was sett forwarde, bygan to blowe. The Sergeaunts of Armes byfor theym, the Controller and Tresorer, and then the iij Estats on Horsbak afor reherfede. The Lorde Fitzwater, Sewer, in his Surcot, with Tabarde Sleeves, a Hode abought his Nek, and his Towell above all, servede the the Messes as ensueth, al borne by Knyghts.

The Feast of Christmas, in the Third Year of Henry VII.

[From the same Manuscript.]

THE Kyng oure Souveraigne Lorde, the same Yere of his noble Reigne, incontynently after the Parliament removed from Westminster unto the Maner of Grenewiche, wher he kepte his Cristemasse ful honorably as ensueth. Furst, on Cristemasse Even our saide Souveraigne Lorde the King went to the Masse of the Vygill in a riche Gowne of Purple Velwett furred with Sables, nobly accompanied with dyvers great Estats, as shal be shewde hereafter. And in like wise to Evensonge, savyng he had his Officers of Armes by or hym. The Reverend Fader in God the Lorde John Fox did the dyvyne Servyce that Evensonge, and on the Morow also. The King sat at Dynere on Cristemasse Day in the great Chambre nexte the l. Galary, and the Quene and my Lady the Kings Moder with the Ladies in the Quenes Chamber.

On Newe Yeres Day the King, being in a riche Gowne, dynede in his Chamber, and gave to his Officers of Armes vi l. of his Largeffe, wher he was cryed in his Style accustomed. Also the Quene gave to the same Officers x l. s. and she was cryed in her Style. At the same time my Lady the Kyngs Moder gave xx s. and she was cryed Largeffe iij Tymes. De hault, puisfaunt, et excellent Princeffe, la mer du Roy notre Souveraigne, Countesse de Richemonde et de Derbye, Largeffe. Item, the Duc of Bedeforde gave x l. s. and he was cryed, Largeffe de hault et puisfaunt Prince, frere et uncle des Roys, Duc de Bedeforde, et Counte de Penbroke, Largeffe. Item, my Lady his Wiff gave xlii s. iiij d. and she was cryed, Largeffe de hault et puisfaunt Princeffe, Duchesse de Bedeforde et de Bokingham, Countesse de Penbrok, Stafford, Harford, et de Northampton, et Dame de Breknok, Largeffe. Item, the Reverende Fader in God the Lorde John Fox, Bishop of Excester, Privy Seale, gave xx s. Item, th Erle of Aroundell gave x s. and he was cryed, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Seigneur le Counte d'Aroundell, et Seigneur de Maltravers. Item, th Erle of Oxinforde gave xx s. and he was cryede, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt le Counte d'Oxinforde, Marquis de Develyn, Vicounte Bulbik, et Seigneur de Scales, Grannde Chaumbrelayn, et Admirall d'Angleter, Largeffe. Item, my Lady his Wyff xx s. and she was cryed, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Dame la Countesse d'Oxin- d'Oxinforde, Marquise de Develyn, Vicountesse de Bulbik, et Dame de Scales. Item, th Erle of Derby gave xx s. and he was cried, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Seigneur le Beauper de Roy notre Souveraigne, Counte de Derby, Seigneur de Stanley et de Man, Counstable d'Engleter, Largeffe. Item, th Erle of Devonshire gave xlii s. iiij d. and he was cried, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Scigneur le Count de Devonbir, et Seigneur de Conton, Largeffe. Item, my Lorde Wells gave for him and my Lady his Wiff xx s. and he was cried, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Scigneur, Uncle de Roy notre Souveraigne, le Counte de Wellys, Largeffe. Also, Largeffe de noble Princeffe la Seur, de la Reyne nostre Souveraigne Dame, et Countesse de Wellys. Item, Sir William Stanley, the Kings Chambrelayn, gave xs. and he was cryed, Largeffe de noble Seigneur le Chambrelayn de Roy notre Souveraigne, Largeffe. Item, th Erle of Urmond gave xx s. and he was cried, Largeffe de noble et puisfaunt Seigneur le Counte de Urmonde, Seigneur de Rocheforde, Chambrelayne de la Reyne notre Souveraigne Dame, Largeffe. Item, the Lorde Strannge gave xs. Item, the Treforowr gave vi s. viij d. and the Countroller gave a Corone, wherfor they wer cried, Largeffe des nobles Officiers le Trezouror et le Countroller de tres noble l'Ostell de Roy notre Souveraigne, Largeffe. Item the Secretary gave vi s. viij d. but he was not cried; for it is not the Custume to crye any Man of the Chirche, nor of any lower Degre than a Vicount, withoute it be the Stewarde or the Chamberlayne. All other Barons, Baneretts, Knyghts, and Esquiers, with ther Wiffs, wer wont to bee cryede in generall. Thys Cristemasse ther wer many Lords moo in the Court, some comyng and some going, whiche gave no Rewards to the Officers of Arms. And on Newres Day at Nyght ther was a goodly Disgyfyng, and also this Cristmas ther wer many and dyvers Playes.

On the xliiith Even the King went to the Evensong in his Surcoot outward, with Tabert Sleeves, the Cappe of Astate on his Hede, and the Hode aboute his Showlders, in Doctors wife. And that Nyght ther was no Lorde in Roobes, saving the King. That Felle Lorde John Morton, Archebishop of Canterbury, dide the dyvyne Servyce. And on the Morowe, at Matens Tyme, al other Astats and Barons had ther Surcots outward, with ther Hodys; and in the Proceffion Tyme they were all in their Roobes of Astate. The King and the Quene wer coronned. And my Lady the Kings Moder had on a riche Coronall. The Duc of Bedeforde bare the Cappe of Astate next byfor the King, and th Erle of Oxinforde, Great Chambrelayn of England, bar the Kings Trayne. Th Erle of Derbye and th Erle of Notingham went next byfor the Cappe of Astate, whiche was on the right Hand a litile byfor the Swerde. Next byfor the Countstable was Garter King of Armes, and on his list Hand the Kings Secretary, and the Tresfowrer of Englande. Byfor theym the Tresfowrer and Countroller of the Kings House. Byfor theym all other Officers of Armes, Heraulds, and Poursuivaunts, and byfor theym Carvers and Cupeberers in ther Roobes. The Gentilmen Uschers gave ther Attendaunce on the Chamberlayn. The Duc of Suffolk folowed next unto the King, and accompanied the Lorde Dawbeney, one of the Embassators of Fraunce. The Bishop of Excester accompanied the Prothonatory of Sandovill, and al other Erls and Vicounts folowed theym. Then came the Quene, coronned, and my Lady the Kings Moder in like Mantell and Surcott as the Quene, with a riche Coronall on her Hede, and walking aside the Quenes half Trayne, Master Fowler bar over his right Arme the Trayne of my Lady the Kings Moder. Then folowde the Countes of Oxinford, and the Countesse of Ryvers, with riche Circaletts on ther Hedes, folowde by al other Ladyes and Gentilwomen; after whom came Barons, Banarets, and Gentilwomen. And when the High Masse was doon, the King went to his Chamber, and from thens to the Hall, and ther keppt his Estate in Maner as ensueth. He was coronned with a riche Corowne of Golde sett with ful many riche precious Stonays, and seated under a mervolous riche Cloth of Astate, having th Archebishop of Canterbury on his right Hande, and the Quene also coronned under a Clothe of Estate hanging sumwhat lower than the Kings, on his list Hande. And al these iij Estats wer servede coverde. The Erle of Oxinforde, Great Chamberlayn of England, waytede on the Kings Coronne, and th Erle of Urmonde, the Quenes Chamberlayn, knelede betwene the Quene and my Lady the Kings Moder, wayting on the Quenes Coronne. Sir David Owen was Kerver that Day, and Sir Charles Cupeberer, both being in ther Robes. Sir William Vampage, who was Sewer, was in no Roobes, but in a Gowne of Rosset Damask. Sir John Furtzen waytede upon the Cupborde in a Gowne of Cremesyn Velwet, with a riche Coler aboute his Nek. After the secunde Cours, when the Mynstrells hade pleyde, th Officers of Armes descendede from ther Stage, and Garter gave the King Thankings for his Largeffe, and besought the Kings Highnesse to owe Thankings to the Quene for her Largeffe. That doon the Largeffe both of the King and of the

the Quene was cryede, and Edward Beauchampe, one of the Kings Marshalls, drwe the Surnape, and made the King and the Quene both hole Aftats, to my Lady the Kings Moder halt Aftate, and the same to th Archebischop of Canterbury.

At the Table in the Medell of the Hall sat the Deane and thoos of the Kings Chapell, whiche incontynently after the Kings furst Course sange a Carall.

The Duc of Bedeforde beganne the Table on the right Side of the Hall, and next unto hym was the Lorde Dawbeney, an Ambassator of the French Kings. Below hym sat the Duc of Suffolk, and then the Protonathory of Sandavill, another Ambassator of the French Kings. Then th Erle of Aronndell, and agenst thym satt th Erle of Notingham, th Erle of Huntingdon, the Vicounte Wells, and the Vicount Lisley, with al other Barons and Knyghts ensuyng in Order to th Eade of that Table.

At the Table on the liste Side of the Hall beganne my Lady Cecill the Quenes Sister, and next unto her the Countesse of Oxinford, then the Countesse of Ryvers, the Lady Strange, &c. with Ladyes and Gentilwomen al on oon Side.

The Feasts of Easter and Saint George.

[From the same Manuscript.]

IN the iijde Yere of the Kings Reigne he solempnyfed the Feste of Ester at Wyndesore, and companyede with the Quene, and my Lady the Kings Moder, th Erle of Derby, th Erle of Essex, the Lorde Edmund of Suffolke, the Lorde Nevill, the Lorde Morley, the Lorde Latymer, and the Lorde Berners, and gave his Largesse to his Officers of Armes. The Reverende Fader in God the Bishop of Excester did the dyvyne Servyce, and as touching his Maundy and other Almesse, as of olde Tyme accustomed. After in the same Week, the King roode unto Hampton to see the vi Galyes that wer ther at ons, and ther the King fested the Patrons, and the Capitayns, and they presented his Grace with swete Wynys, Sugurys, Spices, and many other goodly Thyngs.

Hys Grace kept his dyvyne Servyce the Day of Saint George in his oune Chapell above the Castell, bycause he had differrede the Feste to the Sonday then next folowing. At the furst Evensonge of Saint George's Even, the King, nor non other Lorde of the Garter ther present, ware no Gowne of the Lyverie, but other Gownes of Silke under ther Mantellys. And ther was upon the right Side of the King, th Erle of Oxynforde, and the Lorde Dawbeney; and on the lifte Side, th Erle of Derby, and the Lorde Dynham; and thus the King kepte the Quere. On the Morne the King was at Matens, and the Quene, and my Lady the Kings Moder, wer in Gownys of the Garter the same as the Kyng and the Lordes wer in, and at Te Deum and Benedictus were senfede next after the King, and byfor the Knyghts, but noon kysfede the Gospell, nor Pax, save the King and the Quene. The Erle of Oxynforde bare the Trayne of the Kings Mantell that Season. The King and the Quene, and my Lady the Kings Moder also, went a Proceffyon about the Cloyster, and the King both dynede and sowped in his oune corner glasid Chambre, and the forsaide iijj Lordes satt at his Borde. On the Morne the Kyng and the Lords harde ther Masse of Requiem in his oune Chapell, and offerd. And so did the Quene, and my Lady the Kings Moder.

On the Sonday next folowing, the King kept a great and a noble Feste at Wyndesore aforsaide, in Maner and Forme as ensuethe. Furst, on Saint Georges Even ther wer assembled fembled great Number of Estats of this Realme, and in especiall of the Kings Counseill; as th' Archebischop of Canterbury, th' Archebischop of Yorke, the Bischop of Lincoln, the Bischop of Exeſter, and the Chieff Juge of the Kings Benche; for al that Seafon arryved many Ambaſſators of dyvers Countreys, as of the King of Romayns, and his Sonne the Duc; also from the King of Scotts, and from the Duc of Bretayne; for whiche great Maters the King differred the Chapitre unto Afternoone, and commaunde the Lorde Dynham, and Sir Thomas of Breugh, to enſtalle, in his Name, th Erle of Shrewsbury. The Reverende Fader in God the Biſhop of Wyncheſter, Prelate of the Order, and also the Lord Widvile (whoſe Soule God pardon) were preſent at his Charge, and thens was a ſolempne Maſſe of our Ladye ſongen by theym of the Colleage; wherfor the ſaide Erle gave to the Singers of the Quere a great Rewarde. At After Noone the King, accompanyede with his Brethern of the Garter in ther Mantells, and in the Gownes of ther Lyverye of the laſt Yer, roode from the Quadraunt on Hakneyes to the Colleage, and went to ther Chapter, and helde ther Chapter a great Tract of Tyme, and from thens went to Evensonge. The Quene and my Lady the Kings Moder were in like Gowne of the Lyverye riding in a riche Chare, coverde with rich Cloth of Golde, vi Courſers in that ſame Chare harneſt with that ſame Clothe of Golde; also xxxi Ladyes and Gentilwomen folowing the Quene, cledde al in Cremefyne Velwett Gownes, and riding upon white Palſereys, ther Sadells of Cloth of Golde, the Harnesse of Golde Smythes Werk, with white Roles demy Trapper wiſe, Sir Roger Cooton, Maſter of the Quenes Hors, riding upon a Courſer trapped with Golde Smythes Werk, leding the Quenes Hors of Eſtate in his Hande, with a Sadell of Cloth of Golde, and therupon iij Coronnes of Silver gilt, with Sambres of that ſame Cloth of Golde, hanging unto the Knees of the Hors of bothe Sides. That Yer Sir Eduart Wideville, a noble and a coragious ght, was slaine in Bretaigne, by Frenchmen. And incont after that same Tyme deide the Duke of Britayne, for s Dethe that Contre hade grete Losse. The King, the ene, and the Kings Modre, well accompaynyed with y ouder Knights and Esquires and noble Companye, t his all Hallowtide at Windesore; that is to say, with Lorde Richard Fox, Bishope of Excetre and Prive Seall, che hide the Divin Service, th Erle of Oxonforde, th : of Shrewsbury, th Erle of Essex, th Erle of Urmonde, Quenys Chamberlayn, the Lorde Edmund of Suthfolk, Lorde Fitzwaren, the Lord Latymer, the Lord Dacre of Northe, the Lorde de Fitzwaultier, the Lorde Saye, the de Barneis, the Lorde Broke Stiwarde of the Kings ise, the Lorde Bothville a Scotisheman, Sir Gilbert Tal-

Sir Edduard Bourgh, Sir Davy Owen, Sir Richard orde Vichamberlayn, Sir Thomas Louvell, Sir Reynolde y, Sir James Parker, Sir Edduard Darell, Sir Richard lte, Sir William Sondis, Sir Roger Cotton, Sir Thomas ghton, Sir John Fortescu, Sir George Nevyll, the Bast.

From Windesore the King, the Quene, and the Houf- le remeid to Westminster, the gretest Counseilie, that many Yers withoute the Name of Parliament. Ther at that Season many Enbassatours; that is for to say, 1 Fraunce the Lorde Charbonell, and the Prothonotoire andevill, from the King of Romans the Lorde Malpertus, a Briton, and Maister Piers le puissant; also Enbafatours from the King of Spayne. At the breking up of the Counseille, ther entrid into this Reaulme a Cubiculer of the Popes, whice broght to the Kyng a Suerde and a Cappe, whiche for Honnor of the Pope was honnourably receiuid by the Kings Commaundement, in Manner as ensueth: Furst the King sente an Officer of Armes to the See Side, to cause thos religious Places of Canterbury and outhur Townes by the Way, to make hym goode Chiere, and well to entret him. After that, his Highnes sent certaine Knightes to met hym as fer as Rochester. After them the Reverentz Faders in Gode the Bishope of Durame, the Bishope of Excester, the Bishope of Rochester, th Erle of Shrewsbury, th Erle of Wiltshire, the Lorde Morley, the Lorde Hastings, and the Prior of Lantony, with many mor Lordes and Knightes (whos Names I have not) receiued hym at Blaketh, and after theme the Bishope of Winchestre and th Erle of Arundell met hym at Saint Georges in Southwerke, wher the Cappe was sette upon the Pointe of the Suerde. And so the faide Cubiculer riding between the Bishope of Winchester and th Erle of Arundell openly bar the said Swerde thorowe Southwerke, and on London Brigge, wher he was also receyved, and wellcomed by the Maire of London and his Brethern. As he procedede thens thorow the Cite to Poules, stode all the Craftes in ther Clothings, and at the West Ende of Poules he was receyved by the Metropolitan and divers outhur Bishopes in Pontificalibus, and with the Procession, and so proceded to the High Autar, and from thens it was borne into the Revestry. In the Morne that same Day, the King remeved from Westminster to the Bishopes Pales, with the Quene and my Lady the Kings Moulder. That Day ther was so greet a Miste upon Thames, that ther was no Man cowde telle of a grete Season in what Place in Thames the King was. Then the King came forth of his Travers, wher the faide Cubiculer presentit the King a Letter from the Pope, closit with Corde and Lede, that was rede by the Reverent Fader in God the Lord John Morton Archebishope of Canterbury, then Chancellor of England. That doon the faide Cubiculer holding the said Suerde and Cape, made a noble Proposicion; to which the faide Lord Chancellor answerde full clerly and nobly. Present the Ambassatours of Fraunce, Ambassatours of the King of Romains, of the Kings of Castille, of Bretaine, and of Flanders, with divers outhter Straungiers, as Scottis, Esterlinges, and outhter. That finished, the King and all those Estates went a Proceffion, and the Cape was borne on the Pomel of the Swerde by the saide Cubiculer. When Proceffion was done, during all the Masse, it was set on the High Auter. The Messe doone, the Archebishope sang certain Orisons over the King, who came from his Travers byfore the High Auter, to the highest Stepe nexte the Auter. Whiche Oraisons and Benediccions done, the Archebishope, in ordre after the Booke whiche was brought frome Rome, gerdit the Suerde aboute the King, and sett the Cape on his Hede: And so the King returned to his Travers whilles Te Deum was a singing, and the Colet rede; and it was taken of again, and, as before, borne by the said Cubiculer to the Bishopes Palles, and there deliverit to the Chamberlain. That Day the King made a grete Feste, and kept open Housholde, and bycause the Palays was so littil for such a Feste, the said Cubiculer dynnyt on the Downs Place, accompagnied with divers Bishopis and Lodes, as the Lorde of Saint Johns, and outhtres. Incontinent after, the King sente his Ambassatours into divers Parties; that is to saie, Maister Christofer Urswike, Deian of Yorke, and Sir John Don, Knight, into Fraunce, and with them Yorke the Heraulde Doctour Sauvage; Sir Richard Nanfant and Richemond King of Armes into Portingal; also with the Garter for the King of Portingal Doctour Wanfworth and Sir John Rifeley Knight, and Carlill Herauld, to the King of Romans: Sir Richard Eggecombe Knight and Falcon the Pourfuivant into Bretaine. The Feast of Easter, &c. in his Fourth Year.

THE King kept his Ester at Hertford, whier at that Season the Reverend Fader in God the Lord Ric. Foxe dide the Divine Service, and on Saint Georges Day also in the Morne he songe the Mas of Requiem. Of the Brethern of the Garter ther was ther present th' Erle of Derby, the Lord Scrope, and Sir Richard Tunstall. This Season ther came into this Londe a greate Ambassade from the King of Romains; that is to say, Don Ladron de Guavers, the Vicomte of Piverfalle, a Doctor called Mester Lewys, and Mester Piers le puissant, and also anoder Ambassade in thair Compagnye, that came from the King of Portyngall. Wherefore the King sent for the Lorde John Morton, then Archebishope of Canterbury and Chancelier of Englande, for to have his Counseill and Advis. Also ther had ben an Ambassatour of the King of Naples, as long as the King had leyn at Hertford, and at that Season thier was the Quene, the Lady the Kings Moder, th Erle of Derby, th Erle of Essex, th Erle of Ormond, Sir Richard Gilford, Sir Raynold Bray, Sir Thomas Lovell, Sir Charles Somersett, Sir Richard Haulte, Sir John Ryleley the Kings Aumener, the Kinges Secretary, and the Lorde Bothewell, a Scotisheman. The same Ester the King of Denmarcks Oncle, called Yonker Garrard, was sworne the Kinges Servaunt. On Saint Vitalis Day, the xxviiiith Day of Appril, was slayne th Erle of Northumberlonde, besides Thurfke, near Blackmor Egge. Tydingis heroff being brought to the King he sone answerde all the abovesaide Ambassatours, and on the xxiith Day of May departed from Hertforde towards the Northe, and lay that Nyght at Dunstable, accompagnyed with the Bishop of Excester, Privey Seall, and outhr, as is reherfed in the Book of the Kyngys Gystys.

At the Kings Returne he established, in the Northe Parties, th Erle of Surrey, Sir Richard Tunstall, and Sir Henry Wentworthe. The same Yer the King kept his Whytfontid at Notingham, accompagnyed with th Erle of Oxonford, and th Erle of Northumberlonde, and frome thens remeved to Windefore, and their hontid and sported hym. On this Season the Flemmyngis holding the Frenshe Partie, and on especial especial thoos of Brugges, with the Assistance of the Lord Guardis, had beseged Dixemve on Flaundres. The Lord Dawbeney, the Kinges Lieutenant of Calais, and the Lord Morley, with divers ouldir noble Knightes and Esquiers of the Garnyson, and of the Crewe of Calais, and of the Englishe Marche in thoos Parties, rescued Dixemve, and brake the Sege. And thier ware ilayne the Substance of al those whiche had beseged it, as well the Lord Guardes Servaunts, as the Garnyson of Scottes, whiche lay at Ostenguen, with the Substance of the Bruggelingis. Of the Englishe Partie, ther was slayn that gentill yong Knight the Lorde Morley, and many Noblemen hurt, as Sir James Tyrell fore wounded in the Legge with a Quarell, and a gentill and a couragious Esquier called Robert Bellyngam, the whiche foughte in his Cotte of Armes fast gerdid with his Swerd upon his Harnois. And thier was wonnen moche Artillerye, wherof moche was brente with the Gounne Pouldre. Also it is not to be forgotten, but so by had in Remembrance, the goode Courage of an Englysche Yoman called John Person, whiche was somtymes a Baker of Coventre. Whiche John Person, after that a Gounne had borne away his Foote by the Small of the Legge, yet that notwithstanding, what setting and what kneling, shotte after many of his Arows, and when the Frenchemen fledde, and his Felowers ware in the Chase, he cried to one of his Felowes, and saide, "Have thow these

"vi Arowes that I have lefte, and folow thow the Chase,
"for I may not." The whiche John Person died within few Dayes after, on whose Soule Gode have Mercy. From thens the saide Lorde Daubency, by Apointement, toke Hostengs, and so with moche Honnour turned to Calais to refresche the hurt People. The Lorde Guerdes, hering of this Rescusse, assembled a greate Power, and recouverd Hostings, from thens leid the Sege to Newport, whier he lay well viij Dayes, and whith Ordonnance bette Parte of the Wallis. On Mydsomer Day he made a great Assault in ij or iij Places, but he was rebouted, and losse many of his

People, as it was saide mor then xiiij. And thenne the saide Lorde Guerdes departed to Brugges ward, and thier was slayn a Bastard of Bourbon, and the Lord Pyennes, a Lord of Pyguardy.

Sone after thier came Ambassatours of the King of Romanis, and also oute of Flourens, and alsoo Ambassatours out of Bretaygne. The Parlement was countynued into the xvth Day of Octobre, and that Day the Lordes entred the Parlement Houise withoute any Mas, or ouder Solempnitie. At the whiche Season the King kepit a Chapitre of the Gartier at Westmynster, whier the King of Romans was choyfen Knyght of the Gartier. The King remembring on his first begoten Sone, that he was not yet created Prince, ne yet doubyd Knight, wherfore he determined on Saint Andrewes Evene then nexte folowing, bothe to dobe hym Knyght, and also to procede to his Creation, and thier upon directed his Letters Mysfoyes for the Sonnes and Heires of divers of the Greate Estates of this Royaulme. The onder Nobles that had their Londes in their Hondes, had Pryve Sealles also to geve their Attendance.

The Queene taketh her Chamber, with the Ceremonies thereof.

UPON All Halow Even the Quene tooke her Chamber at Westmynster, gretly acompagnyed with Ladies and Gentilwomen; that is to say, the Lady the Kings Moder, the Duchesse of Northfolk, and many ouder, havng before her the greate Parte of the Nobles of this Royallme present at this Parlement. She was ledde by th Erle of Oxinford and th' Erle of Derby. The Reverent Fader in God the Bishop of Excester song the Mass in Pontificalibus, and after Agnus Dei. Then the Quene was led as before. Th Erles of Shrewsbury and of Kente hylde the Towell, when the Quene toke hir Rightes, and the Torchcs were holden by Knightes. And after Mass, accompanied as before, when she was commen into her greate Chambre she stode under hir Clothe of Estate. Then their was ordeyned a Voide of Espices, and swet Wyn. That doone, my Lorde the Quenes Chamberlain, in very goode Woordes, desired, in the Quenes Name, the Peuple thier present to pray God to sende hir the goode Oure. And so she departed to her inner Chambre, which was hanged and seyled with riche Clothe of blew Arras, with Flourdelissis of Golde, without any ouder Clothe of Arras of Ymagerye, which is not convenient aboute Wymen in sache Cas. In that Chambre was a riche Bedde and a Palliet, the whiche Palliet had a marvellous riche Canope of Gold, with Velvet, paly of divers Coulleurs, garnished with rede Roscs, enbrodured with ij riche Pannes of Ermyns, couvered with Raynes of Lande. Also ther was a riche Autar well furnyshed with Reliques, and a riche Cupborde well and richely garnished. Then she recomanded her to the goode Praiers of the Lordes, and my Lorde her Chamberlaine drew the Travers. From thens forthe no Maner of Officier came within the Chambre, but Ladies and Gentilwomen, after the olde Coustume. Within a littell Season after, thier came a great Ambassade oute of Franncce, among the whiche ther was a Kynsman of the Quenes called Francois Monsieur de Luxenburg, the Prior of Saint Matrelyn, and Sir William de Zaintes, Bailly of Senlis, and Monjoie, King of Armes of Frenshemen, whiche desired to se the Quene, and so they dide, and in her awne Chambre. Ther was with her hir Moder Quene Elifabeth, and my Lady the Kinges Moder; but ther entred no mor then ben afore reherfed, savng my Lord the Quenes Chamberlain, and Garter Principal King of Armes.

When it was Nyght the Prince's Bayne was prepared in the Kinges Clofet. And in the Entre betwene the Parlement Chambre and the Chapelle was the Baynes of th Erle of Northumberland, and the Lord Maltravers, and the Lord Gray Ruthyn. All the Remenant ware in the Parlement Chambre in Ordre as above written. The King in his Person gave them the Advertisment of th Ordre of Knyght-hode. At that same Seafon wer all thos of the Kings Chappell redyng the Sauter for the good Spede of the Quen, wiche then traveled. And anon, upon ix of the Clock that same Nyght, she was delivered of a Princefs, wiche was cristened on Seint Andreus Day in Westmynster Chirche. On the Morn, when the Prince had herd his Mafs, he was, with al his forsaide Compenny, princely conveid thorough Seint Stephens Chappell to the nether End of the Steiers, toward the Vicars Logyng, wher he tooke his Hors. The Remenant in the Pales at the Ster Chambre Steir Foot toke ther Hors, and th Erle of Essex bore the Princes Swerd and Spores. And soo thei roode aboute the Standard in the Pales into Westmynster Hall, the Prince foremost, and the oder folowyng in Ordre after ther Baynes: and before the Kings Benche thei alighted of ther Horses, and so proceded into the Whitt Hall, and stode along bi the Side Table. In Tyme the Kyng came. And when the King was comyn, the Marquis of Barkeley and th Erle of Arundell led the Prince to the Prefence, and th Erle of Oxonford, Great Chamberleyn of Englund, roke of th Erle of Essex the Swerd and the Spores, and then presented the right Spore to the King. The Kyng commaunded the Marques of Barkeley to sett hit on the Princes ryght Hele, as lykenwyse did th Erle of Arundell on the lyfft Hele the toder Spore. Then the Kyng gard on his Swerde, and dubbed hym Knyght, and after al his Compennye in Ordre, commaunding oder Lordis and Knyghtis to present them, and to sett on ther Spores. When the Kyng had dubbed al thos Knyghtys, he createde a Pursuivant for the Prynce, and named hym Walyngford. And when the Prince had offred his Swerd and Torgat and his Spores, he went essier to the Kyngis Clofet, and and put upon hym his Robes of Aſtate. From thens he was led into the Parlement Chambre to the Kyngis Prefence, by rhe Marques of Barkeley. Th Erle of Arundell and th Erle of Derby bere his Cape and Cornall apou the golden Rode, and the Ring of Gold: And th Erle of Shrewsbury bere the Swerd the Pomell upward. And ther he was creat as acustumed. Thos Lordes that led hym, or bere any of the Appartenans to his Creacion, wer in ther Robes, and oder nott, havng Officers of Armes next before them. Then the King departed, and the Prince that Day kept his Aſtate under the Clothe of Aſtate in the ſame Parlement Chambre. At the Bords Ende ſatt the Marques of Barkeley, th Erles of Aronndell, of Derby, and of Shrewesbury. All the oder new mad Knyghtis ſat along the on Side the Chambre. And the Prince licenſed them to ett ther Mett. After the Mynſtrels had pleyd, the Officers of Armes came to the Prefence of the Priace, and Garter Kyng of Armes gave hym Thankyngs in the Name of al the Office for his Largels, wyche was xx^d li. delyvered by the Handes of Sir Thomas Lovell, Knyght, and Trezor of the Kings Chambre. After that, the Princes Largels was cryed, the Largels of the oder new made Knyghtys was alſo cryed. And after Dyner Sir William Uvedall was choſyn, and gave the Kyng Thankyngs in the Name of al his Compenny.

The Chriſtening of the Princeſſe.

ON the Morn of Seynt Andreas Day the forſaide new born Princeſs was criſtened in Maner as enſeweth. The riche Font of Canterbury and Weſtmynſter Chirche wer prepayred as of old Tyme ben accuſtumed for Kyngs Chyldren, wythe a riche rounde Canape, with a grett gilt Boll. This forſaid Princeſſe was brought from the Qwenes Chambre into the Whitt Hall, born by my Lady Marquiſe of Barkeley. Thus accompanied they proceeded from the Chappell to the Queenes great Chamber; and there the Earle of Surrey well and right fadly, with very good Maner, declared the Cause of that Assembly to all the Lords there present. That don

on Mr. Doctor Routhall, the Kings Secretary, read openly the Commicion of the foresaid Ambassatours. That finished Chanon of Glasco, Mr. David Coningham, read the Popes Bulls of Dispensation for Consanguinity ; or of any Affinity ; or any Nonage. Then the Archbushop of Glasco asked the King, Whither his Grace knew any Impidiment on his Part, ther then there was depensed withall ? And of the Queene likewise ? After that of the Princeesse. When all Three answered that on their Behalfe there was none. Then the King's Grace demanded of them in likewise on their Behalfe, and for their Sovereigne Lord. And over that demanded of the Elefct of Murrey, Whither it was the very Will and Mind of the King of Scotts, and full Entent, That the sayd Earle Bothwel should in his Name, assure the said Princeesse ? Which he assured to be true. Then the Archbushop of Glasco demanded and asperred the sayd Princeesse, Whither hee were content without Compulsion, and of her free Will ? Then she answered, If it please my Lord and Father the King, and my Lady my Mother the Queene. Then the King shewed her, that it was his Will and Pleasure : And then shee had the Kinges and the Queenes Blessings. Then the Archbushop of Glasco red the Wordes of the Fyancells, surst to the Earle of Bothwel, after to the said Princeesse, as ensuyth :

I PATRICKE EARLE OF BOTHWEL, Procurator of the right Excellent, right High and mighty Prince JAMES BY THE GRACE OF GOD KING OF SCOTLAND, my Sovereigne Lord, having sufficient Authority, Power, and Commandment to contract Matrimony PER VERBA DE PRESENTI, in the Name of and for my said Sovereigne Lord, with thee MARGARET, the First begotten Daughter of the right Excellent, right High and mighty Prince and Princeesse Henry by the Grace of God King of England, and Elizabeth Queene of the same, as by the Procuratory of my said Sovereigne Lord, att this present Tyme openly read and published, more playnty appeares, by virtue of the same Procuratory, and as Procurator of my said Sovereigne Lord James King of Scotland, and in his Name and Behalfe, and by his Speciaall Comandement, contract Matrimony with thee Margaret, and take thee into and for the Wiefte and Spous of my said Sovereigne Lord James King of Scotland, and all uthir, for thee, as Procurator forsaid, forsakest, in duryng his and thyne Lyves naturall, and thereto as Procurator forsaid, I plight, and gives thee his Faythe and Truthe, by Power and Autoritie foresaid committed and given to mee.

I MAR-

I MARGARET, the First begotten Daughter of the right Excellent, righ High and mighty Prince and Princeſſe Henry by the Grace of God King of England, and Elizabeth Queene of the ſame, wittandly and of deliberate Mind, haveing 12 Teares compleat in Age in the Moneth of November laſt be paſt, contraſt Matrimony with the right Excellent, right High and mighty Prince JAMES KING OF SCOTLAND, the Perſon of whome Patricke Earle of Bothwel is Procurator; and takes the ſaid JAMES King of Scotland unto and for my Huſband and Spouſe, and all other for him forſake, during his and mine Lives naturall; and thereto I plight and gives to him, in your Perſon as Procurator aforſaide, my Faith and Trewth.

That don, the Trompetters ſtanding on the Leds at the Chamber End, blew upp, and the lowd Noiſe of Minſtrells played, in the beſt and moſt joyfuller Manner.

The King went to his owne Chamber to Dynner, and had the ſaid Archbuſhop of Glaſco and the Earle of Bothwel att the upper End of his Table. The Eleſt of Murrey, the Buſhop of Wincheſter, the Earles of Arondell and of Surrey att the other End of his Table.

Incontinently after the Fiancells were finiſhed, the Queene tooke her Daughter the Q. of Scotts by the Hand, and dyned both at one Meſſe covered.

All the other Ambaſſadors, with the Archbuſhops of Canterbury and Yorke, in the Councell Chamber.

Att Afternoone the ſame Daye, there were the right notable Juſts in Hoſting Harneys along the Tyll, by

The Marquis of Dorſett

The Earle of Effex

The Lo. William of Devonſhire

Sir John Petcher

Sir John Nevill

Guilliam de La Ryver

Sir Rowland Veilvyle

John Carr

Charles Brandon

Reyne de Shezells

} On the one Part,

} On the other Side.

Which ran ſoo verelie well, that it was a great Pleaſure to have ſeen them.

The Duke of Buckingham richly beſein, his Horſe firſt trapped with a rich demy Trapper embrowdered with Caſtells, after changed his Horſe, and took another with richer Trapper of Blew and Crymſon Velvet, with Garters and other his Badges of Needle Worke, and accompanied the the said noble Justees, and made right goodly Gambades. And in his ryding Sadell, when all the other had justed, brake Three Speares on the Ground.

Then they went to Sopper, after wiche was a notable Bankett.

On the Morne after that the King and the Queene had soped, the Queen of Scotts came into the Queenes great Chamber and by the Voyce of the principall Officer of Armes there present gave Thankings to all those Noblemen, that had taken Paines and Charge to Just for her Sake, which full well and notable had accomplished the same.

Rayne de Shezells and Charles Brandon had right well justed; John Carr better, and the Lo. William of Devonshire best: Wherefore the foresaid Queene of Scotts, by the Advice of the Ladyes of the Court, gave them Praise with Thankings.

Incontinent after the Pryses were given, there was in the Hall a goodly Pageant, curiously wrought with Fenestrallis, having many Lights brenning in the same, in Manner of a Lantron, out of wiche forthed divers Sortes of Morisks. Also a very goodly Disguising of Six Gentlemen and Six Gentlewomen, which danced divers Dances.

After which there was a notable Banquet or Voyde.

Item, the Earle Bothwel sent to the Officers of Armes, the Gowne of Cloth of Gold, that hee wore when hee was fyanced in the Name of his Sovereigne Lord, and a C. Crownes.

On the Thursday after, there were Justs. First, Charles Brandon and Tremayle ran XIII Courfes. Charles broke ij Speares well, and Two better; and Tremayle broke Two Speares well, besides Atteynts.

After that Sir Rowland Veilvyle and Sir John Peatch ran with soe great square Speares, that it was wonder that any Horfe might breake them, and att their First Course Sir John Petch brake his Speare.

Then Sir Royland sent for Two other greates Speares. And in the meane tyme Raine de Shazells and Tremaille ran other XIII Courfes. Raine brake Two Speares above the Charnell, and Tremaille brake on him iij Speares, and gave good Atteynts.

After the Two other great Speares were comen, which were of XII Inches of Compas largely, the foresayd Knights ran togeders. And at that ij Course Sir John Petch brake that great Speare in 3 Pieces, and bruisid the upper Part of the Gardebras of Sir Rowland, which was the best broken Speare

Speare (both Horfes standing, and the Knights well fitting) that I have feen.

Att Night there was a notable Soper.

After the fayd Soper, the King sent his Presents to the Archbushop of Glafco; that is to fay, A Cubbord of

A Cupp of Gold covered,

Six great standing Potts of Silver pounced,

XXIIII great Bowles of Silver, with their Covers,

A Bafon and a Ewer of Silver,

A Chafoir of Silver.

And another like Cubbard of great Valewe to the Earle of Bothwel.

Item, hee gave to the Elef of Murrey a standing Cupp of Gold, covered, and 1000 Crownes of Gold of the Solailc, in a goodly Bagg of Crymfon Velvet, well garnished.

Item, his Grace gave Lyon King of Armes of Scotland, a Purse with a C. Crowns of Gold, and a Gowne of fync Sattin.

Item, his Grace gave to diverse other Gentlemen of that Company, Gownes of Velvett, in full honourable Manner.

And he in especiall welcommed th Erle of Surrey varey hertly.

Then the Quene and he went asyd and commoned togeder by long Space. She held good Manere, and he bare heded during the Tym, and many Courteysyes passed. Incontinēt was the Bord sett and served. They wasched their Haunds in humble Reverences, and after, sett them downe togeder, wher many good Devyses war reherfed.

After the Soupper they wasched ageyn, with the Reverences, Mynstrells begonne to blowe, wher daunced the Quene, accompayned of my Lady of Surrey. This doon, the Kyng toke Licence of hyr, for yt was latte, and he went to hys Bed at Edinborg varey well countent of so fayr Metting, and that hee had found the fayr Company togader.

At the Castell and Abbay of Newbottell, halfe a Mille thens, was ordonned Mett and Drynke by the Space of foure Dayes that she was ther, with Liveray of Horsys, as in the Places befor said.

The iiijth Day of the said Monneth the Quene abode at the said Castell, the wiche had grett Fest. Att foure of the Clok, after Dynner, the Archbyschopes of Yorke and of Glasco, the Byshop of Durham, the Erle of Surrey, and th Erle Bothwell, accompayned of many others, Lordes, Knyghts, and Gentylnen, went to mett the Kyng, the wiche was commyng for to se the Quene ageyn, and to comforte hyr of sum Losse that she had had the Nyght before, by Fortune of Fyer, of her Pallefreys.

The Kynge flynge as the Bird that syks hyr Pray, tuke other Waye, and cam prively to the said Castell, and entred within the Chammer with a small Company, wher he founde the Qwene playinge at the Cardes. At the Entrynge, the Qwene avaunced hyr toward hym in receyvinge hym varey gladly, and of Good Wyll kyssyng hym, and after he gafte Salut to the Ladyes and Company presente.

In Commonynge togeder, cam the sam Lordes here aboute named, to whom the Kynge did Reverence, his Bonnett in hys Haund, in specyall to the Arch Byschop of York, and to the Byschop of Durham, in welcomynge them. After som Wordes reherfed betwyx them, the Mynstrells begonne to play a basse Daunce, the wich was daunced by the said Qwene and the Countesse of Surrey.

After thys doon, thay playde a Rownde, the wich was daunced by the Lorde Gray ledynge the said Qwene, accompayned of many Lordes, Ladyes, and Gentylwoemen. After was brought Wyn and Bred to the Kynge, the wiche tuke the Bred, and thereof served the said Qwene. Lykwys the Coupp of wiche he fyrst servyd hyr. And after all, the Company presente draunke also.

Incountynent the Kynge begonne before hyr to play of the Clarycordes, and after of the Lute, wiche pleasyd hyr varey much, and she had grett Plaيسur to here hym.

Apon the said Clarycorde Sir Edward Stannely playd a Ballade, and sange therwith, wiche the Kynge commended right muche. And incountynent hee called a Gentylman of hys that colde synge well, and mayd them synge togeder, the wiche accorded varey well.

Afterward the said Sir Edward Stannely and two of hys Servaunts sange a Ballade or two, wherof the Kynge gave hym good Thaunke.

After all thys Thyngs fullfyllled, the Kynge tuke Licence of the Qwene, and kyssed hyr, and also of all hyr noble Company, and went to hys Horse, on whom he did lepe, without puttyng the Fowt within the Sterrop. And the said Horse was a right fayr Courser, and incontynent the King sporred, follow who myght. He was arayd of a Jakette of blak Velvett borded of the Selve, and the Lifts of the said Bourdeur wer of cramsyn Velvetyt, fourred with whytt.

The Erle of Surrey, accompayned of many Lordes, Knyghts, and others, folowed after, the wiche when the King knew, he torned shortly, barre heded, and cam toward th' Erle. And they rode a lityll togeder in Spekyng, and after th' Erle tuke Licence of hym, and returned ageyn.

The

The yth Day of the Monneth, at the Hour of Soupper, the Kynge cam to the said Castell, accompayned of the Byfchop of Caftanatz, and of the Lord Roos, with other Lordes, Knyghts, and Gentylnen withoutt grett Nombre, and at Entrynge grett Reverences of Custom. The Qwene, wiche knowe hys Commynge, well accompayned, maid haft toward hym in varey humble Courtafy. And the one kyffed the other, and after drew them afyd for to commune, and after ſhe playd upon the Clavicordys, and after of the Lute, hee beinge apon his Kne allwayes barr heded.

The Tables war then drest and ſerved, and they waifched ther Haundes. The Kynge ſatt in the Chayre, and the Qwene abouffe hym, on hys ryght Haund. For becauſe the Stole of the Qwene was not for hyr Eaſe, he gaſſe hyr the ſaid Chayre. After, he cauſed the Erle of Surrey and the Counteſſe to ſitt with hym.

After the ſayd Soupper was doon, they communed together laſtyng the Playing of a Ballade of the Mynſtrells of Muſyke, and then the King tuke Licence, in kyffynge hys Lady, and of all the Company. Without the ſaid Place was preſented hym by the ſaid Erle of Surrey the Horſe that the Kynge ſent hym, welle apoynted of a Trapure, of Damaske whytt and grene, to the Grownde, with grett Hangynge Boutons of Sylke, the Harnays of the Bridle, of Velvett of the Selfe Colour. After the Syght, hee made hym to be redyn before hym, and then departed to Edenburgh, as the Dayes before. The Kyng was that Day apoynted of a Gowne of tane Velvett fourred with blak Bougye, a ſyne Cherth bourded with ſin Gold abouff, he beinge alwayes mere, and his Beerde ſomethynge longe.

The vith Day of the ſayd Monneth that was the Sonday, the Qwene was conveyd in fayr Ordre, and Company of her Lordes, Knyghts, Ladyes, Gentylnen, and Gentylwomen to Maſſe, unto the Chappelle of the ſaid Caſtell. Ther ſche was accompayned of the Lady of the ſaid Place, in a Gowne of Cloth of Gold eged with Letyces, Ermynes, and hyr Gentylwomen arayde after the Gyſe of the Countrey. And ther was a Sermon of one of the Obſervance.

* After the Maſſe ſhe was conveyd ageyn into hyr Chammer in the Manere before ſaid, wher ſhe ſatt at Dinner, and beneaeth the Table, at the loweſt Place, the ſaid Lady of the ſaid Place, and the Counteſſe of Surrey with hyr. An other Table was full of Ladies, and laſtyng the ſaid Dinner they blew Trompetts, Mynſtrells, and Sakeboutts.

After the Dinner, incontynent the Mynſtrells of the Chammer begon to play, and then daunced the Qwene and the the Countesse of Surrey, the Vicountesse Lille, and the Daughter of the said Place. And thys doon, they pass the Tyme at Games, and in commonyng.

The sam Day at the Houre of Soupper, cam the Kinge, as the Custome precedente, acompayned of the Lords of the Day precedente, and others, to the Nombre of XL Horsys, he being mounted upon a Mewlle. When he entred within the Chammer of the said Qwene, that knewe of his commyng, they kyssed togeder without sparing Cortasy, and to the Ladyes gaffe Salutes. And after, they went asyd in commonyng, to the Tyme that all Thyngs war rady for the Soupper.

Incontynent they wached their Haunds, and satt in the Manere before, allwayes served of the Gentylnen of the Qwene. Ther soupped with them the Byschop of Morrey, the Erle and Countesse of Surrey, the Lady of the said Place, and the Lady Nevill.

After Soupper the Minstrells played, and the Qwene daunced, and after the Kynge tuke Licence, and went to Edenburgh. He had on a demy Gowne of blak Velvett fourred with Marten, and the Remanent of his Arayment all black.

The viiith Day of the Monneth in the Morninge, the Kynge sent to the Qwene new Pallefrays, all appoynted after their Guise. And at the Hour acoustumed, she departed from the said Dacquick nobly acompayned, and in fayr Aray and Ordre, as before is many Tymes said : The Qwene was placed in her Litere, varey rychly enorned, and had on a ryche Gowne of Cloth of Gold, with a Purfill of black Velvet, and a rich Coller of Perle and Stone.

The Lords, as well Spiritualls as Temporalls, Knyghts, and Gentylnen, wer varey rychely appoynted, the most Parte in Gownes of cramfyn Velvett. The Lord Grays Hors was huffed, the said Huffle maid by Cantons of cramfyn Velvett. Those of others wer of Thred of Gold broched, and others had Ermynes, abouff all sawen of Orfavery. The other yong Gentylnen wer apointed after the Manere of the Yshew of Barwyk.

After the Qwene was conveyd hyr Pallefrey of Honnor by Syr Thomas Worteley. Also hyr Ladyes and Gentylwomen war so varey rychely apoynted and monted, that it was a fayr Syght. After them cam the Char, and after that other Gentylwomen. The Company was in fayr Ordre, as at other Tymes before.

A Mylle from Dacquick the Kynge sent to the Qwene, by a Gentylman, a grett tame Hart for to have a Corse ; bot because the Kynge was ny, the Erle of Surrey answered, that the said Hert should be brought ageyn toward the Kynge; that they myght both be at the said Courfe, and so it was doon.

Half of the Way, the Kyng cam to mett hyr monted apou a Bay Horfe, rennyng as he wolde renne after the Hayre, acompayned of many Gentylmen. The said Horfe was trapped in a demy Trappure of Cloth of Gold. Apou the Neck was a Frange of Thred of Gold. The Sadle and the Harnays wer of that sam, except the Harnayes of the Hed, that was of Sylver, and gylt. Grett Boutons with Lupps of Thred of Gold, as well to the said Trappure, as to the Brydle. Hys Sterrops gylt.

The Kynge ware a Jakett lyke to the Trappure. The Lyttes of the said Bordeur wer of Pourple Velvett fourred with fyne blak Bougy, his Doublet of Violet Sattin, his Hossys of Scarlatt, hys Schert bounde abouffe of fyn Pierrery and Perles, hys Spourrys gylt and long. At the Commyng towards the Qwene he maid hyr varey humble Obeysfannce in lepyng downe of hys Horfe, and kyssed hyr in hyr Litere. This doon, he monted ageyn, and ychon being put in Ordre as before, a Gentylman Husscher bare the Swerde before hym. The said Swerde covered with a Scabard of Pourple Velvett, wich was written apou with Perles, God my Deffende. The lyke on the Pommell, and the Crosse, with the Chap also.

After hym cam th Archbyfchop of Glasco, the Bishop of Morrey, and the Erle Bothwell, acompayned of many Gentylmen, and honnest Perfonnes. The said Erle bare the Swerde at the Entreng of the Towne of Edenbourgh, and had on a long Gowne of blak Velvett fourred with Marten.

The Kynge beyng allwayes ny to the Qwene in devysing with her, ther cam a Gentylman that brought hym a Courfer, his Harnays of Cloth of Gold, and of cramfyn Velvett interlased all about of whytt and red. Apou the Horfe was a Page in a Jakett of blew Damafke, upon the wiche Horfe the Kyng monted, without puttyng the Foot within the Sterrop, in the Prefence of them all. After he caused the said Gentylman to monte behinde hym, for to assay iff his Courfer wolde berr byhynd or not.

Bot becaufe that he was not drest, he cam downe of his said Horfe, and monted upon the Pallefroy of the said Qwene, and the saide Qwene behinde hym, and so rode thorow the said Towne of Edenburgh.

Ny thereby was in Ordre the Lord Hamylton, Cozyn of the saide Kynge, with many other Lords, Knyghts, and Gentylmen, to the Nombre of two hundreth Horsys well apoynted.

apoynted. Sum in Jaketts of Cloth of Golde, of Velvett, and of Damaske, figured of Golde, and of many Colours. In lyke wys others wer in Jakets of Chamlett, and many of thos wore varey good Chaynnes.

And by hym rode the Master of hys Horse, named Compans Gascon, varey well appoynted, conveying feyve yong Gentylnen of Honor, arayd of Jaketts half parted of Cloth of Gold figured, and of blew Velvett, monted upon Coursers, and others honnestly appoynted.

The Company abouffe said wer commaunded by the Kyng, that they schould not goe before, bot only in the Company of the sayd Qwene, that it might be seen that thes was well accompayned, and rychly.

Halfe a Mylle ny to that, within a Medewe, was a Pavillon, wherof cam owt a Knyght on Horibak, armed at all Peces, havynge hys Lady Paramour that barre his Horne. And by Avantur, ther cam an other also armed, that cam to hym, and robbed from hym hys sayd Lady, and at the absenting blew the said Horne, wherby the said Knyght understode hym, and tourned after hym, and said to hym, wherfor hast thou this doon? He answerd hym, what will you say therto?—I say, that I will pryve upon thee, that thou hast doon Owtrage to me. The tother demaunded hym if he was armed? He said ye, well then, said th'other, preve the a Man, and doo thy Devoir.

In such Manere they departed, and went to take their Sperry, and renne without stryking of the same. After the Course they retourned with their Swerdes in their Haunds, and maid a varey fayr Torney: And the Caller caused the Swerd for to fall of the Defender. Notwithstanding, the Caller caused to gyffe hym ageyn his Swerd, and begon ageyn the said Torney of more fayre Manere; and they did well ther Devor, tyll that the Kyng cam hymselfe, the Qwene behynd hym, crying Paix, and caused them for to be departed. After this the King called them before hym, and demaunded them the Cause of ther Difference. The Caller sayd, Syre, he hath taken from me my Lady Paramour, whereof I was insurte of hyr by Faith. The Defender answered, Syre, I schall defend me ageynst hym upon this Cas: Then sayd the Kyng to the sayd Defender, bryng your Friends, and ye schall be appoynted a Day for to agre you. Wheroff they thaunked hym, and so every Men departed them for to draw toward the said Towne. The Names of thos war Sir Patryk Hamilton, Brother of the said Lord abouffe said, and Patryk Synklar, Esquyre; and ther was com grett Multitude of People for to se this.

Half

Half a Mylle from thens was the said Hert, the wich the Kynge caused to be losed, and put a Greyhound after hym that maid a fayr Course; bot the said Hert wanne the Towne, and went to hys Repayre.

Ther war many honest People of the Town, and of the Countre aboute, honnestly arayd all on Horsbak, and so by Ordre the King and the Qwene entred within the said Towne. At the Entryng of that same cam in Processyon the Grey Freres, with the Crosse and sum Relicks, the wich was presented by the Warden to the Kynge for to kyffe, bot he wold not before the Qwene; and he had hys Hed barre during the Ceremonies.

The Mynstrells, Johannes, and hys Company, and the Trompetts, war as well of the one Syd as of the other; bot thos of Scotlaund had no new Baneres: And did the Devor at the said Entryng Officers of Armes of Inglaund; and non at Scotlaund. Sergents of Masses. &c. ychon, by Ordre.

A lityll more fourther cam also in Processyon the Jacobins, revested, the most Chyft and Principall of them, with many Relicks; wherof some of thos war by the Prior gyffen to kyffe, in lyke wys; wherof the K. did as before.

At the Entryng of the said Towne was maid a Yatt of Wood painted, with Two Towrells, and a Windowe in the Midds. In the wich Towrells was, at the Windowes, revested Angells syngyng joyously for the Comynge of so noble a Lady; and at the sayd middle Windowe was in lyk wys an Angell presenting the Kees to the said Qwene.

Within the Towne ny to the said Yatt came in Processyon the College of the Perysche of Seint Gilles, rychly revested, with the Arme of that Seint; the wiche was presented to the Kynge for to kyffe; wherof he did as before, and began to syng Te Deum Laudamus.

In the Mydds of the Towne was a Crosse, new painted, and ny to that same a Fontayne, castyng forth of Wyn, and ychon drank that wold.

Ny to that Crosse was a Scarfawst maid, wher was represented Paris and the Thre Deessys, with Mercure, that gaffe hym th Apyll of Gold, for to gyffe to the most fayre of the Thre, wiche he gave to Venus.

In the Scarfawst was represented also the Salutation of Gabriell to the Virgyne, in sayinge Ave gratia, and sens after, the Sollempnizacion of the varey Maryage betwix the said Vierge and Josef.

More fourther was of new maid One other Yatt, apou the wiche was in Sieges the iiij Vertuz. Theys is to weyt, Justice, holdyng in hyr right Haunde a Swerde all naked, and in the t'other a Pair of Ballaunces, and she had under hyr Feet the Kyng Nero: Force, armed, holdyng in hyr Haund a Shaft, and under hyr Feete was Holofernes, all armed: Temperance, holdyng in hyr Haund a Bitt of an Horfe, and under hyr Feete was Epicurus: Prudence, holdyng in hyr Haunde a Syerge, and under hyr Sardenapalus. With thos war Tabretts that playd merrily, whill the noble Company past thorough. Under was a Licorne and a Greyhound, that held a Difference of one Chardon floryschd, and a Red Rose entrelaffed.

Then the noble Company passed out of the said Towne, to the Church of the Holy Crosse; out of wich cam the Archbisshop of Saunt Andrew, Brother to the said Kynge, his Crosse borne before hym, acompanyed of the Reverend Fathers in God the Byschop of Aberdeen Lord Privy Seal of Scotland, the Byschops of Orkney, Cathness, Ross, Dunblane, and Dunkeld, and many Abbots, all in theyr Pontificalls, with the Religious and Chanoynes richly revesed, preceded by theyr Crosse. The said Archi Byschop then gave the King a Relik for to kyffe, bot he dyd as hee had doon before.

After thys doon, ychon lept off hys Horfe, and in fayr Ordre went after the Proceffyon to the Church, and in the Entryng of that sam the Kyng and the Qwene light downe, and after he take the said Qwene by the Body, doynge humble Reverence, and led hyr to the grett Awter, wher was a Place ordonned for them to knele apon two Cuschyons of Cloth of Gold, the Lord Chammerlayn of the said Qwene excerfing hys Office as before.

Bot the Kynge wold never knell downe furst, bot both togeder: And by the said Archbyschop was giffen hym to kyffe a rich Crosse, wheroff he did as before, without Offryng; and at the Entryng of the said Quere, the Chappelle of the said Kinge, and others, begon Te Deum, &c.

After all Reverences doon at the Church, in Ordre as before, the King transported himself to the Pallais, thorough the Clostre, holdyng allwayes the Qwene by the Body, and hys Hed barre, tyll he had brought hyr within her Chamber.

In the said Church war the Lordes the Erle of Hontely, the Erle of Errol Constable of Scotland, the Erle Mariscall of Scotland, the Erle of Argyle Steward of the Hows, the Erle of Lennox Chammerlayne in the Absence of the Conte of Cathness, the Erle of Minster, and the Erle Morton, acompayned of many Lordes, Knyghts, and Gentylnen, well arayd, arrayd. The wich maid Reverence to the Qwene; and she to them.

The Kynge went from thens to the grett Chammer, wher was many Ladies of grett Name, Wyffes to divers of the sayd Lordes, and others, acompayned of many Gentylnen and Gentylwomen, arrayd varey nobly after ther Gyse. At the Entrynge the said Chambre, the Kyng let go the Qwene till she had kyssed all the sayd Ladies and ther Company; and the Byschop of Morrey went with her, sewinge her the Names of them. After she had kyssed them all, the Kyng kyssed her for hyr Labor: And so tuke hyr ageyn, with low Cortesay and barr Hed, and brought hyr to hyr Second Chammer, and kyssed her ageyn; taking his Leve right humble he drew toward hys Lodgyng for them appoynted.

The Towne of Edenbourgh was in many Places haunged with Tappissery, the Howses and Wyndowes war full of Lordes, Ladyes, Gentylwomen, and Gentylnen, and in the Stretyts war soe grett Multitude of People without Nombere, that it was a fayr Thyng to se. The wich People war varey glad of the Commyng of the sayd Qwene: And in the Churches of the sayd Towne Bells range for Myrthe.

The sam Day the Kynge souped in hys Chammer, acompayned of many of the Parte of the said Qwene within hyr awn. And after that, the Kynge went to see hyr, and daunced some basse Daunces. Thys doon, the Kynge toke hys Leve, and bad her goode Nyght joyously, and after the same to ychon also.

The viiiith Day of the said Monneth every Man apoynted hymselfe rychly, for the Honor of the noble Maryage. Betwyx viii and ix oth Clock everychon was rady, nobly apperyld; and the Ladyes abouffe said came rychly arrayd, sum in Gownys of Cloth of Gold; the others of Cremfyn Velvet and Blak. Others of Satyn and of Tynfell, of Damaske, and of Chamlet of many Colours, Hoods, Chaynnes and Collers apon ther Necks, acompayned of ther Gentylwomen arrayd honnestly after ther Gyse, for to hold Company to the sayd Qwene.

After cam the Byschop of Morrey, to fetche my Lordes th Archbyschop of York and the Byschop of Durham; the wiche war varey honnestly arrayd in ther Estat; as also the Erle of Surrey, who was rychely arrayde in a longe Gowne of Clothe of Gold, with his ryche Coller of the Gartere, acompayned of many Lordes, as the Lords Gray, Latemer, Dacres, and Scrop, honourably arrayd; with many noble Knyghts, as Syr Richard Poulle, Knyght of the Garter, rychly arayd in his Coller, Syr Davy Owen, waring a varey riche Channe, Syr William Conyars, arayd in a Gowne of Clothe of Gold, Syr Thomas Darcy in another, with riches Chaynnes, Syr John Huse, and many other Knyghts and Gentylnen rychly and honnestly arayd and in lyk wys waring goods Chainnes.

In that Mannere the said Lords war brought by the said Byshop of Morrey to the Kynge, the wiche was within his grett Chammer, apon hys Feet; and at the Commyng of the said Lordes maid Reverence to every Man, hys Bonnet allway in hys Haunde. The Kynge then caused them to sit apon a Form before hym, agenst hymselfe, and desyred them to couer ther Heds. The said Archbyshop was placed at the Right Haund, and the Erle of Surrey at the Lefte Haund. The Kynge sat in a Chayre of Cramfyn Velvet, the Pannells of that sam gylte, under hys Cloth of Astat, of Blew Velvet figured of Gold.

He was accompayned on his Right Haund by the Right Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Saunt Andrew, hys Brother, and by all the Prelats, as on the Day precedent, as likewise by the Prior of Saunt John, and many notables Personnes, as wel Ecclesiastiks as Seculers, all setting. On the Lefte Syde war the Lordes and Erles before named, with others grett Lordes, noble Knyghts, and Gentylnen, of the Two Partes. So that it was a noble Thyng to se the the sayd Chammer so nobly fournyshed. Ther war also the Officers of Armes of Inglaund in their Cotts, and non of Scotlaund for that sam Hour.

After Scylence maid, and everychon sat in Ordre, the Doctor Raulins, Doctor in Divynite, began the Preposicyon, who well and wisely, and with good Maner, demaenyd him in hys Utteraunce of the same, and at every Worde requysitt made honorable Reverence Thys doon, the Kyng commaunded Maister Doctor Moreched, hys Secretary, to gyffe short Answer. The wiche Thyng he did varey reverently, in bryeff Conclusyon.

After thos Preposicyons doon, every Man dyd Reverence to the Kyng, as did the said Kyng lyke wys to them in his drawynge into hys awn Chammer. And then the said Archbyshop hys Brother, and the Byshop of Abberdeen conveyed the beforesaid Lords and Company ageyn to the Lodgyng of the Qwene.

A lytyll after, the Qwene was by the said Lords and Company brought from her Chammer to the Church, crowned with a varey ryche Cronne of Gold garnished with Pierrery and Perles. Sche was led on the Right Hand by th Archbyshop byschop of York, and on the Left Hand by the Erle of Surrey. Hyr Trayne was born by the Contesse of Surrey, a Gentyman Huscher helpyng hyr. The said Qwene was nobly accompeyned with her Ladyes rychly arayd; that is to weytt, the said Contesse of Surrey arayd in a rych Robbe, of Cloth of Gold; the Two Ladyes Nevill, the Lady Lille, the Lady Stanneley, and the Lady Guilleford, in riche Apparell; and all the others followynge had ryche Collers and Channes apon ther necks; and good Juells. It was ordonnaed by the said Erle of Surrey, That Two of the grettest Ladyes of Ingland goinge togeders shold take with thaim Two of the grettest Ladyes of Scotland, and so all Foure to go togeder on a Row: And so sewingly alwais Two of the best Ladyes and Gentylwomen of Ingland and Two of Scotland to goe togeder as before, wher they had rome so to do: And thus they dede dayly.

Thus the sayde Qwene was conveyde to the sayde Churche, and placed neere to the Font; Maistresse Denton, hyr Maistresse, being allwayes ay hyr; and all hyr noble Company standing in Ordre on the Left Syd of the Churche. Incoantynent cam the Right Reverend Father in God my Lord th Archbyschop of Glasco, accompayned with the Prelats, all in Pontificalls, and other notables Folks of the Churche.

Then the Kyng was brought by a varey fayre Company, consisting of hys said Brother and of the Lordes abouffe said, hys Steward, Chammerlayn, the Constable, and the Marischall, with all their Staffs of their Offices, and other Nobles, Knyghts, Squyers, and Gentylmen, richely and honnestly arayd and with good Chaynnes. The Lord of Hamylton barre his Swerde before hym. His Officers of Armes war in their Cotts, and all his Nobles stode in Ordre on the Right Syd of the Church.

Then the Kyng commyn neere to the Qwene, maid Reverence, and she to hym varey humbly. The Kyng was in a Gowne of Whit Damaske, figured with Gold and lynned with Sarfenet. He had on a Jakette with Slyffs of Cramsyn Satyn, the Lifts of Blak Velvett, under that sam a Dowblet of Cloth of Gold, and a Payre of Scarlatte Hofys. Hys Shurt broded with Thred of Gold, hys Bonnet Blak, with a ryche Balay, and hys Swerd about hym.

The Qwene was arayd in a rich Robbe, lyke Hymselfe, borded of Cramsyn Velvet, and lyned of the self. Sche had a varey ryche Coller of Gold, of Pyerrery and Perles, round her Neck, and the Cronne apon hyr Hed: Her Hayre hangyng. Betwyx the said Cronne and the Hayres was a varey riche

riche Coyfe hangyng downe behynde the whole Length of the Body.

Then the noble Maryage was performed by the said Arch Byschop of Glasco; and th' Arch Byschop of York, in Presence of all, red the Bulles of our Holly Father the Pope of Rom, consentynge thereto.

Thys doon, the Trompetts blew for Joy; and the King, being bareheaded and holdyng her by the Ryght Haund, was conveyd through the said Company to the Hygh Awter. Before the wich was drest a Place for them Two to knell upon ryches Cuschyns of Cloth of Gold. But this the Kyng wold never doe, previously paying her the most grett Humilitie and Reverence, as possible might be. After ther Oraysons doon, and lastyng the Letany, wich was songe and said by the Arch Byschop, the Kyng withdrew himself to his Travers, of Blew and Red fraunged, wich stod on the Left Syde, and ther setted himself in a ryche Chayre. In such wys, the Qwene into her awne Travers of Black, wich was on the Right Side, and satt downe in a ryche Chayre also. The Letany ended, the sayd Arch Byschop beganne the Masse; and so they retourned into the Place wher they war before, abydyng there during the Tyme of the Masse.

At the Gospell they maid their Offryng, and before the Saunt Canon she was anoynted. After wich the Kyng gaffe hyr the Septre in hyr Haund. Then was songen Te Deum Laudamus, &c. and two Prelatts helde the Cloth upon them during the Remanenç of the Masse. That and all the Ceremonyes accomplyshed, ther was brought by the Lordes, Bred and Wyn in ryche Potts and ryche Cupps.

After the Collacyon, ychon was putt in Ordre according to his Birth. And the Kyng lydyng the Qwene, as before, conveyd hyr to hyr Chammer, and then departed fro her, and went to hys Awne, where he helded Astat Royal for that Day.

At Dynner the Qwene was served before the Kyng, with all th' Onnet that myght be doon, the Officers of Armes, and the Sergants at Armes, proceeding before the Meys. On that Day Syr John Villars was Sewar, Syr Davye Owen Kerver, and Syr Edward Stanneley Cupbarrer; and with hyr dynned the said Archbysehop of Glasco. The Chammer in wich she dined was rychly drest, and the Cloth of Astat wher she satt, was of Clothe of Golde varey riche.

At the furst Course, sche was served of a wyld Borres Hed gylt, within a fayr Platter, then with a fayr Pece of Brane, and in the thyrd Place with a Gambon, wich wer followed by

by divers other Dythys, to the Nombre of xii, of many Sortes, in fayre and ryche Vesselle.

After this the Kyng was served in Vesselle gylt as the Qwene. Hys Panneters wer my Lord the Son of the Erle of Bothwells Brother, and my Lord Grayes Son; and his Cupberrer was the Lord of Hamylton. Th Archbyschops of Saunt Andrew and of York, the Byschop of Durham, and the Erle of Surrey dyned with hym. The Chammer was haunged of red and of blew, and in it was a Cyll of a State of Cloth of Gold; bot the King was not under for that sam Day. Ther wer also in the sam Chämmer a riche Bed of Astat, and a riche Dressor after the Guyse of the Countre, and the Lord Grays the Father served the King with Water for to wash, and the Erle of Hunteley berred the Towaylle.

At the second Service, the Qwene was served very honorably of XL or L Meys. The Kyng was likewys served of many Vyaunds; after wich the Officers of Armes presented themselves for to crye LARGESSE. Whereupon the Kinge comaunded Marchemont, Pryncipall Herauld—Goo ye, Cry toward the Qwene fyrst, that is to weytt, LARGESSE, To the high and mighty Princesse Margarete, by the Grace of God, Qwene of Scotlaund, and fyrst Daughter engendred of the varey hygh and varey mighty Prince Henry the vijth, by that sam selfe Grace, Kyng of Inglaund. In the Largesse of the Gyft of the Kyng ther wer XL Crounes of lyght Gold. And because there was noe more then three Cotts of Armes of Inglaund, the Kyng wold not suffer more thenne thre of his awne.

The sam was cryed thre Tymes in the Kings Chammer, in the grett Chammer, that is ny, and in the Halle of the Kyng and of the Qwene; but he would not have his Largesse cryed, ne intituled, saying, that it souffysed to cry hers.

In the grett Chammer, ther satt the Ladyes of the sayd Qwene, togeder the other Ladyes of the Countrey. At the next Bord satt my Lord the Qwenes Chammerlayn, accompayned of many Nobles and Knyghts. In the thyrd satt other Ladyes and Gentylwomen. And the iiijth was filled with Gentylmen, varey well served. The Hangynge of this Chamer represented the Ystory of Troy Towne, and in the Glassys Wyndowes wer the Armes of Scotland and of Inglaund byperted, with the Differences before sayd, to which, a Chardon, and a Rosse interlassed thorough a Crowne was added.

The Kings grett Chammer had one Table, wher was satt hys Chammerlayn, the grett Sqyer, and many others, well served, served, the wich Chammer was haunged about with the Story of Hercules, togeder with other Yfforys.

In the Kings Hall war thre Rowes of Tables, and one abouff in the Front, wher was satt the Prelatts, and consequently the grett Lordes, Nobles, Knyghts, Squyers, Gentylmen, and other honorable Personnes, at double Dynner. This sam Chammer was haunged of th Yffory of the old Troy. Six grett Syerges of Wax wer haunged in the same Halle for to lyght at Even, and there was a riche Dreffor, and welle served.

In the Hall wher the Qwene's Company wer satt in lyke as in the other, and wich was haunged of the History of Hercules, wer old Syerges, for to lyght at Even, a ryche Dreffor, good Chere, and good Wyn.

The Trompetts as well of the Kynge as of the Qwene, theyr Mynstrells of many Sortes, and Johannes and his Company dyd their Devoir for that Day, as well in the Mornyng, as at the Dynnar, and after at the Soupper, and also on the Dayes followyng.

After Dynnar the Mynstrells played, and the Kynge and the Qwene, the Ladyes, Knyghts, Gentylmen, and Gentylwomen daunced; also some good bodys maid Games of Passe Passe, and dyd varey well.

At the Hour of Even Songe, the Kynge acompayned of hys Noblesse, and those of the Qwene, but without hyr, war conveyd to the Church, wher the Abbot of the Place did the Service. When they retourned agayn, they wer served as at the Dinner, bott the Qwene the furst, and the Personages abouffe sayd ageyn held ther Places. The King, before that he satt down, sent hys Gowne of Marriage to the Officers of Armes of Englaunde, and put on another of blak Velvet, long and fourred of Martens, the wich Robbe Somerset Herauld acompayned of his Companions, bore the next Day in Court, and for the wich they thanked the Kynge.

After the Soupper, the Nyght approached, therefor ychoa withdrew hym to his Lodgyng for to take hys Rest, and the Kinge had the Qwene aparte, and they went togeder. God by his Grace will hold them in long Prosperitye. At Even grett Numbre of Fyers wer maid thorough the Towne of Edenbowrgh.

The 1xth Day of the Monneth everie Lord, Knyght, Ladye, and Gentylwoman cam to the Pallais. Toward X^o of the Clok, the Kyng went his Way to Masse in the grett Church, acompayned of his Lordes and Nobles as the Day before; and was arayd of a riche Robbe of Cloth of Gold fourred of fyne blak Bougye, his Doublett of cramfyn Satyn, blak blak Hofys couved abouff, of Cloth of Gold, a blak Bonnet, a Saunt George of Gold, apou the Dragon a Ruby, a cram-fyn Hat, a Payre of gold Beads haungyng to his Gyrdle, to the Nombre of xiiij more or leffe, and a Dagar before hym. The Lord of Hontelej bar the Swerde before him, an Husfher of his Chammer bore his Train, hys Maister d'Hofstell, his Chamberlayn, his Constable, the Marshall, and the Officers of Armes and the Trumpets went before him after the Custome of the Countre.

The Masse being doon by hys Chappelle, and one of the Religyous, he retourned ageyn. Duryng the Masse the Erle of Surrey and his Company cam to convey him, for the wich Kindnesse he at the Retornyng tuke him by the Armes, tyll he cam into his Chamber.

Hys Dinnar was brought and served in Silver Vessels by the Officers and Personnaiges in fuche Manere as the Day before. After Dynnar a young Man, an Italyen, played before the King on a Corde varey well. Ny to him at the Windows wer my Lord of York, the Erle of Surrey, the Archbyschop of Saunt Andrew, the Byschop of Durham, and many other Lords. The Ladyes, acompayned of Lodes and Knights, wer at the Windows toward the Qwenes Quarters. And after the Game was doon, they begon to daunce. Touchyng the Qwene I say nothyng, for that sam Day I saw her not, bot I understond that sche was in good Helth and Mere.

As for the Soupper, notwithstanding it was Fastyng Day, Baunketts of many Metts war not forgotten; after wich every Man drew to his Lodgyng. That Even the Qwene delivered hyr Robbe of Maryage to the Officers of Scotland, the wiche the next Day followyng Marchmont Herawld barred in Cowrt in Escharpe, he and hys Companyons thaunking the King and Qwene therfor. But on the Morow she gaffe-them the Somme of xli Nobles for Largeffe, and they brought ageyn the said Robbe into the Wardrobe of the sayd Qwene, as she desyred in hyr Recompensing.

The xth Day of the sayd Moneth, being Saunt Lawrens Day, the Qwene was led to the Hyghe Church, acompayned of hyr noble Trayn, and of the Ladyes of the Countre honnestly appoynted. The said Qwene was varey well delibered, and arayd of a riche Robbe of Cloth of Gold, with a ryche Coller, and was put within hyr Courtayne, of red; blew, and grene. Before hyr was prepared an Awter richely enorned with vary ryches Ymaiges.

After hyr cam the Kynge, varey honnestly acompayned of hys Lords, varey noble arrayed as in the Dayes before. The Officers of Armes, the Sergents at Maces, and the Trompetts wer in fayr Ordre, the Lord Honteley berrynge the Swerde. The Kynge was arayd of a Gowne of cramsyn fygured Velvett fourred of Yenetts, a Dowblett of blak Satyn, Hofys of Scarlatte, the Bonnett of the Day before, and hys Beerde kyted of Shers. Whan he was arrived within hys Cortyne, he maid humble Reverence to the Qwene, and so sche did in lyke wys to hym. Incontynent the Masse begon to be synged by one of the Religyous of the Place, and by the Syngers. At the Offring the King and Qwene both offred togeder.

The Masse doon, the Kynge, for the Luffe of the present Qwene and hyr Ladyes, did make xli Knyghts. After the Othe sworne and taken, the Erle Bothwell chaussed them the gylt Spourreys, and the Kynge gaffe them the Stroke of his Swerde, wich was born before hym. This doon, he sayed to the Qwene, and Lady—These are your Knyghts, and taking hyr by the Haund, led hyr to the Doore of hyr Chammer, when they war well and honnestly served, as was also all the Felischyp with Plenty of Ypocras.

After the Dynnar begon, Jousts war apoynted in the baffe Courte before the Wyndowes. The Place was without Barreres, and only the Tyllt. The Challengers war my Lord of Kylmars, and my Lord Treithoun. Ther Aids wer Syr Alexandre Seytoun, the Maister of Mewgumery, Syr Patryk Hamylton, and Syr John of Treytom, to all the Comers duryng the Jousts.

The Defenders for that Day wer my Lord of Hamilton, Cosin of the Kynge, dressed in red Satyn, my Lord Roos, Syre Davy Hume, William of Cokbwrn of Langtown, Patryck Synklars, in Jackets borded of blak Velvett, and Henry Brws. Ychon of them tuke a Corse of a Spere, and a Swerde with the Poynte broken, sum brak Speres, the others not. At the Wyndowes was the Kynge acompayned of th Archbyshops of Saunt Andrew and York, and of the Byshop of Durham, and of other Prelatts, the said Wyndowes being well apoynted. The Qwene was at the Windowes of hyr grett Chammer, acompayned of hyr Ladyes, and of the others of the Reyne, with my Lord hyr chyf Chamberlaine. The said Wyndowes wer arayd in like wise, and more rychly. Ageynst them was a Scarfawld, wheron was my Lord of Surrey, and the Erle Bothwell only; my Lord Morley the Constable, the Officers of Armes, and many other Officers and Trompetts stood by the Feild.

After the Courfes and Tornay, the Kyng and the Qwene went to Soupper, the wiche war varey well served, according

ing to the Custome of the Dayes before, and after that they daunced, and then every Men went to hys Lodgyng.

The sam Day my Lord Archbyshop of Yorke, the Byschop of Durham, and many others tuked Licence of the Kinge and of the Qwene, and departed the next Morning.

The xiith Day of the sayd Monneth the King, as accustomed, went to the Church accompanied by his noble Company, in Manere as before, and was vested in a long Gowne of blak Velvett fourred of Mertes, a Rebras Doublett of blak Satin, and blak Hofys. After the Messe doon, he was layd ageyne to hys Chammer, wher he was served as before. The Lord of Hamilton bar the Swerd.

The Qwene was not that Day at the Masse, bot kept hyr Chammer. After Dinnar they daunced togeder, and past the Tym merveillously in Mirthe and Gladnesse. The sam Day war sum Jousts, as the Day before, performed by six Persons, the wiche brake many Speares, at theyr Plaifur. Also two other Persons sawght, the one agentst the tother on Fowt, armed with halfe Spers, and Swerds.

The Kynge was at the Wyndowes, and with hym the Erle of Surrey, and many others, Prelatts and Lordes. All doon, the Kynge went to hys Soupper, and with hym the said Erle of Surrey, and many others. The Qwene was in lyk wys at the Wyndowes of hyr Lodgyng, acompayned of the Ladyes of the Countre, and others of hyr Company.

After Soupper, the Kynge and the Qwene being togeder in hyr grett Chamber, John Inglish and hys Companyons playd, and then ichon went his Way.

That Day Syre Richard Poulle, Syr Davy Owen, John Huse, Syre Edward Stanneley, and many others, tuke theyr Conge of the King, and of the Qwene, and went theyr Way.

The xiiith Day of the said Monneth, at the Hour accustomed, the Ladies of the Countrey cam toward the Qwene, as the Dayes before, and the Kynge went to the Church nobly acompayned, after the Manere of the precedent Dayes, and was arayd in a long Gowne of sandysch Velvett fourred of Mertes. The Masse doon, he was brought ageyn to hys Chammer, and served of hys Dinnar, after the Custome before said.

After Dynnar Jousts wer ageyn maid by Fore of them who jousted before, and they brak sum Speyres in the Presence of the Kyng and the Qwene, who war at the Wyndowes ; and thys doon, they went to their Souper.

The xiiiiith Day of the said Monneth, being Sondag, the Qwene was led to the Churche acompayned by the Prelats, the Erle of Surrey, the Lord Chamberlayne, and the Ladyes rychely arayd. She was arayd in a Gowne of Porple figured Velvett, brothed of Thred of Gold fourred with Ermynes, a grett Rebras beneath, and had on a ryche Coller of Pyerrery, and a ryche Gyrdle. The Lady Surrey bar her Trayn, assisted by Syre John Hume.

After hyr cam the Kyng, in the Manere of the Dayes before said, arayd in a Gowne of Cloth of Gold, rychly fourred of Mertes, a Doublett of cramfyn Satyn fawted, and within doubled of Cloth of Gold. To hys Bonnett hung a ryche Bagge, and hys Churte was borderd of fyne Pierrery and Pearles. When he arrayed at his Cortyne, he maid an humble Cortaisy to the Qwene, as she also did to hym.

At the Offrynge wer assembled three noble Lords to be maid Erles in the Qwenes Prefence, and when the Masse was done, they wer presented to the King by Marchmont, Herawld. Fyrst, they promysed to hold ther Othes, and then the Kynge gyrdled them with the Swerd abouffe their Schoulder, and gaffe them their Lordschips to them and to their Heires.

Then Merchemont, Herauld, togeder with his Companions, cryed Largeffe in the self Place, and fyrst LARGE SSE.

Jamys Darene, Lord of Hamylton, Baron, Banerett, and Lord of Parlement.

3dly. LARGE SSE. Cuthberd Conte de Glencarne, Lord de Kylmarres, Baron, Banerett, and Lord of Parlement.

After this doone, the Kynge tuke the Qwene, and layd hyr to the Company, but for Cause that it renned, she passed thorough the Kings Chamber for to go in hyr awne, and all the Ladyes war served. The Erle of Surrey and other Lords dynned with him. After Dynnar, a Moralite was played by the said Master Inglishe and hys Companyons, in the Prefence of the Kyng and Qwene, and then Daunces war daunced.

At the Hour custumed the Kyng and the Company before-said went to Even Song, and sum Knights, to the Nombre of xxvi, should have been maid bot for that; that the Qwene was not there, they wer put off to the next Day for the Luffe of hyr.

The Even Song sayd, the King was brought ageyn into his Chambré, and was served at the Sotupper. And that doon, every Man went his Way.

Then followed the Master of the Horses called Sir Thomas Brandon, leadinge in his Hande a goodlie Courser trapped with Black Velvet, richely embrodered with the Armes of England; whome followed the Lord Darcy, beinge Captayn of the Garde. After whome came the Garde, and many other Gentlemen. Then the worshipfull Men of the Crafts of London, which were appointed by their Fellowship to set in the said Corps. Then Lords Servaunts followed, beinge a great Number.

Thus

Thus and in this Manner was the said Corps of Kynge Henry the VIIth brought throughe the Cittie of London, with Torchcs innumerable, unto the West Dore of St. Powles, where the Bifschop of London, revestcd and mytred, received the said Corps; which, after they had encenscd it, was taken out of the Charett, the said Picture lying upon it, and borne by XII Persons of the Garde, because of the great Waight thereof. The Duke of Buckingham with the said Earles goinge by, and puttinge theire Hands unto it. Over the which Corpes was borne a goodlie riche Canopie of Cloth of Golde by Fower Barrons, frome the Tyme that it was taken out of the Charet unto the Tyme that the said Corps was brought before the Highe Alter, where was sett a goodlie curious Light of Nine Branches; under the which Light this Corps was sett, there havinge a solempne Dirige; in the which my Lo. of London was Executor Officil, and Attendant upon him the Abbott of St. Albones and the Abbott of Readinge, revestcd and mytred. This done, the Lords departed frome Powles, and went unto the Bishops Palace; the said Corps beinge watched with divers Knights and Herauds appointed thereunto. And on the Morrowe when the Lords were come unto the Herse againe, there were longe Three solempne Masses; of the which Three Masses the Deane of Powles sange the First of our Ladie, the Bifschop of Lincoln sange the Second of the Trinitie, and the Bifschop of London sange the Third of Requiem. After the which Masses done the Bifschop of Rochester made a notable Sermon; which done everie Man departed unto theire Dynner. And at theire Returne made, which was before One of the Clock, the said Corps was solempnly borne throughe the Churchc of St. Powle to the West Dore, with the foresaid Canape borne over it, goinge before it the whole Quire of Powles and also the Kyngs Chappell, whome followed the Bishop of London, being revestcd and mytred, and the said Duke and Earles followinge; where the said Corps was againe laide into the Charet, and appointed in like Manner as is aforesaid. Which done everie Man in like Order as is afore expressed, accompanied the said Corps, which was frome thence conveyed throughe Fleete Streete unto Charinge Crosse, where the Abbott of Westminster, th' Abbott of St. Albones, th' Abbott of Readinge, and th' Abbott of Winchombe, all iij^{or} Abbotts, revestcd and mytred, with the whole Convent of th' Abbey of Westminster, in Albes and Coops, received the said Corps, and there encenscd it. Which done they with Procession solempnly conveyed it unto the West Doore of the said Abbey of Westminster: Where the Archebishop of Canterbury and the Archeb. of Yorke, reuested and mytred, solempnly received the Corps, and in like Manner incensed it; which after was conveyed out of the said Charet into the Abbey, in like Manner as it was conveyed into Powles. Where was sett the most costly and curious Light possibly to be made by Mans Hand, which was of xiii principal Stonderds, richly decked with Banners, and all other Things convenient to the same. Here he had his Dirige solempnly, th' Archbishopp of Canterbury beinge Execut. Officii, upon whom was attendinge the Number of xviii Bishops and Abbotts, reuested and mytred, duringe the Tyme of the said Dirige. At the which Dirige the Bishopp of Norwiche redd the First Lesson, the Bishopp of Lincoln the Second Lesson, the Archebishop of Canterbury the Third Lesson. And after the said Dirige done, the saide Duke and Earles with the other Lords departed unto the Kings Palice; except certen Knights, which were appointed to watch the Corps, in like as they did at Powles. And on the Morrowe the said Duke and Earles, with the other Lords, beinge in the Church before Six of the Clock, there were Three Solempne Masses, songe in theire dewe Order. Of the which Masses the Abbott of Westminster fange the First of our Ladie, which was done before Seaven of the Clock, and incontinente the Bishop of Winchester fange the Second of the Trinitie, th Abbott of St. Albones beinge his Deacon, and th Abbott of Readinge beinge his Subdeacon: Which done th Archeb. of Canterbury, beinge accompanied with the Number of xviii Bishops and Abbotts, reuested and mytred, came unto the Alter, to singe the solempna Masse of Requiem. To whome was Deacon the Bishop of Lincoln, and Subdeacon the Bishop of Norwiche. And when the said Bishops and Abbotts had brought him to the Altar, they went into the Queire, and there stayerd unto the Offeringe Tyme, except the Deacon and Subdeacon, which gave theire Attendance. And at the Offeringe Tyme the said Bishop and Abbotts came againe to the Alter, and gave their dewe Attendance upon the Archeb. of Canterbury, comminge frome the Alter unto the Second Step of the said Alter, where he received the Offeringe in this Manner followinge.

First there came Twoe Herauds in their Cotearmours unto the Duke of Buckingham, beinge Chiefe Mourner, kneelinge at the West End of the Herse, goinge before him, frome the Herse unto the Place where the Archeb. stood to take the Offeringe; where he, representinge the Kyngs Person, offered a Testament of Golde: Which done the said Herauds conveyed him againe to the Place he came frome. Then the said Herauds came in like Manner unto the Earle of Arondell and unto the Earle of Northumberland, and conveyed them unto a Knight which stood before the Herse, holdinge the Kyngs Cotearmoure. Of whom the said Herauds received the said Cotearmour, and delivered it to the said Twoe Earles; which solempnly bearinge the said Cotearmour betwene them offered it up unto the said Archeb. with great Reverence; the which he received and delivered unto a Bisshop, which delivered it over unto an Heraude standinge even by them on the South Side of the Church; which done the said Herauds conveyed the Twoe Earles againe unto their owne Places. . Then the said Herauds came in likewise unto the Earle of Shrewsberie and unto the Earle of Surrey, and conveyed them unto a Knight which stood before the said Herse, holdinge the Kyngs Sheld crowned; of whome the said Herauds received the said Shilde, and delivered it unto the said Earles; which solempnly bearinge it betwene them, offered it in lyke Manner unto the Archebisshop; the which he received and delivered it to a Bisshop, by whome it was delivered unto an Heraude, there standinge on the South Syde beneath the other Herauds which helde the Cotearmour: And then the said Herauds conveyed the said Earles againe unto their Places. After this they went unto the Earle of Essex and to the Earle of Kent, and conveyed them unto a Knight holdinge a goodlie riche Sworde before the Herse, which the said Herauds received of the said Knyght and delivered unto the said Earles: And soe they holdinge the said Sworde betwene them, offered it up unto the Archebisshop in lyke Manner; which was also delivered unto another Heraude standinge in Order beneath the other Twoe Herauds which helde the Cotearmour and the Shilde. Which done the said Herauds convey'd the said Twoe Earles into their owne Places. And then the said Twoe Herauds came unto the Earle of Derby and unto the Earle of Arran, otherwise called the Scottishe Lorde, which in lyke Manner conveyed them unto a Knight holdinge the Kings Helmet crowned, to whome was made lyke Deliverie; which they offered in lyke Manner, and was delivered to another Heraude, and they conveyed unto their owne Places againe. After this there came ryding the Second Son of th Earle of Surrey, called Sir Edward Howarde, armed in complete Harnes (his Helmet except) upon a goodlie Courser, trapped in Black Velvet, with the Armes of England embrothered upon the same, which rode unto the Railes of the said Herse, where he did alight; whome the said Herauds incontinent received; whose Horse was ymediatly delivered unto a Servant of the Abbotts of Westminster. And the said Knight going be-twene the Earle of Essex and the Earle of Kent was presented unto the Archebischop: Which done, the said Knight was conveyed by Twoe Monkes of the said Abbey into the Revestrie, where he was unarmed, and the said Two Earles again conveyed into their owne Places. And after the said Knight came in a Black Gowne, and offered amonge the other Knights. This done the said Two Herauds came againe unto the Duke of Buck. goinge before him to the Archebischop, where he offered againe for himselfe. After whome the other Earles offered in their Order. Then came the Bishops and Abbotts, and offered in their Order; the Bishops goinge unto the Alter, and there makinge their Offeringe, and the Abbotts goinge unto the Archeb. kissinge his Hande, and takinge his Blessinge. After whome came the Lords and Barrons, makinge their Offeringe everie Man in Degree. And in the meane while Twoe Herauds came againe unto the said Duke of Buck. and to the Earles, and conveyed them into the Revestrie, where they did receive certen Palles, which everie of them did bringe solempnly betwene their Hands, and comminge in Order one before another, as they were in Degree, unto the said Herse, they kissed their said Palles, and delivered them unto the said Heraudes, which laide them uppon the Kyngs Corps, in this Manner: The Palle which was first offered by the Duke of Buck. was laid on length on the said Corps, and the Residue were laid acrosse, as thick as they might lie. Which Palles were offered in the Manner aforesaid, in Token of their Homage which they of Dutie ought to doe unto the Kinge. And after the said Lords and Barrons had made their Offeringe, then followed the Chapleins of Dignitie and the Grey Amezes of the Kinges Chappell, whome followed Knights and Gentlemen, everie Man in his Degree. After the which Offeringe and the said Masse ended, a Knight called Edmond Carewe came unto the Second Stepp of the Highe Alter, bearinge in his Hand the Kings great Banner, which he offered up unto the Archebischop, and Sir Edward Darrece his Standerd. Which done, the Bishop of London made a noble Sermon. And after the said Sermon ended, incontinente the Archebischopps, Bishoppes, and Abbotts went unto the Herse. At whose Coomminge the Palles and the iiii Banners of the Kings Avowries were carried away by Twoe Monks. Which done, the Picture was taken from the Herse, and borne unto St. Edwards Shrine, the Kyngs Chappell singinge this Anthem, Circum dederunt me genitus mortis. And then the said Corps was incensed, and all the Royal Ornaments taken frome the said Corps, soe that everie Man might might see the said Corps coffred in a Coffin of Bordes, which was covered over with Black Velvett, havinge a Crosse of Whyte Satten from the one End of the said Coffyn unto the other; within the which Coffyn the verie Corps of the Kynge lay enclosed in Lead. Upon the which Lead was written, in great Lettres chased, Hic jacet Rex Henricus Septimus. And soe the said Corps was laid into the Vaught with great Reverence by the noble Queen Elizabeth his Wyfe; whome incontinent all the Archebishops, Bishops, and Abbotts settinge their Crosses upon the said Corps assolled, in most solempn Manner sayinge this Collett (Absolvimus). Which done the said Archebishop did cast Earth upon the said Corps. And then my Lord Treasorer and my Lord Steward did breake their Staves, and did cast them into the Vaught; and the other Hed Officers did cast their Staves in, all whole. Which done the Vaught was closed, and a goodlie riche Pall of Clothe of Golde laide upon the saide Herse. And incontinent all the Herauds did of their Cotearmour, and did hange them upon the Rayles of the Herse; cryinge lamentably in French, The noble King Henry the Seaventh is deade. And as soone as they had so done, everie Heraud putt on his Cotearmour againe, and cryed with a loude Voyce, Vive le noble Roy Henry le VIIIth; which is to say in Englishe Tongue, God send the noble Kynge Henry the Eight longe Lyfe. Amen.

The Proceſſion of King Edward the VIth from the Tower to his Pallace at Weſtminſter, and the Solempnitie of his Coronation.

[From a Manuscript formerly belonging to William

THE FIRST SPEECH.

Hayle noble Edward our King and Sovereigne !
Hayle the chief Comfort of your Comonalty !
Hayle redolent Rose, whose Sweetnes to retayne,
Is unto us all such great Comodity,
That earthly Joy to us none more can be.
Blessed therefore be our Lord Omnipotent,
Which hath to us so noble a King sent.

Hayle comly King ! the Cause of all our Myrth !
Hayle flourishing Flower in your Royall Estate !
Whose princely Prefence our Harts doth upstart,
For that God hath made us so fortunate,
As with Grace your Highnes to illuminate,
And may he grant unto us our Hearts Request,
Which is Health to your Highnes, Peace and Rest.

THE SECOND SPEECH.

O noble Edward ! the Sixth of that Name,
Whom God hath provided for our great Comfort
To reigne in this Realme of excellent Fame,
The only Cause of Unity and Concord.
Thanks be therefore unto our heavenly Lord,
Which doth not fayle his Servants in Distresse,
As here doth appeare in your noble Highnesse.

THE SONG.

King Edward, King Edward,	King Edward the Sixth
God save King Edward,	To have the Sword,
God save King Edward,	His Subjects to defend,
And longe to continue,	His Enemies to put downe,
In Grace and Vertue,	According to Right, in every
Unto God's Pleasure,	Towne.
His Commons to reioice.	Good Lord! in Heaven to Thee
Whom we ought to honor,	we sing,
To love, and to dread,	Grant our noble King to reigne
As our most noble King	and springe,
And Sovereigne Lord,	From Age to Age, like Solomon
Next under God of England	the Sage,
And Ireland the Supream	Whom God preserve in Peace
Head,	and Warre,
Whom God hath chosen,	And safely keep him from all
By his Mercy so good,	Danger.

Then they proceeded in goodly Order to Cheapside.

First, Before the Entry of the aforesaid Conduit stood two Persons resembling Valentine and wild Urson, the one cloathed with Moss and Iye Leaves, having in his Hand a great Clubb of Yew Tree for his Weapon, the other armed as a Knight, and they pronounced their Speeches.

At the End of the same Conduit there was placed a Cocke garnished with Roses, Juli-flowers, and other Kinde of Flowers, upon the which there was a sumptuous Fountain, and upon the Top thereof a Crowne Emperiall of Gold, garnished as it stood, with rich Pearle and Stones. Under the same were certaine Springs, out of which came Plenty of Wine, Red, and Claret, descending through Pipes into the Street amongst divers Sorts of People, who, by the Space of fix Howres, with great Diligence fetched it away. Nigh unto the same Fountaine did stand foure Children very richly adorned, representing Grace, Nature, Fortune, and Charity, who, the one after the other, pronounced these Speeches following.

§ So in the Original,

GRACE.

GRACE.

*Wee Ladys all, by one Consent, sundry Ghostly Gifts, Heavenly and Divine, to the King, as now wee doe
Present unto thy Highnes.
As I Grace, first, at my Coming,
Indue thee with livly Faith and morall Cuning.*

NATURE.

And I, Nature, with Strength and Faireness, for to be loved and dreaded of every Weight.

FORTUNE.

And I Fortune, with Prosperity and Riches, to defend and give thee Right long to enjoy and hold thy true Right. In vertuous Life with Honour to proceed, that all the Sceptures thou may sway.

CHARITIE.

God give unto thee a Crowne of Glory, and the Scepter of Piety, with a Sword mighty of Victory, a Mantle of Prudence to cloath thee, a Shield of Faith to defend thee, with a Helme of Health to thine Encrease, and gird thee with a Girdle of Love and perfect Peace.

At a certain Distance from thence, as it were about the outer Parts of the Conduit, stood eight richly apparelled other like Ladyes, representing Sapience, and the seven Liberal Sciences, which declared certaine goodly Speeches.

And at the End of the said Conduit towards Cheap, there was a double Scaffold one above the other, which was hung with Cloath of Gold and Silke, besides rich Arras. There was also devised under the upper Scaffold, an Element or Heaven, with the Sunn, Starrs and Clowdes very naturally. From this Clowde there spread abroad another lesser Clotid of white Sarfennet, fringed with Silke powdered with Starrs and Beames of Gold, out of the which there descended a Phenix downe to the neither Scaffold, where settling herselfe upon a Mount, there spread forth Roses white and red, Julli-flowers and Holthorne Bowes. After that the said Phenix was there a little, there approached a Lyon of Gold crowned, making Semblance of Amyty unto the Bird, moving his Head fundry Tymes, between the which Familiarity, as it seemed, there came forth a young Lyon that had a Crowne Emperiall brought from Heaven above, as by two Angells, wich they sett upon his Head. Then the old Lyon and the Phenix vanished away, leaving the young Lyon, being crowned, alone. Then the aforeſayde Ladies ſpoke theſe Speeches followinge.

SAPIENCE.

Lo I, chief Prince, Dame Sapience, ſbew unto you Sentences of Scripture, Kings that be moſt excellent, reigne by me, and moſt Joye endure. For through my Help and buſy Care, their Glory encreaſeth, and high Renowne. Having of Wiſdome full Poſſeſſion. For by the Sentence of prudent Solomon, Mercy and Right preſerveth every King, and cleaves with Faith obſerved above Reaſon. It keepeth his Throne from all Perill of Falling, and maketh it ſtrong. So I conclude, that hereby a King is preſerved in long Proſperity. Therefore we, the Seven Sciences Liberal, do offer our Service to your Grace Potential.

I, prudent Astronamy, describe of Plannetts the Mysterie.

Therefore noble King of high Magnificence, behold yend'r Clowde of your Graces Benignity, with the Sunn, the Starrs, and the Moon descending thence. It doth signify by the Vertue of the Lyon, that you are descended lynally, through God's Provison and his Divine Power, to succeed Henry the VIII. to England's great Succour.

*For the Phenix bright,
That downe taketh her Flight
From the Clowdes above,
Is for to behold
That Lyon of Gold,
That long was her Love.*

*To have your Highnes crowned,
Her most deerly beloved,
And then to assend upright.
From whence she came above,
Unto Christ her speciall Love,
Where is no Darknes, but all Light.*

*And also for to see
Your Kingly Majesty
Prosperously to reigne,
From the Throne Celestiall,
With Diadem Imperiall
She is come thither againe.*

*The noble King your Father
Of late is fled up thither
To Joy in God allway.
As the most Christian King
That on the Earth was living.
His Ransome for to pay.*

Also there was upon the nether Scaffold a sumptuous Throne, whereupon satt a Childe apparelled with rich Cloath of Gold, with a Robe of crymson Satten, representing the King's Majesty. The which Throne was upholden with foure other Children, one representing

*Regallity having a Regall ^a in his Hand,
Justice having a Sword,
Truth having a Book, and Mercy having a little Curtane,*

*Who speak these Speeches or Words

Towards the Cheap, beside the Throne, was represented the Golden Fleece kept by two Bulles and a Serpent, casting out of their Mouthes flaming Fire, according to the Story of Jafon. Also there were six Chldren richly apparelled, which plaide upon the Regalles, and sang, with great Melody, divers goodly Songes.

Then they proceeded in goodly Order to the Standard in Cheap, which was hanged richly round about with Cloath of Tyshew and Arras. Upon the upper Part were Trumpetts blowing melodiously, where should have been pronounced fundry Speeches. They then proceeded to the Crosse in Cheap, which was very well painted and gilded.

A little beyond the Crosse, the Maior of London, with his Brethren the Aldermen, attendant upon the King's Highnes in their seemely Apparell, received his Grace with a Proposition pronounced by Mr. Masbroke, Recorder, and Mr. Chamberlayn of London. And there they presented his Highnes with a Purse, having a thousand Markes of Gold in it, the which his Grace received, and gave them Thanks. And then he proceeded to the Little Conduit in Cheap.

The same was hanged with Cloath of Arras garnished with the Target of Seint George, the King's Armes, six great Streamers, twenty small Banners, and twenty-four Targets. At the Topp of the said Conduit in a Tower stood the Waytes playing. Where there was an old Man setting in a Chaire apparelled with a Gowne of Cloath of Gold, and a Crowne Emperiall upon his Head, who had in his right Hand a Scepter of Gold, and in his left a Ball with a Crosse, representing the State of King Edward the Confessor.

Confessor. Before him there lay a Lyon of Gold, which moved his Head by Vices. At the Foote of the same Conduit there was sett a Stage, whereupon was Seint George on Horsebacke in compleat Harnes, with his Page in Harnes also, holding his Speare and Shield, and a faire Maiden holding a Lamb in a String. Nigh unto whom also there was a Child appointed in rich Apparell, to have pronounced an Oration in Latyne, and Seint George should have made a Speech in English as hereafter followeth, SEINT GEORGE.

Most Royall King of England, Edward the Sixtb. It is thy Lott at this Time, of Duty to be crowned, by the Ordinance of God long before prefixed that thou wast gotten and borne in this World. Wherefore you Men of England, to God are greatly bound, to praise, honour, lawde, and werchip him above all, that hath given unto you such a noble and puissant King.

I am George of England, under God the true Guide to ancient Kings of the same, most loveing and kind,

As it is manifestly knowne to all and every.

For to accomplish their Honours I ever inclined;

And now good King it is my faithfull Minde

Thee to honour and magnifye now as thou shalt understand,

Under God thee to defend ever ready at thy Hand,

Goe now good King to be crowned with Honour and Joye,

As thy foresaid Ancestors have been in like Manner.

If thy Enemies would thee at any Time hurt or annoye,

I shall in the Field for thy Defence set forth my Banner.

And deliver thee from Hurt, Damage, or any Danger

Against thy Foes which shall stirre Debate or Striffe.

And thus fairewell good King Edward, God send thee longe Life.

This Speech in English, with the other in Latine, should have been pronounced, but for Lacke of Time it could not be done, his Grace made such Speed. Howbeit there was a Song, the Ditty whereof was thus.

*Sing up Heart, sing up Heart, sing no more down,
But Joy in King Edward that weareth the Crowne.*

A BALLET OF THE KINGS MAJESTY.

*King Edward up springeth from Puerilitie,
And towards us bringeth Joy and Tranquillity;
Our Hearts may be light, and merry oure Cheere,
He shall be of such Might that all the World may him feare.
Sing up Heart, &c.*

*His Father, late our Sovereigne, each Day and also Houre,
That in Joy he might reigne, like a Prince in high Power,
By Sea and Land, hath provided for him eke,
That never King of England had ever the like.
Sing up Heart, &c.*

*Hee hath gotten already Bullen that goodly Towne,
And biddeth sing speedily up and downe,
When he waxeth Weight, and to Manhood doth spring,
He shall be without Fail of foure Realmes the King.
Sing up Heart, &c.*

*Yee Children of England, for the Honor of the same,
Take Bow and Shaft in Hand; learn Shewtage to frame,
That you another Day may so do your Parts,
As to serve your King as well with Hands as with Hearts.
Sing up Heart, &c.*

*Yee Children that are towards, sing up and downe,
And never play the Cowards to him that weareth the Crown,
But alway bee you sure his Pleasure to fulfill,
Then shall you keep right sure, the Honour of England still.
Sing up Heart, &c.*

When the King came almost to St. Georges Church in Powles Churchyard, there was a Rope as great as a Cable of a Ship, stretched in length from the Battlements of Powles Steple, and with a great Anker at one End, fastened a little before Mr. Dean of Powles House Gate. And when his Majesty approached neere the same, there came a Man, a Stranger, being a Native of Arragon, lying on the same Rope, his Head forward, casting his Armes and his Leggs abroad, running on his Breast on the said Rope from the said Battlements to the Ground, as it had been an Arrow out of a Bow, and stayed on the Ground. Then he came to the Kings Majesty, and kyst his Foot, and so after certaine Words to his Highnes, departed from him again, and went upwards upon the

he said Rope till he was come over the Midst of the said Churchyard, where he having a Rope about him, played certaine Misteryes on the said Rope, as tumbling and casting one Legg from another. Then tooke he the said Rope, and tyed it to the Cabell, and tyed himselfe by the Right Legg a little beneath the Wrist of the Foot, and hung by the one Legg a certaine Space, and after recovered himselfe up again with the said Rope, and unknet the Knot, and came downe again, which staid the King's Majesty with all the Trayne a good Space of Time.

The Procession then proceeded in goodly Order to the Great Conduit in Fleetstreet, which was hanged about with Arras, and divers Streamers spread thereon. Upon the said Conduit was also made a Stage, whereon sat a Childe in very rich Apparell, which represented Truth, and was accompanied with Two other Children before him in Red, representing Faith and Justice, whose Names were before them written in their Places. As the Kings Grace passed by, Truth saluted him with these Words following.

T R U T H.

*I ancient Truth, which long Time was suppressed
With Heathen Rites and detestable Idolatrye,
Have in thy Realme been in great Part refreshed
By God's Servant my Defender King Henry ;
Who moe then once tendering God's Glory,
Hath made me free, whom Abuses kept bound,
And hath therefore God's Mercy allways found.*

*Wherefore if you will me likewise embrace,
As did your Father, most loving King Edward ;
Then shall the God of Truth give you his Grace
To bring your Devices luckely forward.
Then shall England, committed to your Grace,
Rejoyce in God, which hath given her Nation,

As soone as the Kings Grace was past, there were let runn Two Hoghsheads of Wine to the People, take who would.

The Company then proceeded in goodly Order to Temple Barr. The Gate was paynted, and fashioned with Battlements and Buttresses of divers Colours, richly hanged with Cloth of Arras, garnished with Fourteen Standards of Flaggs, with Eight French Trumpetters, blowing their Trumpetts after the Fashion of their Country. Besides them wer a Paire of Regalls and Children singing to the same. The Company then proceeded in goodly Order untill they came to Westminster, to his Graces Pallace, whereat all the Noblemen lighted, and stood in Order as they had conducted his Highness. And at the Hall Doore he tooke his Leave of the Ambassadors, giving them Thanks for their Paynes; and so proceeded in goodly Order unto his Chamber, where all Things were prepared for him according as apperteyned to his Estate and Highness. Then Commaundement was given to all Noblemen, to be at Westminster the next Day by Seven of the Clocke in the Morninge, in their best Array, to give their Attendaunce upon the Coronation.

Preparations made ready against the same Coronation.

First. The great Hall of Westminster was newly paynted and glased, well strowed with Rushes and hung about with very rich Cloath of Arras; and at the upper End of the same above the Staires was well encarpited. The said Staires with the Railes and Barriers were covered with Red Sae, and over the Kings Majesty's was a very rich Cloath of Estate.

Secondly. Upon the Right Hand of the said Hall was a Cubbard, of the Height of the Rankes, garnished with Plate of Gold, Silver, and precious Stones, as richly as might be devised: And every Officer was placed in his Place there accordingly.

Sunday the 20th Day of February, being Shrouf Sunday, was the Day of the King's Coronation, Anno Domini 1546.

The Kings Royall Majesty, being accompanied with my Lord Protector, and certaine other of his Councell and Privy Chamber, with two Barges full of Noblemen, about Nyne of the Clocke in the Morninge, landed at the Privy Staires; where were the Pentioners, apparelled all in Red Damaske, with their Pole Axes in their Hands, and the Guard in their rich Coates, likewise with their Holbards, standing on either Side by all the Way where his Grace should passe. His Highness, with all the Nobility proceeding before him, was conducted through the Whitehall unto the Chamber of the Court of th Augmentation, which was richly hung with Cloath of Arras and Cloath of Estate. There the Kings Royal Majesty put on his Apparell, viz. A Robe of Crimson Velvet with a long Trayne, furred with powdered Ermynes throughout. A Surcoat of the same, furred with Mynever pure, the Coller, Skirts, and Sleevehands garnished with Ribbons of Gold, with Two Taberds, Foure Fingers broad, with a Hood, likewise powdred, which were called his Parliament Robes, wearing on his Head a Capp of Blue Velvett. Then all the Nobility, as Dukes, Marquises, Earles, and Barons put on their Robes of Estate, and came unto the Kings Majesty's outward Chamber, and tooke Order for the Proceeding into the Hall. The Ambassadors, accompanied with divers Noblemen, going before his Highness, as here en-sueth.

First, The Ground from the Kings Seat Royall in Westminster Hall, unto the Mounte whereon was the Throne in Westminster Church, was spread with Raye Cloath by the King's Amner; which Cloath was brought from the King's Great Wardrobe.

And the great Pallace was all alonge rayled on either Side the Way from Westminster Hall unto the said Pallace Gate.

Noblemen's Servants, after the Degrees and States of their Lords, following the Trayne, in goodly Order to the Cathedral Church of Westminster.

At the Cathedrall Church in Westminster, before rehearsed, Preparacions were made in this Manner.

Imprimis, The Quier was very richly hung with Cloath of Arras, and well strowed with Rushes, and the Places between the High Alter and the Chaire also.

Then was there made and ordeyned a Mounting Scaffold, with Staires up to the same and downe to the Alter, on the which there was a Throne of Seaven Staires, whereof Foure of the upermost were covered with fine Bawdkin, and the other Staires covered with Blanketts.

Upon the Middest of the Throne there was sett a great White Chaire, covered with Bawdkin Damaske and Gold, with Two Quoshons. Whereof One was Blacke Velvett embroidered broidered with Gold very richly, and the other of Cloath of Tishew. The said Chaire had Two Pillers, at the Backe whereof there stood Two Lyons of Gold, and in the Middest a Turret with a Flower de Luce of Gold. The said Place was guarded with Foure Gentlemen Ushers, Dayly Wayters, viz.

William Rantford	} {	Richard Greenaway
John Norrys		Richard Blunt.

Besides divers other Gentlemen Ushers to assist them.

Thus the Kings Majesty between Ten and Eleven o'Clock was conducted to his Throne to King Edward's Chair, as aforesaid, wherein after his Grace had reposed a little Time, he was removed by his said Lords into another Chair, garnished with Cloath of Tishew, wherein he sitting, the Foure Gentlemen Ushers carried his Grace unto the Four Parts of the Mount, that he might be seen of the People. The Archbishop of Canterbury standing besides the King, did declare unto the People in all the aforesaid Parts the Kings Majesty free Election, with these Words following.

Sirs, here I present King Edward rightfull and undoubted Inheritor by the Lawes of God and Man to the Crown and Royal Dignity of this Realme, whereupon yee shall understand that this Day is prefixed and appointed by all the Peers of this Realme for his Consecration, Enunction, and Coronation. Will you serve at this Time, and give your good Wills and Assent to the same Consecration, Enunction, and Coronation? Whereunto the People answered all in One Voice, Yea, yea, yea, God save King Edward. Then his Grace was brought unto the said Throne again, and immediately was conveyed in the said Chaire by the Gentlemen Ushers, before the High Alter, upon the which his Grace offered up his Pall of Bawdkyn and Twenty Shillings. Verifying the Words of Scripture, wherein it is written, Thou shalt not appeare voide before the Lord God. A little after he returned to his Chaire, the Quoshion of Velvet was laid before the Alter, upon the which his Grace laid prostrate whilest certaine Orisons were said over him.

The Archbishop of Canterbury then declared certaine Oathes unto him to be by him kept: The which Oathes he, being led unto the High Alter, upon the Sacrament which was laid on the said Alter, in the Sight of the People, solemnly swore to observe and keepe.

Then the Archbishop kneeling and the King lying groveling before the said Alter, the Archbishop began Veni Creator Spiritus, saying certaine other Orisons over him. Then the Quier and the Organs sung and plaid the same.

That

That done Two Bishops began the Letany.

After which, and certaine Orisons ended, the King did rise, and was sett in his Chaire, and after he had somewhat rested himselfe, he went again unto the High Alter, and being on the Left Hand thereof, he was there unaraied and unclothed by his Great Chamberlaine.

His Highnes was then apparelled in a Coate of Crimfon Satten, open and buttoned before and behind, on the Shoulders and the Elbowes, with a Coyfe of Gold on his Head.

During the Space of his said apparelling, the Earle of Southampton Lord Chamberlaine in Three Parts of the aforefaid Mount declared unto the People a goodly, large, and ample Pardon for all Manner of Offences, except certaine Persons and Conditions contained in the same, not worthy to be pardoned. Which done and ended the King was brought againe to his said Chaire, and laid downe on the Quoshions aforefaid before the Alter, and there having a Pall holden over him by Sir Anthony Denney and Sir William Herbert, he was annoynted by the aforefaid Archbishop with Holy Oyle, saying unto him certaine Words with divers Orisons as therunto apperteyned.

After the Kings Enonction the said Archbishop dried every Place of the same with Cotton and Lynnen Cloath, and laced againe the Kings Coate and Shurt, putting on the Kings Hands a Paire of Lynnen Gloves and on his Head a Lynnen Coyfe, delivered him by the Lord Great Chamberlane.

His Majesty was conveyed againe into his Travers and cloathed with rich Robes, and brought againe unto the Alter, whereat he offered up his Sword that he was girt withall, which afterwards was redeemed againe for an hundred Shillings.

The Kings Ornaments and Regalles were then hallowed.

The Kings Majesty satt downe againe in his Chaire before the High Alter, and the Archbishop of Canterbury and my Lord Protector, with great Reverence, brought him Three Crownes, viz. One King Edwards Crowne, the other the Emperiall Crowne of this Realme of England, the Third a very rich Crowne which was purposely made for his Grace.

These Crownes were sett upon the Kings Head one after another, and between the putting on of every Crowne the Trumpetts blew.

Immediately after the Quier with the Organs did sing Te Deum, and in the mean Season the same was singing, there was a Ring of Gold sett upon the Kings Grace's marrying Finger.

Sir Anthony Auger, Master of the Jewell House, then brought the King's Bracelets of Gold and precious Stones.

Divers other Things were also given unto his Grace, as the Earle of Shrewsbury delivered unto the King his Scepter.

The Archbishop of Canterbury delivered unto the King St. Edwards Staffe.

The Earle of Rutland the Spurres.

The Duke of Suffolke the Ball of Gold.

The Earle of Oxford the Regall of Gold.

The King, thus sitting in the Chaire apparelled in his Royal Robes, having his Crowne Emperiall on his Head, his Scepter in his Right Hand, and the Ball in his Left Hand, was againe conveyed to his Throne and into St. Edwards Chaire.

Then the Lord Protector made his Homage thus :

I. N. become your Leigeman of Truth, Life, and Lymme, and of earthly Worship, and Faith and Truth, I shall beare unto you against all Manner of Folks, as I am bound by my Allegiance, and by the Laws and Statutes of this Realme.

So God help me and all Hallowes.

The Archbishop then kneeled down, and he made his Homage, viz.

I. A. shall be faithfull and true, and Truth and Faith beare unto you our Sovereigne Lord, and to your Heires Kings of England, and I shall doe and truly acknowledge the Service of the Lands which I claime to hold of you as in the Right of your Church, as God shall help and all Saints.

And then they kyssed the King's Cheeke.

The Nobility of the Realme as well of Spirituall as of Temporall followed, and kneeled downe, and every of them kyssed the Kings Left Cheeke.

Because that Time would not serve for every of them to declare their Homage particularly, they kneeled down all together, and my Lord Protector declared their Homage in general unto his Majesty, and they held up their Hands and assented unto the same. And with a loud Voyce cried altogether, God save King Edward.

The Earle of Shrewsbury all this Time assisted the King to hold the Scepter.

This done the Office of the Masse was began by the Archbishop of Canterbury. And at the Time of the Gospell the Bishop of Winchester brought the Booke to the King's Majesty, who kissed it.

At the Time of the Offering the King was brought downe and made his Offering, viz. An Oble of Bread laid upon the Patten of St. Edwards Challys, a Cruet of Wyne, and a Pound Pound of Gold, and bowing his Head the Archbishop said a Prayer over him.

His Majesty was then againe conducted to his said Siege Royall, and there satt till Agnus Dei.

Then the Pax was brought to his Highnes, who kyssed it.

After which the Kings Majesty was conducted downe to the said Alter, and the Archbishop of Canterbury tooke off the Crowne from his Head and sett it on the said Alter.

Then his Highnes was conveyed unto the Travers afore-said, and there the Great Chamberlane received of him all his Regalles, and delivered them to the Dean of Westminster to be laid upon the said high Alter.

His Majesty was then uncladd of his Apparell, and had given unto him by the Lord Great Chamberlane, assisted as before, other Royall Apparell, as a Surcote of Purple Velvet furred with Ermyns, &c. a rich Crowne was also sett upon his Head, and a goodly Canope was borne over him by the Barons of the Cinque Ports.

And soe was his Highnes conveyed in goodly Order with all his Trayne, in like Manner to his Coming, in all Things, saving the Procession, unto Westminster Hall to Dynner; where he went to the Place appointed for his Highnes in the Augmentation Court, and there rested himself until the Hall was placed, and his Royall Service was come in. The Order whereof was in this Manner.

The Order of the First Course.

First, Came in riding upon two goodly Courfers the Marquis of Dorset, as Constable of England for that Time, with his Staffe of Silver, and with him the Earle of Arundell supplying the Place of Earl Marshall, and having in his Hand the Marshalls Rodde. Both of them were clad and apparelled with Garments of rich Cloath of Gold, and their Horses were trapped to the Foote of the same.

The Earle of Suffex, Sewer.

The Marquis of Northampton directed the said Service, and gave the Affaie.

Then after the said Service was brought in for the King's Majesties Board only. The Earle of Oxford and the Earle of Huntingdon brought Water for the King's Highnes, and the Earle of Huntingdon tooke the Affaie as Ewer. The Earle of Rutland bore the Towell, and there went before the Bafons of Water, divers Serjeants at Armes with their Maces.

The Kings Majesty then washed.

That

That done, the Duke of Somerset and the Archbishop of Canterbury washed.

Afterwards the King went to his Seat Royall under the Cloath of Estate to Dynner, the Earle of Shrewsbury standing by his Grace as Assistant on the right Hand, and the Bishop of Duresme on the left.

On the right Hand of the same Table sat the Duke of Somerset Lord Protector, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the three Swords were holden before his Majesty all Dinner Tyme.

The first Cupp which the King's Majesty drank of, was brought him by Sir Giles Alington, which he had for his Fee, he holding the Lands of Argentine by that Service.

At the Table in the Middest of the Hall were placed the Ambassadors, Bishoppes, Knights, Justices, and Elquires.

At the Table in the Hall were placed the Barons of the Cinque Ports, Chancellors, and Clerkes of the Chancery.

At the Table on the left Hand of the said Hall were placed the Maior of London, with his Brethren the Aldermen; and other notable Persons, Commoners, and others.

In convenient Time came the Second Course in like Manner.

At the End of the same Service there came in Riding in compleate Harneyes, armed at all Peeces with the Kings Harnys, Sir Dymoke upon a Courser richly trapped with Cloath of Gold, holding in his Hande a Mace, and on either Side of him a Page, one holding his Spear, and the other his Target, then Yorke went before him, and brought him to the uper End of the Hall.

After he had made Obeysance to the Kings Highness in bowing his Head, he turned him a little aside, and with a loud Voice declared these Words following.

If there be any Manner of Man, of what Estate, Degree, or Condition however he be, that will say and maintaine, that our Sovereigne Lord Edward the Sixth, this Day here present, is not the rightfull and undoubtfull Heire to the Empercal Crown of this Realme of England, and that of Right he ought not to be crowred King, I say he lyeth like a false Traytor, and that I am ready the same to maintaine with him whilst the Breath is in my Body, either now as at this Time, or any Time hereafter, whensoever it shall please the Kings Highness to appoint; and hereupon I cast my Gage.

He then cast his Gantlet from him, which no Man would take up.

TOM. III.

T :

After

After the which, Yorke took it up, and gave it him againe. He then proceeded to another Place, and did on this Manner in three severall Places of the said Hall. Then he came up to the uper Part of the said Hall, and the Kings Majesty dranke to him, and sent him the Cupp, which Cupp he had for his Fee, and likewise the Horse and Trapper, with all the Harneys which he did weare. He then returned to the Place from whence he came. After he was gone came in Garter, with the rest of the Officers of Armes, and made three severall Obeysances, and at the uper End before the Kings Majesty, with a loud Voyce proclaymed his Stile in Manner following.

De serenissimo, potentissimo, et invictissimo Principe ac victoriosissimo Rege Edwardo Sexto, Dei Gratia, Anglia, Francia, et Hibernia Rege, Fidei Defensore, et in terra sub Christo Ecclesie Anglicanae et Hibernica capite, ac supremo Domino nobilissimi et strenuissimi Ordinis Guarterii.

De tres haalt, tres puissant, et tres excellent Prince, et le tres Chretien Roi Edward le Sixieme, par la Grace de Dieu, Roy de France, d'Angleterre, et d'Irland, Defendor de la Foy, et en la terre soubz Dieu, de l'Eglise d'Angleterre et d'Irland supreme Chefe, et Sovereigne de la tres noble Order de Jarritiere.

Of the most high, most puissant, most excellent Prince and victorious King Edward, by the Grace of God, King of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, and in Earth of the Church of England supreme Head, and Sovereigne of the most noble Order of the Garter.

LARGESS, LARGESS, LARGESS.

Then they returning with Reverence, did so in like Manner in two other Places of the said Hall, viz. in the Middlest, and at the nether End. And then they returned to Dynner to the Stage prepared for them at the upper End of the Hall.

When the Kings Majesty had dyned, Wafers and Hipocras were brought to the Kings Highness. And the Table was taken up, and the Surnape drawn.

Then Water was brought to the Kings Highness.

After his Grace had washed, then washed the Duke of Somersfett, Lord Protector, and the Archbishop of Canterbury.

When the Surnape was withdrawn, the Kings Majesty arose, and stood in the Middlest of the Traverse, with the Duke of Somersfett, Lord Protector, and all the Nobility in Order about him, according to their Estates and Degrees.

There

ere was then brought unto his Highness a goodly e of Sweetmeats and Confections.

ie Maior of London brought a standing Cupp of Gold ie Kings Majesty, and after that he had drunke, his ness gave him the said Cupp.

at being done, it was ordeyned that there should be a certain Nûmber of Knights, instead of the Bath, ise the Time was so short, that they could not be made e Bathe, according to the Ceremonies thereunto ap-yning.

was also at the same Time ordeyned by the Kings Royal sty, with the Advice of his most noble Councell, that should be made by his Highnes being crowned in State, e Bathe as aforesaid, and so Sir William Paget, Secredid reade their Names, and they were called by Garter ipal King at Armes to receive the same, as hereafter veth.

d because they were nominated of the Bathe, and made so great Royalty, they were commanded to pay the Dutyes of Monys every of them after their Degrees and Estates, double the same of those of other Knights.

After the Kings Majesty had made all these Knights as aforesaid, his Highness withdrew him to the Chamber of the Court of Augmentations before rehearsed, where he shifted himself.

All the Nobility likewise shifted them out of their Robes, and came in goodly Order through the Hall, and in the Palace tooke their Horse, and so rid in Order, divers Noblemen before the Kings Majesty, and some behinde, according to their Estates and Degrees, and thus conveyed his Highness to his Royall Pallace of Westminster, where there was such most great Feasting and Royall Cheere, as apperteyned thereunto.

Thus ended the Royall Ceremony, on the Sunday the Day of the Kings Coronation, in great Royalty, with great Joy and Comfort to all his Nobility, and his loving Subjects in generall.

On the Morrow, being Munday the 21st Day of February, there were holden Royall Justes by the six Challengers here under written against all Comers.

At One of the Clock in the Afternoone began the said Justes, and the Kings Royall Majesty, with my Lord Protector, and other Noblemen, were present in his Highnes's Gallary to see the same, which was right nobly done as hereafter followeth.

The foresaid Challengers came against every one of these Defenders, Six Corfes. And as many as would of the said Defenders had two Courfes every one of them besides, for their Ladyes Sake. And so they parted fourth that Day with great Vallantnes, and so nobly behaved themselves on either Party, that Thankes be to God, there was neither of them nor of their Horfes hurt. And they brake many Speares so readily, that it was to their great Honour. And they had the Praises of all the People there assembled, as they were well worthy of.

At Night they returned in goodly Order as they came to my Lord Admiral's House, where they had a goodly Supper prepared for them, with great Feasts and Knowledge.

Et quod hospitalis illa sit, & erit, & esse possit, de uno paupere viro custode, & duodecim alijs viris pauperibus, secundum formam & effectum harum nostrarum litterarum patencium eligend: & nominand. Et quod de cetero imperpetuum sit, & erit, unus custos dictæ hospitalis sanctæ & individue Trinitatis in Cloune ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitum Northampton, ac terrarum, tenementorum, reddituum, reventionum, & hereditamentorum, bonorum & catallorum ejusdem hospitalis, qui erit & vocabitur, Custos Hospitalis Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitum Northampton. Quodque de cetero, perpetuis futuris temporibus, sint & erunt in eadem hospitali duodecim pauperes & egeni viri provecta ætatis ibidem sustentand: manutened: & relevand: per prædictum Henricum comitem Northampton hæredes & assignatos suos, qui scilicet vocabuntur, Pauperes Hospitalis Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitum Northampton. Et ad munus & officium custodis dictæ hospitalis bene & fideliter exercend: & exequend. NOS, ex electione, nominatione, & appunctuatione dicti comitis Northampton, & ad humilem petitionem ejusdem comitis, elegimus, nominavimus, assignavimus, & constituimus, ac per presentes eligimus, nominamus, assignamus, & constituimus dilectum nobis Hugonem Evans clericum, fore, & esse primum & modernum custodem dictæ hospitalis, & terrarum, tenementorum, reddituum, possessionum, reventionum, bonorum, & catallorum, ejusdem hospitalis, in eodem officio continuatur. Et mansur: durante vita sua naturali, nisi interim per prædictum comitem pro quacunque causa quæ sibi videbitur expedire, vel per hæredes, vel assignatos dicti comitis, post mortem dicti comitis, pro aliquo vel aliquibus tali vel talibus delicto, vel delictis, defalto, vel defaliis, causa, vel causis per eundem custodem perpetrandum, fiendum, vel omittendum, pro quo, qua, vel quibus, per constitutiones sive ordinationes dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: vel eorum aliquam, vel aliquas, amoveri vel removeri debeat, amovebitur, vel removebitur. Et ulterius nos ex electione, nominatione, & appunctuatione dicti comitis, elegimus, nominavimus, minavimus, assignavimus, & constituimus, ac per presentes elegimus, nominamus, assignamus, & constituimus, dilectos nobis Radulphum Pendlebury, Johannem Jones, Willmum Lloyd, Ricardum Langford, Willmum Chapman, Robertum Norgrove, Johannem ap Howell, Edmundum Munford, Thomam Rickas, Johannem ap John, Ricardum Ambler, & Ricardum Laurence, fore, & esse primos & modernos duodecim pauperes ejusdem hospitalis, ibidem remanfur: sustinend: & relevand: duran: vitis suis naturalibus, secundum constitutiones & ordinationes dicti comitis, in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: nisi ipsi vel eorum aliqui vel aliquis, per prædictum comitem pro quacunque causa quæ sibi videbitur expedire, vel per hæredes, vel assignatos prædicti comitis, post mortem dicti comitis, pro aliquo vel aliquibus tali vel talibus delicto, vel defaulto, delictis, vel defaultis, causa vel causis per ipsos respective perpetrand: fiend: vel omittend: pro qua vel quibus per constitutiones sive ordinationes dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: vel eorum aliquem vel aliquos respective amoveri vel removeri debeant, vel debeat, amovebuntur, vel removebuntur, vel eorum aliquis amovebitur vel removebitur. Volumus tamen & concedimus per presentes, quod si aliquis unus vel aliqui plures prædictarum personarum superius per presentes nominat: fore custodem vel pauperem dictæ hospitalis defunctus, vel defuncti fuerint tempore confectionis harum litterarum nostrarum patentium. Quod tunc in illo casu, prædictus comes eliget, nominabit, & perficiet unum alium, vel plures alios, in locum sive locos hujusmodi personæ vel personarum sic defunct: vel defunctorum prout casus acciderit, & ipse vel ipsi sic electus, nominatus, & prefectus, erit, & remanebit custos, & unus vel plures pauperum dictæ hospitalis, prout casus acciderit, secundum constitutiones & ordinationes predictas in tam amplis modo & forma, & non aliter, ac si in hijs litteris nostris patentibus electus, nominatus, & prefectus fuisset, vel electi, nominati, & prefecti fuissent. Et ut hec pia & charitativa intentio dicti comitis Northampton meliorem capiet effectum, ac ut terræ tementa, bona, catalla, & hereditamenta, ad manutentionem hospitalis predictæ, ac predicti custodis, & pauperum in eadem hospitali de tempore in tempus relevand: & sustentand: melius dari, concedi, perquiri, & possideri possit, volumus, ac pro nobis heredibus & successoribus nostris, de consimilibus gratia nostra spetiali certa scientia & mero motu nostris, concedimus, ordinamus, & constituimus, quod idem custos & pauperes hospitalis predictæ, & successores sui sint, & erint, de ceteris imperpetuum, unum corpus corporatum, & politicum, de se, in re, facto, & nomine, per nomen CUSTODIS & PAUPERUM

PAUPERUM HOSPITALIS SANCTE & INDIVIDUE TRINITATIS IN CLOUNE, EX FUNDATIONE HENRICI HOWARD COMITIS NORTHAMPTON. Et ipsos custodes & pauperes & successores suos, per nomen custodis & pauperum Hospitalis Sancte & Individue Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitibus Northampton incorporamus, & unum corpus corporatum, & politicum, per idem nomen imperpetuum duraturum, realiter, & ad plenum, pro nobis heredibus & successoribus nostris erigimus, facimus, creamus, ordinamus, constituimus, & stabilimus firmiter per presentes. Quodque per idem nomen custodis & pauperum Hospitalis Sancte & Individue Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitibus Northampton, perpetuis futuris temporibus, vocabuntur, appellabuntur, & nominabuntur. Et quod per idem nomen habeant successionem perpetuam. Et quod ipsi per nomen custodis & pauperum Hospitalis Sancte & Individue Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard Comitibus Northampton, sint, & erint perpetuis futuris temporibus, personæ habiles, & in lege capaces ad perquirendum, recipiendum, habendum, & possidendum, tam maneria, terras, tenementa, prata, pascuas, pasturas, redditus, reversiones, remaner: & alia hereditamenta sibi & successoribus suis imperpetuum, tam de nobis heredibus & successoribus nostris, quam de prefato comite heredibus & assignatis suis, seu de aliqua alia persona quacunque, seu de aliquibus alijs personis quibuscunque, quin etiam bona, & catalla, ad sustentationem, manutentionem, et relevamen hospitalis predictæ, ac predicti custodis & pauperum ibidem detempore in tempus degentium, & sustentand.

Volumus etiam ac per presentes, pro nobis heredibus & successoribus nostris, concedimus predictis custodi & pauperibus Hospitalis Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici comitis Northampton, quod ipsi & successores sui imperpetuum, habeant commune sigillum pro causis & negotiis suis, concernentibus hospitalem predictam de tempore in tempus, deserviturum & quod bene liceat & licebit eisdem custodi & pauperibus & successoribus suis, sigillum illud, ad libitum suum, de tempore in tempus frangere, mutare, & de novo facere, prout eis melius fieri & fore videbitur. Et quod predictus custos & pauperes & successores sui, per nomen custodis & pauperum Hospitalis Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis in Cloune, ex fundatione Henrici Howard comitis Northampton, implacitare & imp'acitari, prosequi, defendere & defendi, respondere & responderi possint, & valeant, in quibuscunque & singulis causis, querelis, sectis, & actionibus quibuscunque cujuscunque naturæ, seu

generis fueint, in quibuscunque curiis, locis, & placeis nostris, heredum & successorum nostrorum, ac in curiis, locis, & placeis aliorum quorumcunque, ac coram quibuscunque iudicibus, justiciariis, & commissionariis nostris, heredum & successorum nostrorum, & aliorum quorumcunque, infra hoc Regnum Angliæ, & alibi, & ad ea omnia & singula alia quęcunque facien', agend' & exequend' per nomen predictum, in tam amplis modo & forma, prout aliæ personæ ligei nostri, persone habiles & in lege capaces, infra regnum nostrum Angliæ faciunt & facere valeant, aut possint, in curiis locis & placeis predictis, & coram iudicibus, justiciariis, & commissionariis predictis. Volumus etiam, ac de uberiore gratia nostra speciali, ac ex certa scientia & mero motu nostris, pro nobis heredibus & successoribus nostris concedimus, & ordinamus, quod quandocunque contigerit custodem hospitalis predictæ, pro tempore existente, aut aliquem vel aliquos duodecim pauperum hospitalis predictæ pro tempore existente, ab hac vita decedere, vel ab officio vel loco suo vel officiis & locis suis amoveri vel discedere; quod tunc, & toties, bene liceat & licebit predicto Henrico comiti Northampton & heredibus & assignatis suis, existentibus domino vel dominis dicti dominiij sive manerij de Cloune predicto, infra sex menses proximas post mortem, amotionem, sive decessum hujusmodi custodis, vel pauperum, sic decedend: vel amot: decedentium vel amotorum, unam idoneam & sufficientem personam, in locum & officium hujusmodi custodis sic amot: sive decedend: & unum vel plures prout casus acciderit, in locum vel locos hujusmodi pauperis vel pauperum sic decedend: vel amoti vel decedentium vel amotorum contingen: eligere & preficere. Que quidem persona sic electa & prefecta in officio custodis hospitalis predictæ, in loco & officio suo, continuabit durante vita sua naturali, nisi ipse per predictum comitem pro quacunque causa que sibi videbitur expedire, vel per predict: heredes vel assignatos dicti comitis, post mortem dicti comitis, pro aliquo vel aliquibus tali vel talibus delicto vel delictis, default vel defaultis, per ipsum custodem perpetrandis, committendis vel fiendis pro quo vel quibus per constitutiones sive ordinationes dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: vel eorum aliquam vel aliquas amoveri vel removeri debeat, amovebitur, vel removebitur. Et hujusmodi persona vel personæ sic elect: & prefect: in loco pauperis vel pauperum ibidem vel tunc nuper decedend: vel amot: existent: decedentium vel amotorum, existentium respective, continuabit: & continuabunt, in loco vel locis pauperis vel pauperum hospitalis predictæ; durante vita naturali hujusmodi personæ vel personarum sic elect: & prefect: respective, nisi ipse vel ipsi ipsi per predictum comitem pro quacunque causa que sibi videbitur expedire, vel per heredes vel assignatos dicti comitis, post mortem dicti comitis, pro aliquo vel aliquibus tali vel talibus delicto vel delictis, defalto vel defaultis, causa vel causis, per ipsos respective perpetrand: omittend: vel fiend: pro qua vel quibus per constitutiones vel ordinationes dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: vel eorum aliquam vel aliquas amoveri vel removeri debeant vel eorum aliquis amoveri seu removeri debeat, amovebuntur vel removebuntur vel eorum aliquis amovebitur vel removebitur. Et hoc toties quoties casus sic acciderit vel requisierit, tam de modernis custode & pauperibus, quam de custodibus & pauperibus ibidem futuris temporibus existere contingen. Et si predictus comes heredes & assignati sui predicti infra predictas sex menses proximas post mortem sive intentionem hujusmodi custodis vel pauperis sic decedend: vel amot: noti elegerit vel prefecerit, vel non eligerint, vel prefecerint unam idoneam & sufficientem personam in locum & officium hujusmodi custodis sic amot: sive decedend: & alium vel alios honestos impotentes & pauperes viros in loco vel locis hujusmodi pauperis sic decedend: vel amot: secundum ordines & constitutiones dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: quod tunc & toties, illa vice tantummodo, bene liceat & licebit justiciariis ad assisas in dicto comitatu Salop: capiend: assignat: pro tempore existentibus, unam idoneam & sufficientem personam in locum & officium hujusmodi custodis sic amot: sive decedend: & unum vel plures pauperes viros in locum vel locos hujusmodi pauperis vel pauperum sic decedend: vel amot: secundum ordines & constitutiones dicti comitis in ea parte fiend: & ordinand: eligere & preficere. Que quidem persona sic electa in loco & officio hujusmodi custodis, in loco & officio suo continuabit, durante vita sua naturali, nisi ipse per predictum comitem pro quacunque causa que sibi videbitur expedire vel per heredes vel assignatos dicti comitis, post mortem dicti comitis, pro aliquo vel aliquibus tali vel talibus delicto vel delictis, defalto vel defaultis suo vel suis, per ipsum custodem perpetrandum sive fiendum, pro qua, quo, vel pro quibus, per constitutiones & ordinationes dicti comitis predicti, vel eorum aliquam vel aliquas amoveri vel removeri debeat, amovebitur, vel removebitur, & hujusmodi persona & personæ, pauper & pauperes sic elect: & prefect: in locum vel locos pauperis vel pauperum ibidem ad tunc nuper existen: deceden: vel amot: respective, continuabit & continuabunt, in loco vel locis suo vel suis, durante vita naturali hujusmodi personæ & personarum sic elect: & prefect: respective, nisi ipse vel ipsi per predictum comitem

Younge.

STATUTES, CONSTITUTIONES, ORDERS, and ORDINANCES devised and made by us whose Names are here under written, by Virtue and Authoritie of his Majesties Letters Pattentes under the Great Seale of England, beareing Date at Westminster the Sixe and Twentieth Day of February, in the Fiftenth Yeare of his Highnes Raigne, to us in that Behalfe grannted, for the good Government of the Hospitall of the Holye and Undevided Trinitie in Clune, in the Countye of Salep, of the Foundation of the Right Honourable Henry Howard, Earle of Northampton, Baron of Marnehill, Lord Keeper of the Privie Seale, Constable of the Castle of Devor, Lord Warden of the Cinque Portes, Knight of the most honorable Order of the Garter, Channeller of the Universtie of Cambridge, and One of the King's Majesties most honorable Privie Councill; and for the Direction of the Warden and Poore Men of the sayd Hospitall; and for the well Disposinge of the Lands, Rectories, Tithes, Revenues, and Goods thereof.

CHAPTER I.

Of the Number of those that are to be mayntayned, and to belonge to the said Hospitall.

IMPRIMIS, Wee doe ordeaine and establishe that in the said Hospitall there shal be for ever one Warden and Twelve Poore Men, who shall wholly give themselves to the Service of God, and to praye for the Peace, Tranquillity, and Concorde of all Christendome, and specially for the Kinge's Majestie, his Haires, and Successors, the Statte of the Realme, and all the Branches and Members of that honourable House, from which the Founder descended: And that there shall be belonging to this Hospital One Poore Woman, to attende and looke to the Poore Men in Tyme of their Sickenes; and One Barbour: And that the Warden and Poore Men now alreadye placed in the Hospital shall abyde and continue in the said Hospitall, and injoye such Chambers and Romes every of them respectively as they now have for Terme of every of their Lives, together with such Stipends, Wages, Furniture, and all other Allowances as are hereafter to every of them hymitted and appoynted; every one of them well and honestly behaveinge hymselfe accordinge to the Orders and Constitutions followinge.

CHAPTER II.

Of the Warden, his Election, Qualitie, Office, and Stipende.

Wee doe ordaine, that after the Death or Removall of the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, that the Honourable Sir Robert Howard, Knighte, being Sonne to the Right Honourable Thomas now Earle of Suffolke, and Assigne of the saide late Earle of Northampton, deceased, and Lord of the Lordshipe or Manor of Clune aforesaid, and his Hayres and Assignes for ever, beinge Lord or Lordes of the Lordshippe or Mannor of Clune aforesaid, shall, within the Tyme lymitted by his Majesties Letters Pattentes after such Death or Removall, elect One other Warden in his Place, by Writtinge under his Hand and Seale; which said Warden for the Tyme beinge shal be a Man of honest Life and Conversation, religious, grave, and discreette, frugall, provident, and fitte to governe the Poore Men, and to manage the Afayres of the sayd Hospitall, and shal be able to writte and read perfectly and distinctly, and to cast Accomptes, a single, unmarried Man, and of the Age of Forty Yeres at the least; and if, after his Election and placeinge in this House, he shall mary, then his Place to be voyd ipso facto.

Wee alsoe ordayne and appoynt, that the Warden for the Tyme beinge shall receive the yearely Revenues and Rentes which belonge unto the Hospitall, at such Tymes and Termes of the Yeare as the same shall growe due and payable, and detayne the same in his Handes, to defraye from Tyme to Tyme all Expence of the House, savinge foe much thereof as ys hereafter appointed to be yearely put into the Treasury. And we doe also ordayne, that the Warden shall from Tyme to Tyme have the Nomination and Appoyntment of the Curate of Knighton, which is an Impropiation belonginge to the Hospitall; and that the sayd Curate for the Tyme beinge shall have an yearely Stipende of Tenn Poundes for servinge the Cure allowed unto hym, forth of the Revenues of this Hospitall; and shall likewise upon Expiration or other Determination of the Lease now in beinge of the Rectorye of Churchstocke, one other Ympropiation belonginge to the said Hospitall, have the Nomination and Appoyntmente of the Curate there; who shall alsoe have, when the sayd Rectorye doth come into the Possession of the Warden and Poore Men, the like yearely Stipend of Tenne Poundes for servinge that Cure allowed unto hym, forth of the Revenues of this Hospitall. And wee doe hereby further further ordayne and appoynt, that the Warden for the Tyme beyng shall out of the yeaerly Rentes and Revenues of the Hospitall, every Monnth (reckoning but Eight and Twentye Dayes to the Monnth) uppon the Saturday after Evening Prayer, paye in the Hall of the sayd Hospitall, as is now accustomed, before hande unto every One of the Poore Men Thirteene Shillinges and Four Pence, for his Stipende and Allowance for the Month ensewing: And the sayd Warden for the Tyme beinge shall once every Yeare buye soe much stronge Clothe or Kersey, of one sad Couller, as shall serve to make every One of the Poore Men a Gowne, to wear on the Weeke Days; and he shall make his Provision of Cloth at the best Season of the Yeare, when and where he maye have it best chepe; and with readie Money, and not upon Trust: And he shall bestowe Fifteene Shillinges and Six Pence in the Price of eache Gowne: And yeaerly uppon Sainte Mathyas Daye (which was the Founder's Byrth Day) deliver unto each Poore Man his Gowne, readye made. And shall also every Fourth Yeare buye Sixe and Thirtie Yardes of good durable Blewe Broad Cloth, of London Measure, of Eight Shillinges and Six Pence the Yarde, to make every One of they Poore Men a Liverye Gowne, to be worne only uppon Sundayes and Fastivall Dayes, and Fiftie Yardes of Blew Bayes, at Two Shillinges Foure Pence the Yarde, to line the sayd Gownes, which is Three Yardes of Cloth and Foore Yardes and Halfe a Quarter of Bayes for eache Gowne; whereof he shall also make his Provision at the beste Hande, in such Sorte as wee have before prescribed unto hym for the ordinarye Gownes: And he shall bestowe Forty Fowre Shillinges in the Price of eache of these Liverye Gownes; and shall every Fourthe Yeare, uppon Trinitye Sundaye, deliver unto eache Poore Man his Gowne, ready made, of the same Fashion that their now Liverryes be of, with a new Cognizannce, beinge a White Lyon ymbrothered sette, on the Sleeve, of the Price of Five Shillinges, which is included in the sayd former Some of Fortye Foure Shillinges. At which Tyme he shall alsoe buye every One of the Poore Men a Liverye Hatte, of the Price of Fowre Sillinges, all of One Fashion; and uppon Delivery of the newe he shall deliver to the Poore Men, to their owne Uses, their old Liverye Gownes and Hatts that had served for the Fowre Yeares precedent: And the sayd Warden for the Tyme beinge shall yeaerly at the Wood Sales make Provision of Thirtye Loades of Fyre Wood, for hymselfe and the Almefmen; and see the same layed and piled severally in the Woode Yarde, every Almefman's Proportion portion by it selfe, to the End they maie all knowe their owne, and better husbände their Store. And the sayd Warden shall also buye from Tyme to Tyme all such Linen as shall be used for Table Clothes, and all Pewter, Brasse, and other Ymplements of Houhold to be used and ymplied in the sayd Hospitall, for the Dressing of his owne and the Poore Mens Meate upon the Feastivall Dayes, wherein they are by the Founder appointed to dyne and suppe together in the common Hall: And shall take Care that they sayd Househould Stuffe of the Hospitall be safely kept, and not abused in the Weareinge: And specially that there come noe Detriment to the House by Occasion of Fier. The Warden shall alsoe from Tyme to Tyme take Carre of the Poore Men that shall be sicke, and see that the Woman appoynted for that Purposse doe give due Attenndance upon them in Tyme of their Sicknes. He shall have speciall Care that the Gates of the Hospitall be shutte and opened at the Tymes appoynted, and that they Keyes as sone as the Gate be shutte be every Nighte brought unto hym. He shall give the Oath by the Statutes hereafter prescribed to the Poore Men from Tyme to Tyme elected and placed in the sayd Hospitall. He shall paye the Curate of Knighton and likewise the Curate of Churstocke when the present Lease ys expired; the Subwarden of the Hospitall, the Poore Woman appoynted to attend the Sicke, and the Barboure, their Wages Halfe yearely, at the Feastes of All Saynts and of the Apostles Phillip and Jacob. He shall kepe the Keyes of all the Lodgings voyde by Death or Removeall of any of the Poore Men, and see that as well the ordinarye Gownes of the Partye so deceased or removed, as the Bedsteedes, Mattes, and Rugge belonging to that Chamber be safely kepte, and delivered to his Successor after his Admission: And he shall from Tyme to Tyme see well and sufficiently repayred and mayntained in good Reparations the Hospitall House, and the Walles environinge the same, and the Gardenes and Orchardes; and that there be not soe much as one Stone missinge upon the said Hospitall, or in or upon the same Walles, by the Space of one Monnth together, and not in the meane tyme amended. And we doe ordayne for that Purposse there shall be at all Tymes One Thowlande of Slate Stone, readye dressed and holed, and a Quarter of Lime, and another Quarter of Haire and Sande, lyinge in Heapes in the storre House, or in such other Place within the Hospitall, as the Warden shall thinke fittest to laye the same. And the Warden shall alsoe take presente Order that the voyde Spottes or Peices of Grounde belonging to the Hospitall, and lying without without the Walles to the South-east thereof, beinge firste strongly fenced in with a Ditch and quicke fetted, shal be well planted with Elmes, Okes, and Ashes, for Defence of the sayd Hospitall from Wyndes and Weather ; and see that the sayd Ditch be from Tyme to Tyme well keepte and maynetayned, and they Trees therein preserved and renewed, as often as Neede shall requier ; and likewise the wast Ground betwene the Trees soe husbanded and kepte from Weedes and Bushes, as the same maie yeald some Manner of Profitte to hymselfe and they Company. And that every One of the Poore Men doe from Tyme to Tyme make, keepe, and maynetayne fayre and handsome the Quickefette Hedges aboute his severall Grounds : And he shall also see that the Poore Men doe performe, observe, fullfill, and keepe all such Lawes, Statutes, and Constitucionnes as are by us prescribed and sette downe, and inflicte upon the Offenderes such Punishementes as to his Place and Office appertayneth.

The Warden for the Tyme beinge shall keepe a Leedger Booke, wherein he shall enter and regeister the Admission of of every Member of this Hospitall, with the Dayes and Yeares of their severall Admittances ; and upon their Deaths or other Removeinges he shall make an Entrye. Likewise when the same doth happen he shall alsoe keepe another Booke, wherein he shall register all Licences of Absence to be grannted to any of the Poore Men, the Daye of his goeing forth and of his Returne ; and of all Offences and Convictions of any of them which shall offende in any of the Faults by these Statutes punishfable, and what Censures and Punishmentes have been inflicted uppon them for the same. He shall alsoe keepe one other Booke, wherein he shall enter the Inventories of all the Brasse, Pewter, Lynen, and other moveable Goodes whatsoever of the Hospitall's, as they now are and shall be from Tyme to Tyme renewed. He shall alsoe once every Yeare make up a true, perfect, and exact Accompt of all such Summes of Moneyes as he hath received for the said Hospitall, and shall therein sette downe what remayneth in Supers, and is unpaide of the Revenues of the sayd Hospitall, and by whom ; together with all such Somes of Moneyes as he hath disbursed and paide for the Use of the sayd Hospitall, and what remaines at that Tyme in his Handes. Which sayd Accomptes so to be made of all his Receiptes and Disbursementes for one whole Yeare, which shal be accounted to beginne alwayes at the Feastes of the Annunciation of our blessed Lady the Virgine Marye, he shall yearly render and give, fayrely ingrossed in Parchmente, uppon uppon the Mundaye next after Trinitie Sundaye, to the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffes of Byshopps Castle, for the Time beinge, or any Five of them, that shall be there readie to take the sayd Accomptes, in the Comone Hall of the sayd Hospitall, Where the Warden shall uppon that Daye provide for them a convenient Dinner, whereof the Twelve Poore Men shall have the Reversion, and eat it together in the Kitchine; and shall alsoe paie for their Horse Meate: All which whole Charge shall not exceede the Somme of Thirtye Shillinges. And the Warden shall alsoe yearely uppon that Day bestowe uppon each of them that shall be there present to take the sayd Accomptes, for their Paines and Travell in that Behalfe, One Payre of Gloves, of the Price of Two Shillinges Sixe Pence the Paire. And after the sayd Accompte is thus rendered and given up unto they sayd Parsones soe appoynted as aforesaid to take it, the sayd Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicare of Clune, and the Vicare and Bayliffes of Byshopps Castle, for the Tyme being, shall and maie eyther joyntly by themselves or solye by any One of them, to be named and appoynted by the other Three, examine and trye by all Meanes the Truth of his sayd Accompte. And the same uppon Examination and Tryall appearinge iuste and true, the said Parson or Parsons that tooke the sayd Accompte and the Warden of the Hospitall shall seet their Handes unto the same. In the makeinge and rendering of which Accompte wee doe likewise order and appoynte, that the Warden shall shewe forth unto such Parson or Parsons as shall take his Accompts, as well those Three Bookes which he is before by us enjoyned to keepe, as all Vouches and Aquittances for such Somes of Money as he hath paide eyther to the Poore Men, for their Monnthly Stipendes, or for Wages, Lyveries, Fyrringe, Reparations, or that hath been expended in Lawe Suites, within that Tyme of that Accompte. And the Overplus of the sayd Revenues, more then the Warden shall have necessarye Cause to retayne in his Handes, to pay hymselfe and the Poore Men thiere Monnthly Stipends, and to make Provision before hand of Cloth or Fyreing, shall be yearely put into the Treasure-houise, together with the Accompte so taken for that Yeare, and subscribed as aforesayd.

Wee doe alsoe ordayne, that the Warden for the Tyme beinge shall from tyme to tyme see that all the Evidences and other Writtinges touchinge or concerninge the Possessions of this Hospitall be put in severall Boxes, and laide up safely in the Treasure Houise in the Cheste provided, and sette there there for that Purpose, that they be not eaten with Myse, rotted, consumed, or defaced with Weather, or by any other Meanes. And he shalle not put the Commen Seal toe any Lease, Grante, or other Wrytinge whatsoever concerninge the Estate of the Hospitall, without the Previtie and Allowance of John Griffits the Founder's Executor during his naturall Life, and after his Decease of the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicare of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffes of Byshopp's Castle for the Tyme beinge, or three of them, and the Assente of Sixe of the Poore Men at the least. And the Warden shall alwayes resyde in the sayd Hospitall, except yt be at such Tymes as he shall be necessaryly occasioned to goe abroad about the Affayres of the Hospitall, or to make Provision of Cloth, Fyringe, and other Necessaries for the House and Company, or that uppon urgent Occasion of his owne, he shall be lyfensed for some smale Tyme to be absente by the said John Griffits during his Life, or by the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Baylyffs of Bishopps Castle for the Tyme beinge, or by two of them at the least, so he be not absent above twenty Dayes in one Yeare, to the End that he may have a continuall Eye unto the sayd Governemente and Demeanours of the Poore Men, which he shall from tyme to tyme, in a good and discreete Manner, with all Indifferencye and Equite, see performed and done.

And the Warden, for the due executing of his sayde Offyce, besydes his Lodginge, Orchard, and Gardenes, shall have yearlye allowed hym for Fyring fowre Loads of Wood, to be provided and taken as we have hereafter ordayned, and shall also have one yearlye Stipende of Twentye Poundes, to be taken by hymselfe by Thirtie Shillings Nine Pence Farthinge Monathly, reconing Eight and Twenty Dayes to the Monath, at such Dayes as wee have before appoynted the Poore Men to be paid theire Stipendes, and to be upon his yearlye Accomptes allowed and deducted forth of the yearlye Rentes and Revenues of the Hospitall; and Fortye Shillings every Second Yeare to buye hym a Gowne to weare upon the Weeke Days, which shall contayne three Yardes of London Measure, of marble coloured Cloth of Eight Shillings Sixe Pence the Yarde, and foure Yardes of Bayes, at Two Shillings Sixe Pence the Yarde, to lype it with; yt shall be always made against Sainte Mathyas Day, and of that Fashion the Warden hys Gowne is now of. And the Warden shall alsoe have every fowrthe Yeare Three Poundes to buye him a Liverye Gowne of a good fad marble Coloure Cloth, of Thirteene Shillings and Fewre Pence the Yarde, lyned throughe with Bayes, and the Founder's Cognizance sett one the Sleeve to weare uppon the Sondays and Feasty-wall Dayes onely, which shall lykewise contayne the same Quantity of Cloth and Bayes that we have before appoynted for the other Gownes to be made always against Trinity Sunday, which shall be likewise of the same Fashion the Warden hys Lyverie is now off, which Liveries, together with the other Gowne allowed unto hym for the Weeke Dayes, if he eyther dye or be removed within the Tyme before lymmitted unto hym, to have newe, he shall leave for his Successor, together with all suche Furniture of Beddinge and Household Stuffe as shall be eyther in his Lodginge, or in his Custody, of the Founder's Provision, at the Tyme of his Deathe or Removevall.

And because the Warden's Place ys of greate Charge and Truste, and therefore requireth good Caution to be given, wee doe ordayne, that every such Parson as hereafter shall be chosen to be Warden of this Hospitall, before such Tyme as he shall be admitted or allowed to exercise the same Place, shall, with Two sufficient Suerties, become bounde to the Bayliffe of Bishopp's Castle for the Tyme beinge, in the Somme of Two hundred Poundes of lawfull Money of Englande, with Condition that he shall from tyme to tyme truely and justly make accompte, and answere for all such Moneyes and other Things as he shall receive for the sayd Hospitall; and in case he dye, that then his Haires, Executors, or Administrators, or his Suerties, or their Haires, Executors, or Administrators, shall well and truely accompte unto the sayd Bayliffe of Bythopps Castle for the Tyme beinge for all and every such Somme and Sommes of Money, and other Things whatsoever by hym the sayd Warden received, and not in his Life Tyme by hym accompted or answered for as aforesayd. And shall well and truely paie, or cause to be payde unto his Successors the Warden of the said Hospitall, all such Arrerages whatsoever as shall be due uppon the sayd Accompts. And also to leave in the Hospitall at his Death or Removevall, as well all such Goodes and Ymplementes of Household, which be or should be in his Custody, of the Founder's Provision, as his Gownes for his Successor; which sayd Bonde, soe taken as aforesayd, we doe ordayne and appoynte shall be layd up in the Treasure House amonge the Evidences of the Hospitall at the Admission of the Warden.

And the better to secure from tyme to tyme, as well all such Moneys and Goodes of the Hospitalls as shall be in the Handes, Custody, and Charge of the Warden at the Tyme of his

his Death or Removeall, as the Warden, his Executor, and Suerties are to be Sureties of all Indemnities that maie happen by reason of theire Bondes, and that nothing be imbefelled or removed in the Tyme of Vacancy of the Plase, wee doe further order and appoynte, that ymediatlye uppon the Death or Removeall of any Warden of this Hospitall, that the Vicar of Clune for the Tyme beinge shall, in the Prefence of the Subwarden and the other Poore Men, locke up safe the Doores of his Lodginges in the Hospitall, and keepe the Keyes thereof, and all other Keyes in his Custody, untill another Warden be elected and placed in his Rome, to whom he shall at his Admission deliver the sayd Keyes, and the Money that shall be then found in his sayd Lodginge, together with the Goodes belonginge to the House appeareinge by the Booke of Inventorye: And what other Things ther shall be then there of the Decedent his owne proper Goodes, he shall see the same delivered to such Parson or Parsons to whome the same in Right shall belonge.

CHAPTER III.

Of the Poore Men, their Election, what Kinde of Parsons they ought to be, and the Allowance they are to have.

Wee doe alsoe ordayne, that the Poore Men be from tyme to tyme by the sayd Sir Robert Howard, and his Hayres and Assignes for ever, beinge Lord or Lordes of the Lordshippe or Maner of Clune afore sayd, within the Tyme lyमित by his Majesties sayd Letters Pattentes, taken, chossen, and placed in this Hospitall forthe of the Poore Inhabytantse of the Lordshipps of Clune and Bishoppes Castle. And for that the Lordshippe of Clune ys very greate and spacious, and that the Hospitall was builte and specially intended by the Founder for the Reliefe of the Poore of that Lordshippe, we doe therefore ordayne and appoynte, that Nyn of the Twelve Poore Men to be mayntayned in the sayd Hospitall shall be for ever chossen out of the said Lordshippe of Clune, if it maye affourde soe many Parsons capable, and in all Poyntes qualified according to the Founder's Institutiones, and the other Three forthe of the Lordshippe of Byshopp's Castle. And when any of the Poore Men now placed in the Hospitall, or hereafter to be elected, shall chauce to dye or be removed, that then within Sixe Monthes after every such Death or Removeall, there shall be such others of the Poore Inhabytantes of the Lordshipps of Clune and Byshopp's Castle afore sayd from tyme to tyme chossen in their Steades and Places by the sayd Sir Robert Howard, and his Hayres and Assignes, beinge Lord or Lordes of the sayd Lordshippes of Clune, as by these Constitutions are eligible.

And we doe further ordayne and declare, that every Poore Man to be chosen a Member of this Hospitall shall be an Inhabytant within the Lordshippe of Clune or Bishopp's Castle, and such a one as hath dwelte in one of these Lordshippes by the Space of Five Yeares at least next before his Election, and a single unmarried Man of the Age of Sixe and Fiftye Yeares at the lease at the Tyme of his Election; and if he shall after marye, then his Place to be voyde ipso facto. And likewise that he be a Man that ys decayed, and become Poore by causuall Meanes, and hath alwayes lyved in honest Name. But if he be growne Poore through his owne Disorder, or be indebted, or a common Beger, a Drunkeard, Whorehaunter, Haunter of Tavernes, or of Alehouses, and uncleane Parson, infected with any foule Dissease, or any that is blynde, or so impotent, as he is not able at the Tyme of his Admission to come to Prayers dayly to the Chappell, and also to travell to the Parische Church on the Sondages and Holy Dayes, and to performe all other Duties and Services enjoyned by Statuts to every Brother of this Hospitall; if he be an Ideot, or not able to faye without Booke the Lordes Prayer, the Crede, and the Tenne Commandements, or hath eyther in Landes Fee or Annuittie above the cleare Value of Twenty Shillings, or in Goodes and Chattells exceedinge the true Value of Twentye Markes at the most, then he shall not be chossen, nor maye be a Member of this Hospitall. And if at any Tyme yt shall happen uppon a Voydannee by Death or Removevall of any of the Poore Men, that the sayd Lordshippes of Clune and Bishoppes Castle, as it shall fall to their Turnes for Nomination, cannot at that Tyme afforde a Parson, qualified accordinge to the Founder's Institution and Intention explained by these Orders, to succede in the Place soe voyde, then we doe ordayne in that Case, and as often as yt shall soe happen, that the sayd Sir Robert Howard, and his Hayres and Assignes, beinge Lord or Lordes of the said Lordshippe of Clune, shall make Choyse of some Poore Man that is so qualified forth of such of the Poore Inhabytantes of the Parishes of Knighton, in the County of Radner, and Churchstocke, in the Countye of Monntgomery, out of which anyfeth and ys to come the greatest Parte of the Revenues belonging to the Hospitall, viz. One forth of Knighton, and One forth of Churchstocke (alternis vicibus) firste begin-

ninge at Knighton uppon Notice thereof firste geven in those Churches by the Warden of the Hospitall, and such Certificate from the Inhabytantes of those Parishes, as is hereafter by us prescribed. And we doe further ordayne, that every one of the Poore Men, before his Admission into the Hospitall, shall enter into Bonde in the Somme of Tenne Poundes to the Bayliffe of Byshopp's Castle for the Tyme beinge, conditioned to leave in the Hospitall at his Death for his Successor, as well the Furniture of his Chamber that is of the Founder's Provision, as his Liverye, Hatte, and Gowne, and to keep them from tyme to tyme duering his Life sayre and cleane, reasonable Weareinge excepted. And likewise that all his owne proper Goodes, which at his Death shall be in the sayd Hospitall, shall be lesse and remayne in the Costedye of the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, and not from thence be had or taken, untill his Funerall Charge and perticuler Debtes by hym oweinge in Clune for Meate, Drinke, and Attendance in Tyme of his Sickenes be furst satisfied and payd, to avoyde the Charge and Infamy that maye otherwise fall uppon the House.

Ther shall noe Grannte or Promise be made to any Parson or Parsons of any Poore Man's Place in this Hospitall in Reversion; and if any Parson shall be founde faultie in seeking, procureinge, or obtayneing any such Place contrarye to these Ordinances, he shall be (ipso facto) disabled, and become incapable to have any Place in the sayd Hospitall dueringe his Life.

And if it shall happen that any Poore Man, after his Admission into this Hospitall, shall have any Land defended, or otherwise given or come unto hym, of the cleare yearlie Value of Fyve Poundes or more, in which he shall have any Freehold for Tearme of his owne Life, or shall have any Goodes or Chattels given unto hym that shall be worth or amounte to the Somme of One hundred Markes, or more, that every such Parson haveinge such Meanes to mayntayne himselfe withall, shall not keepe nor hold Place in the Hospitall, which was appoynted for the Reliefe of those which wanted, but shall loose his sayd Place, and some such other Parson, as is before-mentioned, shall be chossen in his Stead.

And wee further ordayne, that they Poore Men shall be continually resident in the Hospitall, and that they shall not at any Tyme goe into the Towne, or elsewhere, without speciall Leave of the Warden, or Subwarden in his Absence, to be grannted unto them only when they have in the Cause of Buissness, which maye not be in Tymes appoynted for Prayers,

Prayers, nor after the Howers appoynted for locking in of the Gates at Night, nor uppon the Sundayes, nor uppon any Dayes wherin the Leetes, or any Courtes or Lawes Dayes be kept in Clune; and when any is so lycensed, he shall not goe to the Alehouse under Pretence to dyne or suppe there, nor rune at all uppon the Score for Meate, Drinke, or other Viſtualls, eyther in the Alehouse, or elsewhere, to the Scandall and Dishonour of the Founder, that for Prevention thereof hath appoynted that every Poore Man should have One Monntnes Paye beforehande, to the End he maie make his Provision the better for that Time, and spend the Allowance he gives hym within the Hospitall. Provided alwayes, that if any of the Poore Men have any urgent or necessary Occasion to goe abroad for a certayne Tyme, uppon Notice thereof to the Vicar of Clune, and the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, they maie, if they shall hold yt foe convenient, give Lycence unto the sayd Poore Man to be absente for such Tyme as his sayd Buissness shall requier, so he be not absent above Seven Dayes in One Year.

And we doe hereby further lymitte and appoynte, that every one of the Poore Men shall over and besides his Lodginge and Garden receive of the Warden of the Hospitall yearly One Stipende of Eight Poundes Thirtene Shillinges Fowre Pence, to be paid unto hym monnthly, reckenninge Eight and Twentye Dayes to the Monnth, by Thirtene Shillinges Fowre Pence every Monnth in the Common Hall of the Hospitall, uppon the Saterday after Evening Prayer, and yearly uppon Sainte Mathyas Day, whych was the Founder's Byrth Day, a Gowne ready made of stronge Cloth or Kerseye of a fadde Colour, to weare uppon the Weeke Dayes, of the Price of Fiftene Shillinges and Six Pence, and shall have delivered unto hym at the Hospitall yearly at Bartholmew Tyde for Fyeringe Two Loade of Wood; and shall alsoe every Fourth Yeare uppon Trinitie Sunday have delivered unto hym to weare such a Livery Gowne of blew Cloth lined with Bayes, with the Founder's Cognizannce on the Sleeve, to ware uppon Sundayes and Feastivall Dayes, as every one of the Poore Men now have, of the Price of Fowrty 4 Shillinges, togeather with a Livery Hatte, of the Price of Fowre Shillinges; of which sayd Livery Gownes to be at every Fourth Yeares Ende delivered unto them by the Warden to their owne Use as aforesayd, we doe ordayne and appoynte, that every one of the Poore Men (the sayd Gownes beinge all first dyed into some sadder Colour) shall make them Suites of Apparell of one and the same same Fashion to weare uppon Sondayes, and Holy Dayes. And shall likewise at every Yeares End, when they receave their new ordinarye Gownes, make them Apparell with the old, that they maie goe cleane and decent, and not sell their Gownes awaye, nor converte them to any other Use. And for the avoydinge of Idleness, and better Mayntenance of themselves, yt shall be lawfull for any of the Poore Men, privatly in his Chamber, to use any maniall Trade that he has Skill of, or to exercise hymselfe in any other handye Labour, so the same be not offensive or noysome to the Warden and the Rest of the Brethren.

CHAPTER IV.

The Office of the Subwarden.

4. Wee doe ordayne, that One of the Twelve Poore Men, of the best Discretion and Behaviour, and beinge able to reade and write (if it maie be) be, uppon the Death or Removeall of Richard Langeford the now Subwarden, elected yearely by the Warden, and the more Parte of the Poore Men, to be Subwarden, who shall, under the Warden, oversee all Parsons in doeing of their Duties, and shall at noe Tyme be absent. When the Warden of the Hospitall is absent, he shall dulye open and shutte at the Howres appointed the Gates of the Hospitall, and to that Ende he shall receave of the Warden the Keyes every Morninge between the Feasts of the Anunniation of Our Blessed Lady the Virgin Marye, and the Feast of Sainte Michael the Archangell, at Five of the Clocke, and shall then open the Gatts. And after the Ringinge or Towlinge of the Bell, to give Warninge to such as be abroad, he shall shutt and locke them againe duringe that Tyme at 8 of the Clocke in the Eveninge. And from the Feasts of Saynt Mychaell untill the Feast of the Anunniation, he shall open the Gates at Eight of the Clocke in the Morninge, and soe shutte and locke them as aforesaid at Five of the Clock at Night, and carrye the Keyes every Night as sone as the Gatts be locked to the Warden, if he be at home. And he shall at noe Tyme, before nor after the Howers hereby appoynted for opening and shutting of the Gattes, open the same, unless yt be uppon speciall Occasion, and by Direction of the Warden. He shall alsoe every Daye, after the Towlinge of the Bell to Morneinge and Evening Prayer to be sayd in the Chappell, shutt and locke the Gattes, and not open the same while the Warden and Poore Men be at their Dévotions. He shall keepe the Liverye

Liverie Gownes and Hattes in the Presses made and sette in the Chappell for that Purpose, and deliver them every Sunday and Holye Daye in the Morneinge at Eight of the Clocke to the Rest of the Brethren, and receive them againe at Night brushed and foulded by them handsomly, and lay them up in the sayd Presses againe. He shall also keepe the Keyes of the Chappell, and see that it be kepte sweete and cleane, and that the Bookes be not defaced, nor any Stranger admitted into the Chappell, but when eyther the Warden or hymselfe be present. And soe also that the Seates provided for the Warden and Poore Men in the Parische Church be likewise kepte sweete and cleane. And he shall every Morninge and Eveninge, the Howers appoynted to say Prayer in the Chappell, ringe or toule the Bell Twice to give Sommons to the Poore Men to come to Prayer; he shall duely observe all Absences from the Parische Church, and from Prayers in the Chappell, Misfedemeanors in any of they Bretherne, and present them every Saterday at Night after Prayer in Writinge (if he can) to the Warden, that ech one maie receive the Punishment by the Statute to be inflicted, according to the Qualitie of their severall Offences. He shall see that noe Dogges be kept in the Hospitall House to anye and disquiette the Company. And we doe further order, that he shall doe and execute, in the Absence of the Warden, whatsoever by these Statutes in that Behalfe ys required to be done and performed by the sayd Warden. And we doe ordayne, lymitte, and appoynte that the sayd Subwarden shall receive for his Wagis, over and besydes his Stipende of Eight Poundes Thirteene Shillinges and Fower Pence as a Poore Man, a yearely Stipende of Fortye Shillinges, to be payd Halfe yearely.

We doe ordayne, if at any Tyme yt shall happen that the Warden and Subwarden be both Sicke at one Tyme, or so impotente and weake, that neyther of them ys able to performe the Dueties incident to their Plases, and by these Statutes requiered of them, that the Poore Man that is eldest in Senioritie by Admission, if he be able and sufficient to performe that Office, if not, then the eldest in Senioritie which shal be able, by the Appoyntement of the Warden of the Hospitall shall, during the Tyme of their Sickenes and Impotencye, doe and execute all such Things as by the Statutes in that Behalfe are required to be done and performed by them, or eyther of them.

CHAPTER V.

Of the Nomination for Election of the Warden and Poore Men.

We do alsoe ordayne, that as often as any Place in this Hospitall shall happen at any Tyme hereafter to become voyde, eyther by Death or Removevall of the Warden, or of any of the Poore Men, that the Warden for the Tyme beinge, or Subwarden in his Absence, shall give publike Notice thereof in the Parish Churches of Clune and Byshopp's Castle the next Sondag after the Decease, Departure, Removal of that Partye soe dead or removed, to the End the Steward of the Lordeshippe of Clune for the Tyme beyng, Mr. Edward Powell the Founder's old Servant dureinge his Life, the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar, Bayliffes, and Churchwardens of Clune, and the Bayliffe, Vicar, and Churchwardens of Byshopp's Castle for the Tyme beinge, and the Fee Farmers of the Parsonages of Clune and Byshopp's Castle (if they be Inhabitants within these Lordshippes) and the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge maye that Sondag Seavenight, after all or soe manye of them as cann attende this Worke of Charitie, meete together in the said Parishes Church of Clune after Evening Prayer, to the Ende, and after Examination first taken of the Poor Inhabitants of that Lordshipe (to whose Turn the Place shall then fall) sincerely and surely, without perticuler Respecte, Rewarde, Meede, or Affection, nominate Two such of the sayd Poore Inhabitantes, as in their Consciences they thynke to stande in most Neede of the Releife and Charitie of the Founder, and otherwise to be fittest for the Place, and best to answere the Qualities required by the Founder in his Almshouses, and make Certificate therof in Writinge under their Handes, or the more Parte of them, unto Sir Robert Howard, or his Hayres or Assignes, being Lord or Lordes of the said Lordshipp of Clune, within Three Weekes after the Avoydance of the sayd Place, that he or they maye within Sixe Mounthes after the Avoydance of the sayd Place (according to the Power given to hym and them by his Majesties said Letters Pattentes) make Choyce of One of the sayd Two Parsons soe nominated to succeede in the sayd Rome then voyde, and give Warrant to the Warden of the Hospitall to receive and admitte hym a Member of the House. And we ordayne, that the sayd Certificat shal be from tyme to tyme made and subscribed as aforesayd, and delivered to the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme being; and if the Warden be then dead, then unto the Subwarden, to be conveyed and sent by him at the Charge of the House to the sayd Sir Robart Howard, or his Assignes, being Lord or Lordes of the sayd Lordshippe of Clune.

The Forme of the Certificate to be made uppon the Death or Removevall of any of the Poore Men.

Whereas there ys a Place now voyde in the Hospitall of the Holy and Undevided Trinitie in Clune, of the Foundation of Henry Howard Earle of Northampton, by the Death or Removevall of J. M. late one of the Almefmen there, which is One of the Nine Places limited by the Statute of the House to the Lordshippe of Clune, or of the Three Places lymitted to the Lordshippe of Bishoppe Castle, we whose Names are here underwritten, according to the Form to us by Statute prescribed, meette together in the Parish Church of Clune uppon Sonday the of this Monuth, and after Viewe and Examination taken of all the Poore Inhabytentes that are by the Founder's Institution capable of Places in this Hospitall, we have nominated these Two, whose Names are here underwritten; wee know them both to be of honest Life, and Parsons in all Poyntes qualified accordinge to the Founder's Institution, and meete to recieve that honourable Relief and Charitie that his Lordshippe provided for them: And therefore humbly praye your Honour to give present Order that One of them maye be admitted into the Place now voyd.—Clune the Day of

A. W. aged	and an Inhabitant in Clune	Yeares.
B. K. aged	and an Inhabitant in Clune	Yeares.

And if the sayd Parsons foe by Statute appoynted as aforesaid to nominate, shall at any Tyme neglect to nominate and certifie, within Three Weeques, the Names of such Parsons as are eligible forth of the Inhabytantes of the Lordshippes of Clune and Bishoppes Castle, as it shall falle to their Turnes, or that the sayd Lordshippe of Clune and Bishoppes Castle cannot at that Tyme afforde a Parson qualified as ys aforesayd, wee doe ordayne, that then and so often as it shall foe happen that the sayd Sir Robart Howard, or his Hayres or Assignes, beinge Lord or Lordes of the Lordshippe of Clune, shall make Choyce and Place in the Rome foe voyde, One of the Poore Inhabytantes of the Parish of Knighton

Knighton or Churchstoke, uppon such Certificate as is before ordayned to be made for the Poore Men to be nominated out of Clune and Bishop's Castle, under the Hands of the Warden of the Hospitall, the Curat for the Tyme beinge of that Parish whereof the Partie is to be nominated, and the Churchwardens, that he is of honest Life and Conversation, of the Age of Sixe and Fiftie Yeares at least, and hath bene an Dweller in that Parishes for Fyve Years nexte before, and ys otherwise in all Poynts eligible by these Constitutions as aforesayde.

We doe further ordayne, that if the sayd Sir Robart Howard, or his Hayres and Assignes, beinge Lord or Lordes of the sayd Lordshippe or Manner of Clune, shall not from tyme to tyme, according to the Power given and graunted unto hym and them in that Behalfe by his Majesties sayd Letters Pattentes, within Sixe Mounthes after the Death or Removevall of the Warden, or any One or more of the Poore Men, chose and place in each of their Places or Office soe dead or removed, One other meete and sufficient Man soe qualified as aforesayd, accordinge to these Orders and Constitutions, that then and as often as it shall soe happen that the Justices of Assise appoynted or assigned in the sayd Countie of Sallop for the Tyme beinge, shall for that Turn only chose and place in each of his or their Places then voyd as aforesaid, One meete and sufficient Man qualified as aforesaid.

CHAPTER VI.

Of the Poore Woman that is to attende and looke to the Poore Men in Tyme of their Sickeneys.

We doe ordayne, that the Warden of the Hospitall shall from tyme to tyme, for the adinge and comfortinge of such as shall be Sicke, or soe Impotente and Weake, that they shalle not be able to help themselves, make Choyse of some poore honest sober Woman, that shall attende and loke unto those that be Sicke and Weake, and shall washe the Table Clothes used upon the Feastivall Dayes, and scowere and keepe cleane the Vessells, and doe such other Worke about the House as the Warden shall appoynte her, who, besydes the Rewards to be given her by such sicke Parsons as she shall from tyme to tyme attende, shall have yearely a Stipende paid unto her by the Warden of Fortye Shillinges at the said Feastes of the Apostles Phyllip and Jacob, and All Saintes, by even Portions.

CHAPTER VII.

Of the Barbour.

That the Poore Men maye be the better keepte cleane from Vermyn, and goe more defently, we doe likewise ordayne, that the Warden shall from tyme to tyme make Choyse of some honest Man that hath bene brought up in the Trade to be Barbour to the Company, who shall Fowre Tymes every Yeare, viz. against Christmas, Easter, Trinitie Sundaye, and Mychaelmas, come to the sayd Hospital, and trymme them in the Hall, for the which he shall have One Yeares Stipende of Threene Shillings and Fowre Pence, to be payd unto hym by the Warden at the Feastes of the Apostles Phillipe and Jacob, and All Saynts, by even Portions.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of Daily Prayers, and other Exercises of Piety to be used in the Hospitall.

We doe ordayne, that the Warden and Poore Men shall every Day, Three Tymes at the least, viz. as sone as they are made ready in the Morneinge, presently after Dinner, and ymedyatly before they make themselves unready at Nyght, devoutly kneelinge upon their Knees in their Chambers, say the Lord's Prayer, the Creede, and this Prayer following, of Thankesgiving to the Glorious and Sacred Trinity.

With my whole Harte, with my Mouth and Soule, I confesse, I praise, I gloryfie Thee, O Heavenly Father, unbegotten! O Eternall Sonne, onlye begotten! O Holy Ghost the Comforter, proceedinge from the Father and the Sonne! Glory be to the Father that created me, Glory be to the Son that redeemed me, Glory be to the Holy Ghoste that sanctified me, Glory be to the Holy and Undevided Trinitie, Three Persons, and One onlye God, whose Workes are inseperable, whose Power is equall, Dominione is perpetuall, to Thee belongeth all Glory, Prayse, and Honour, both now and ever. Amen.

We also ordayne, that the Warden, and all the Poore Men that are able to travell soe farre, shall, every Sunday and Holy Daye, resorte orderlye by Two and Two, in their Lyvery Gownes, to the Parische Church of Clanc, to hear
Morneinge

Morneinge and Eveninge Prayer, and sitt in the Seates belonging to the Hospitall in Seniorytie, as the Warden shall appoynte, where they shall reverently and devoutly behave themselves, and remaine all the Tyme of Prayers, and then returne again together by Two and Two to the Hospitall.

Wee likewise ordayne, that the Warden, and in his Absence the Subwarden, shall on all Dayes (being Workeing Days) say Publique Prayer in the Chappell of the Hospitall Morneing and Evening; viz. at Nyne of the Clocke in the Forenoon, and Three in the Afternoone, together with the Founder's Prayer to the Trinitie, and the Prayer of Thanksgivinge to God for the Founder.

Wee give Thee most hartie and humble Thanks and Prayse, O Almighty and most Mercifull Father, for all thy gracious Blessinges bestowed upon us, for our Creation, Redemption, Sanctification, and continual Preservation; and as by Duty we are bounde, wee magnifie and praise thy most Holy Name for these Benefittes and Blessings wherby wee are mayntayned, which wee by thy gracious Goodnesse doe receive from our most noble Founder Henry Howard Earle of Northampton, who, in his Life Tyme, beinge a most obedient, dutiefull, devoute, and religious Worshipper of Thee, O! Most Holy, Blessed, Glorious, and Undevided Trinitie, of those worldly Bleeffinges which Thou gavest hym, did most liberally and frely give and dedicate this our Habitation and Sustenance only to Thee, and for the Glorie, Praise, and Honour of thy most Blessed Name; direct us, O Lord, with thy Holy Grace, that wee with Harte, Mouth, and Soule, accordinge to our noble Founder's Will and Institution, maie confesse, praise, and glorifie thy most Holy Name all the Dayes of our Life; and grant, that after this Life ended, we may enjoy those unspeakeable Joyes of Heaven, purchased by the most pretious Deathe and Passion of our Blessed Lord and Saviour, thy deare Sonne Jesu Christe, for all them that truly and stedfastly believe in Hym. Wee alsoe praye Thee, most deare Father, to blesse the Holy Chatholyque Church, and to inspire it continuallye with thy Spirit of Truth and Concorde. Blesse our most gratiouse Sovereigne Lord Kinge James, and all his Royal Issue. Blesse all the Nobilitie, and speciallye, as we are bound, we pray Thee blesse the Right Noble Lord Thomas Earle of Arundell and Surrey, the Honourable Sir Robart Howard, the Lord of this Manor, and all others that are descended from theire and our Founder's Honourable Family. Blesse alsoe

all the Commons of this Realme, give them and us, we beseech Thee, an Hart to love and dread Thee, and diligently to live after thy Commandementes, that our Harts and Tonges maie speake of thy Prayes, and oure Soules maye glorifie thie Name for ever and ever. Amen.

And wee doe appoynt, that the Warden shalle have the uppermost Seate or Pew on the right Syde of the Chappell, alone to hymselfe, wherein he shall from tyme to tyme reade Morneinge and Evening Prayers, and the Subwarden shall always sitte in the uppermost Seat over againste yt; savinge at such Tymes as the Warden shal be absente, and that the Subwarden is to say Prayers; which Office we do appointe and ordayne to be from tyme to tyme performed in the Warden's owne Seate. And all they other Poore Men shall sit in the Seates in Senioritie, according to their severall Admissions into the Hospitall, and as they shall be appoynted by the Warden. And the Poore Men shall at all other Tymès, but in Tyme of Publique Prayers, or when they are at their Private Meditations, or doe otherwise ymploye themselves in doeing some Worke of Profitt, not offensive to the Rest of the Bretherne, in their Chambers, or about the House, or their Gardens, give themselves to Readinge (if they can) of some good Books, or otherwise spende the Tyme in godly Conference, to better one another in Knowledge and Pietie.

CHAPTER IX.

Of the Lodginge for the Warden and Poore Men.

We doe ordayne, that the Warden for the Tyme being shall have all those Romes below Stayers between the Chappell and the Gatte, and likewise the private Use to hymselfe of the Common Hall and the Kitchen at all other Tymes of the Yeare, but upon the Feastivall Dayes, or when any Publique Service of the House ys to be performed there, and every Poore Man, according to his Senioritye and Admission into the House, by the Appoyntemente of the Warden, shall have a Chamber by hymselfe aloane; and toward the furnishinge of their sayd Chambers every one shall have, at the Charge of the Hospitall, a Bedstede, a Matte, a Rugge, and a Table, which the Warden shall deliver unto them upon their Admission, by Note in Writtinge indented, that upon the Death or Removal of any of them, he maie see that the sayd Goods be left in the House for those that doe succede in their Places. The Warden and all the Poore Men shall go to Bede, or to their Chambers, at or before Nyne of the Clocke at Night, and shall rise in the Summer Tyme at or before Seaven in the Morninge, and in the Winter at or before Eight, in case they be well: And for preventing of Sickenes or Infection, every one shall continually keepe his Chamber cleane, sweet, and handsome, and shall speciallye at all Tymes have great Care to see that there come noe Dannger to the Hospitall-house by reason of any Fyer or Candles, which shall be burninge in his Chamber, or which he shall carry thither, or to any other Place in the sayd House; and every one of them shall likewise carefully keepe and soe use the Furniture delivered unto hym, as yt be not purloyned, nor any waye misused or abused, and shall be readye to shewe yt at all Tymes to the Warden, when he shall demand the same; and noe Stranger whatsoever, nor any other that ys not of the Societie, shal be permitted to lodge or lye in the said Hospital, or suffered to come into the House after the Howres wherein the Gates are appoynted to be shutt, unlesse the sayd John Griffith shall be at any Tyme pleased to lye there, to look to the Government of the House, and to see how the Warden and Poore Men doe demean themselves, and perform their Duties in their severall Places; at which Tyme the sayd John Griffith and his Servants shall keepe the Hower appoynted for openinge and shuttinge of the Gates, and neyther goe in nor goe out of the Hospitall at any unseasonable Tymes, and shall see that his Servants doe behave themselves civille and orderlye, and give noe Offence to the Warden, nor any of the Poore Men.

CHAPTER X.

Of the Mounthly Provision of Viſtualls to be made by the Poore Men, and the Festivall Days.

Whereas the Founder, to prevent Disorder in his Almes-houses, and to take away the Occasion of Reforte to the Ale-houses, hath appoynted that everye Poore Man shall from tyme to tyme have One Months Paie beforehand, we doe therefore order, that every Poore Man shal Mounthly, upon Receipt of his Wages, make his Provision of Viſtualls therewith for the Month to come, and spende the same in his own Lodginge, and not abroad in the Towne, or elsewhere. And we doe further order and appoynte, that the Warden and Poore Men shall, accordinge to the Founder's Institution uppon these Feastivalles Dayes hereafter named, dine dine and suppe altogeather in the Common Hall of the Hospitall, and that their Meate shall be uppon those Dayes dressed in their own Kitchen. That ys to say, uppon all Saynts Daye, Christmas Daye, New Yearés Daye, Twelwe Daye, Candlemas Daye, Saint Mathyas Daye, being the Founder's Byrthe Daye, the Annunciation of our Lady, Easter Daye, Assention Day, Whit Sundaye, Trinitie Sunday, Mydsommer Daye, and Mychaelmas Daye. And that the Warden shall from tyme to tyme make the Provision of Diette for those Meales, and to defray the Charge thereof, he shall have over and above his former Allowance for hymselfe for every of those Dayes Twenty Pence, and for every one of the Poore Men Twelve Pence, to be taken and allowed unto hym uppon his yearly Accompts out of the Revenues of the House; and if any one of the Bretherne, beinge in Health, shall be absent any one of the sayd Feastivall Dayes, eyther from Dinner or Supper, he shall, besydes the Loose of his Meale, forfeit Twelve Pence, to be taken out of his next Monethes Paie.—But if any of the Poore Men be Sicke uppon any of those Dayes, in that Case the Warden shall give him his Allowance of Six Pence in Money for every Meal, or Meate to be sent hym out of the Hall at the Election of the sayd Sick Parson; at which Meales wee doe alsoe appoynte, that the Warden shall sitte at the upper End of the Table placed and seett in the Hall for that Purpose, that he maie see how the Poore Men doe demeane themselves at their Meat. And the Subwarden shall always sitte highest and next to the Warden on that Side next the Walle, and all the other Poore Men in Senioritye, accordinge to their Admission into the House, as the Warden shall think fitte to place them, and that the Gattes of the Hospitall be uppon those Dayes locked up and keptt shutte dureinge the Tyme that the Warden and Poore Men be eyther at Dinner or Supper; and that after their Meate is sette upon the Table, and the Company placed as ys aforesayd, the Warden shall both before and after Meales, with his Heade uncovered, in a reverent Manner, and with an audible and distincte Voyce, say Grace, and give Thanks to Almighty God for his Blessinges, and for their Refressions, and for rayseing up of the Founder of this Hospitall, in such Tearmes as ys hereafter by us prescribed, at the Saying whereof all the Poore Men shall stande up with their Heads uncovered, and attentively with Reverence listen and harken what ys sayde.

Grace before Meate.

We yeald Thee hartye and humble Thankes, most mercifull and gracious Father, for all these thy Benefitts and Blessings that wee are now to recieve of thy Bountye and Goodness, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christe. Amen.

We yealde Thee alsoe, most mightye and ever livinge God, all possible Thankes for our noble Founder Henry Howard Earle of Northampton, by whose Charitie we are here sustayned and nurished, beseechinge Thee, that we rightly usinge these thy Guiftes to the Honor of thy Holy Name, the Advancement of thy Glory, and the Salvation of our owne Soules, maie be in the Ende made Partakers of thy Heavently Kingdome, by the only Merittes and Mediation of thy deare Sonne our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christe. Amen.

Grace after Meate.

We yeald Thee hartye and humble Thankes, most mercifull and gracious Father, for these thy Benefittes and Blessings that we have at this Tyme recieved of thy Bountye and Goodness, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

We yeald Thee also, most mightie and ever liveing God, &c. as before Meate.

And the Warden and Poore Men shall not at the Tyme of their Meales, nor at any other Tyme, use any idle Scurrill, Scoffinge, Jestinge, or unbeseeminge Talke or Behaviour, but shall in all Things quietly, soberly, civillie, and modestly demeane themselves, and after Dynner is done, and Grace sayd, they shall, before they betake themselves to any other Busines, every one resort to his own Chamber, and there devoutly kneelleinge upon their Knees say the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Founder's Prayer to the Trinity.

CHAPTER XI.

Of Yearly Provision to be made of Fyer Wood.

We ordayne and appoynte, that the Warden shall be yearly allowed Fowre Poundes Thirteen Shillinges Four Pence, to make Provision of Thirtie Loades of Wood, to be bought at such Tymes and Seasons of the Year, as he maie buy the same beaft cheap, and to pay for Caryage thereof to the Hospitall, there to be parted and delyvered upon Bartholmew Eve in this Manner. That ys to say, Foure Load for his owne Fyreinge, and Two Loade apeece for every Poore Man, and Two Loades to be layd asyde in common to be used for dresseing their Meat uppon the Feastivall Dayes, and after such Partition made, the Warden shall see the same laid and pyled severally in the Woode Yarde, every Poore Mans his Proportion of Wood by itselfe, to the Ende they maie all knowe their owne, and better husbande their Store.

CHAPTER XII.

Of the Warden and Poore Men, their Gardens.

Wee ordayne, that the Warden, in that Portion of Grounde allotted unto hym for his Orcharde and Garden, and soe likewise every Poore Man in his Garden Plotte, shall from tyme to tyme plant such Fruites, and sowe such Seeds of any Sorte, as the Nature of the Soyle shall produce, and maie be of most Benefitt unto them, and shall alsoe keep the Pertition of Quicksett betwene each Garden, and others well and handfome, and supplye the same as any shall decaye; and that each Poore Man's Profitt arysinge out of this Garden may be the more, every one of them to save other Labourers Wages, and to keep hymselfe from Idleness, shall digge, sowe, weed, and dresse his Garden, plote hymselfe, if he have Strength and Abilitie of Body to doe yt; and that the Fruites and other Profitts to be yearly made of all the sayd severall Gardens may be the better kept and preserved, and the sayd Hospitall at all Tymes in more Safetye, wee doe alsoe appoynt and ordayne, that the Dore that goeth forth of the Hospitall into the sayd Gardens, and to the common Privie, shal be alwayes kept shutt, and that every one of the Poore Men shall have a Key thereof, that they maie at all Tymes, as often as they have Cause to goe thither, locke the sayd Dore after them, and when they come come forth : Which if they shall neglect to doe, he or they foe offendinge shall, for every Tyme he leaverth open the sayd Dore in the Day Tyme, be punished Six Pence, if it be in the Night Two Shillinges, to be by the Warden defaulted out of his next Mounthes Paie.

CHAPTER XIII.

Of the honest Conversation and orderly Demeanours which is required in the Members of this House, and the Punishments which are to be inflicted uppon such as are Delinquents.

Unworthye are they to be maynetayned by the Charitie and good Workes of others, who live a disorderly Life ; for the avoydinge whereof we ordayne, that the Warden and Poore Men of this Hospitall shall in their Lives and Conversations behave themselves religiously, honestly, quietly, and soberly, and shall specially devote themselves to the Service of God, and that they Poore Men shall live lovingly together, as Bretherne ought to doe, and shall help and cherishe one another in Sickenesse and in Health. They shall give all due Respecte and Reverence, and be obedient to the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, and in his Absence to the Subwarden, and to be ready at all Tymes to doe such Workes and other Thinges, eyther for the publique Good of the House, or their own private about their Gardens or elsewhere, as the Warden or Subwarden in his Absence shall appoynt, which by these Lawes and Statutes they are to performe, or which, upon the present Occasion offered, ys fittinge and necessarye for them to doe.

And seeinge it is in vayne to make Lawes, unless there be Punishment ordayned against the Offenders, we will, that if any Member of this Hospitall be guiltie of Athisme, Hereisie, or Blasphemys, or shall committ any Offence, which by the Laws of this Kingdome ys punishable, by Loose of Life or Member, or shall commit Adultery or Fornication, or shall draw any Manner of Weapon within the Hospitall to strike any Person with the same, or shall doe, or offer any notable or enormous Injury or Disgrace to the Warden of the Hospitall, or shall rayse or stir up any Mutinies or Factions in the said Hospitall, or shall willingly committ any Offence, or doe any Facte, by which Damage, Scandall, or Infamy shall growe unto the sayd Hospitall, or shall procure, perswade, or counsell any of the said Offences or Crymes to be committed ; that then in every such Case, uppon Proffie thereof made before the Parson of Hopeslay, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Baylyffe of Bishops Castle, and the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, or any Three of them, whereof the Warden of the Hospitall to be alwayes One, eyther by the Partye, Delinquent's owne Confession, or by the Natoryousnes of the Fact, or by Two sufficient Witnessses, or by any other lawfull Wayes or Meanes, the Offenders shall be expelled out of this Hospitall for ever.

And if any of the Poore Men doe eyther lie out of his Chamber within the Hospitall at Night, unless he be absent by lawful Lycence, or at any Time lodge or receive any Parson into his Chamber after the Howers lyMITTED for shutting in of the Gattes, and in Tyme of Prayer, unless it be in Tyme of Sickenes, that some are willinge to attende and watche for the Ease of the Partye, and those alsoe of such a Condition as maie draw noe Scandall upon the Societie, and to be permitted so to doe by Allowance and Leave of the Warden—Or if any of the Poore Men shall throwe any Chamber Pote or Filthe, or the Sweepings of his Chamber into the Square Court, or any of the Gardens, or shall keep Dogges in the House, or any other noysome Thyng to disquiete the Warden, or the other Poore Men, or shall be a Swearer, a Gamester, a Drunkeard, a Haunter of Tavernes or Alehouses, or shall rune upon the Score in any Alehouse, or goe at any Tyme without Leave into the Town of Clune, or be a Taker of Tobacco, a Brauller, a Scoulder, or Quarreller, a contentious Parson, or Sower of Discorde, or one that doth misbehave or unreverently demeane hymself, eyther in the Parish Church, or in the Chappell, or shall be absent from Prayers at the Howres and Tymes lyMITTED without lawfull Licence, or shall neglecte his private Devotions at the Tymes likewise appoynted; or if any of the Poore Men shall filche or steale any of the Neighboures Wood, or any Wood from any one of the other Poore Men, or any of the Fruites of their Gardens, or be a Tearer or Breaker of Hedgges abroad, or shall refusse, in case he be able to doe such Worke aboute the Hospitall, as the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge shall appoynte hym as aforesayd, and shall be for the same Crymes and Contempes, or any of them, convicted before the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, by all or any of the Wayes or Means aforesaid; that then the said Party soe offendinge shall, for the Furst Tyme, have a solemne Admonition given hym by the Warden, who shall declare unto hym the Greivousnes

of his Facte, and reprove hym for committinge of it, and warne hym for doinge the same againe, or the like. And for the Second Offence he shall forfette Two Shillings; for the Third Offence Three Shillings Fower Pence; for the Fourth Sixe Shillings Eight Pence; for the Fiftē Tenn Shillings; for the Sixt his whole Monethes Pay: And if any such Parson shall offende the Seventh Tyme in the same Offence, or any other of the Offences before-mentioned, and be thereof convicted before the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Byshoppe Castle, and the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, or any Three of them, whereof the Warden of the Hospitall to be alwayes one, he shall be amoved and put out of the Hospitall, and remayne ever after a Parson incapable and disabled to be a Member thereof.

Wee doe alsoe ordayne, that if any Variance or Controversie happen or arise between the Poore Men amonge themselves, that the same shall be indifferently hearde and determined by the Warden for the Tyme being; and if the Warden finde eyther Partye obstinate and unwillingly declyninge from his Order and Ende, he shall then acquaint the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Bishops Castle for the Tyme beinge therewith, that he and they togeather, or any Three of them, whereof the Warden for the Time being to be One, maie take such further Course therein as they shall thinke fitte: And if any of them shall doe the conterarye, he shall loose and forfeit for the First Offence One Monthes Paie, for the Second Two Monthes Pay, for the Third Three Monthes Paie, and for the Forwth he shall be absolutely expelled the House for ever.

We doe alsoe ordayne, that if any of the Poore Men shall loose any Key or Locke appertaininge to there Chamber, or to the Door that goeth out of the Hospitall into the Gardens, or otherwise decay any Doore, Ymplement, or Furniture, that doth or shall belong unto the Hospitall, by Willfullness or Negligence, that the Warden shall cause the Partie so offending to make Redresse for every such Offence, or otherwise to staye so much of the yearly Stipende of every such Offender, as maie suffice for the yemediate and spedie Redresse or Amendement thereof.

We doe ordayne, that if any Almes be at any Tyme given by any well disposed Parson or Parsons to the Poore Men in common (without begginge or askinge) that the same shall be equallie divided berwene them by the Warden of the Hospitall. And if any of the Poore Men shall begge or aske any Almes of any, to the Dishonour of thee Founder, that that hath so well provided for hym, that he shall be punished for the First Offence One Monthes Paie, for the Second Fortye Shillings, and after the Thirde Offence be expelled absolutely.

C H A P T E R X I V .

Of the Weekly Corrections of such as shall offende againste thesse Ordinances.

For the better Orderinge and Goverment of the Poore Men, and to the ende the Misdemeanours and Wrongs committed and done by any of them maie be from tyme to tyme heard and punished accordinge to these Ordinances, that by One Man's Censure the Residue may be admonished and terrified, We doe ordayne, that the Warden of the Hospitall shall every Week uppon the Saturdaye presently after Evening Prayer, before the Gattes of the Hospitall be opened, repair to the common Hall, and give Sommons to the Poore Men to attende hym there, untill they be by hym dismissed; and the sayd Warden shall then call to the Subwarden for his Presentmentes for that Weeke, and shall demaunde if any there present had any Wronge or Grievance offered unto hym by any Member of the House, or if any of them knowe or can informe hym whether any Member of this Hospitall have committed any Thinge which by these Statutes are prohibited or commanded; or if any Wronge or Trespasse hath bene done to the Hospitall by any Member of the House, or by any other, and by whom; and the said Warden shall will them to declare the Particulars thereof, if any such Thinge be, remembring them that they are so bound to doe by their Oathes.—And if any Member of the said Hospitall shall be accused or charged to have transgressed against any these our Ordinances, or to have cosened, deceived, or wronged any other of the Members of the House, or any Stranger, then in every such Case the Warden shall examine the Partie soe charged thereof; and if upon his Examination he confesse the same, or that it be testified against him, then the said Warden shall inflict uppon the said Offender such Censure as by these Statutes are appoynted to be ymposed by him in that Behalfe. And if the Offence be such as deserve Expulsion, or any grievous Censure or Punishment which the said Warden alone ys not to inflict, he shall then acquaint the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Byshoppes Castle therewith, that they and he together, or any Three of them, whereof

the Warden to be One, maie take such Order therein as they shall thinke meete. And the sayd Warden shall also then enquier, whether any Member of the Houfe be sicke, and how he ys looked unto, what his Disease is—And if it be infectious, the Warden, and in his Absence the Subwarden, shall take Order that the Party be kept and looked unto, in such Manner as that the Residue of the Company be not infected by hym. And if any of the Poore Men doe not weekly appeare, and give his Attendance upon the Warden as aforesayd (having noe lawfull Impediment to the contrary) he shall forfeit Twelve Pence for every such Default: And the Warden shall from tyme to tyme register in the Book before by us appointed, to be by hym kept for this Purpose, all Convictions and Admonitions, which shall be given to the Offenders; and the Penalties or Sums of Money, which shall be forfeited in the Case aforesayd, shall be defaulted out of the Offender's Stipende or Allowance, at the Paie Days next happeninge after the sayd Offences and Convictions; and the sayd Forfeitures shall be yearely reserved by the Warden in his Hands, untill the Tyme before appointed unto hym to make his Accomptes, at which Tyme he shall produce his sayd Booke of Convictions, and deliver up the Money to be put into the Treasury of the said Hospitall.

And wee doe further ordayne, that if it shall happen that the Warden of the Hospitall do eyther neglect the Duties, which by these Statutes he ys enjoyned to doe, or otherwise misdemeane hymselfe in the Execution of his Place, or doe any thinge to the Hurte or Prejudice of this Hospitall, or committ any Crime or Offence worthy of Punishment; that then, upon Complaynte and Proove thereof made, the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Byshopps Castle for the Tyme being, or any Three of them, shall and will from tyme to tyme inflict such Punishment upon hym, eyther by Admonission, or by moderate Fyne to be sett upon hym, and to be defalked out of hys yearly Salarye or Stipende, to be put into the Treasury as aforesayd, or by Expulsion of hym out of his Place according to his Demerittes; and as the said Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Byshopps Castle, or any Three of them, shall thinke fytt, and hold to be consonant to Justice and Equitie.

CHAPTER XV.

Of the Treasure House, and keeping the Evidences.

Whereas there is a speciall Room with a stronge Lookke and Three Keyes of severall Wardes allowed for keeping the Evidences of the Lands, Possessions, and Treasure of the Hospitall, and for other Things of Moment beinge not of dayly Use, wherein there is already placed and sette by our Appointment One stronge large Cheste bounde with Irone, with Three Locks and Keys, we doe ordayne, that the Parson of Hopesaye for the Tyme beinge shall alwayes keep One of the Keyes of the sayd Treasure House Door, and One of the Keys likewise of the Chest; and that the Vicar of Clune for the Tyme beinge shall keepe One other of the Keys, as well of the Treasure House Door, as of the Cheste; and the Warden of the Hospitall shall keepe the other Two Keyes, and in the Vacancie of the Place of the Warden, the Subwarden for the Tyme beinge; and when and as often as yt shall happen eyther of the sayd Churches of Hopesaye or Clune to be voyd and without Incombeñtes, that dureinge the Vacancye of that Church soe voyde, the Vicar of Byshoppes Castle for the Time beinge shall have from tyme to tyme the Costodye of those Two Keyes; and so likewise in Cases of Sickenes, or necessary Absence of any of the sayd Parsons at any Tyme from his Benefittes, that eache one of them shall supply what the other, by reason of Infirmitie or Absence, cannot performe: In which Cheste shal be kepte the Letters Pattentes touching the Foundation and Donation of the Hospitall, and likewise the Letter Pattentes graunted to us to make Statutes, the Common Seale, One Coppy of these Ordinances, and such Stocke of Money as shall be yearly remayneinge after all Allowances reserved for Reparations, and other necessary Disbursementes; and all other Evidences whatsoever sorted in several Boxes, and subscribed what Possessions the same concerne.

Wee doe further ordayne, that noe Evidence be at any Tyme taken from thence, but upon special Occasion, and then also not to be longer kept from thence then necessary Occasion for the Use thereof shall requier; there shall alsoe remayne in the said Cheste a Paper Booke, wherein shall be entered the Parcells of all Evidences from tyme to tyme taken forth, the Day and Yeare when and to whom, and whose Handes it is to be delivered to, and for how long Tyme, as is is presupposed ; and the Daye also and Yeare shal be entered when and by whom such Parcell of Evidence is delivered in againe.

CHAPTER XVI.

How the Impropriations shal be demissed.

Seeinge the only Meaines of relieving and mayntayninge the Members of this Hospitall ys to be devised and raysed out of the Fee Farmes Rentes of the Parsonages of Clune and Byshoppes Castle, and forth of the Gleebe Tythes and yearly Profits arysing and growinge of the Rectories and Parsonages of Knighton and Churchstocke aforeseyd, which are demisable, it is requisite that their should be great Care and Heede taken in letting thereof for the best Profitte and Advantage of the Hospitall ; wee therefore ordayne, that no Lease or other Graunte shall be made therof by the Warden and Poore Men of eyther of the said Parsonages of Knighton and Churchstocke, without the Consent and Approbation of the said Jhon Griffith dureinge his Life, and after his Decease, of the Parson of Hopefaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Baylisfe of Byshoppes Castle for the Tyme beinge, or Three of them at the least ; and that noe Lease hereafter to be made of the sayd Parsonages of Knighton shall exceed the Number of One and twentye Years from the makeinge thereof, nor without the Reservation of such yearly Rent as is now paid for the same, viz. the yearly Rent of Forty-fye Pounds per Annum, or more, which shall continue payable dureinge the whole Tearme and Continuance of the Lease, and payable Halfe yearly at or within the sayd Hospitall, at the Feastes now accustomed ; and that in every such Lease soe to be made, there shall be contayned one Condition and Provisoe, that if the Tenant, his Executors or Assignes, shall not well and truely satisfie and paie, or lawfully tender unto the sayd Warden and Poore Men of the sayd Hospitall and their Successors, at or within the sayd Hospitall, the yearly Rent or Rentes by such Lease reserved, within Twentye Dayes after the Daye or Tyme ymmitted for Paymente thereof, without any Demande to be made ; that then yt shall be lawfull to and for the sayd Warden and Poore Men and their Successors, to re-enter and make voyde the sayd Lease : And that in and by the said Lease the Lessee shall covenant for hymself and his Assignes at his and their own proper Costes and Charge sufficiently to repayre, mayntayne, and keep yearly the Chauncells of the Churches of Knighton aforeſayd, and of Stowe, in the ſayd Countye of Salope, and all the Buildings and Houſes, and all Hedges, Fences, and Ditches in and uppon any of the Gleebe Lands belonginge or appertayninge to the ſayd Rectorye, or any Part, Parcell, or Member thereof, and ſo to leave the ſayd Premises in the Ende of the Tearme ſufficiently repaired : And the Leſſee ſhall further covenante at all Times yearlye dureinge the Tearme, well and truly to paie and diſcharge all Synodes, Proxes, Pentions, Portions, Taxes, Tenthes, Subſidies, Lownes, Payements, and Rents, and all other Duties and Certenties whatſoever, ordinarye or extraordinarye, goeing out or to be paid for the ſame (the Curat his Wages of Tenn Poundes per Annum for ſerveinge the Cure of Knighton only excepted) which we will and ordayne, that the Warden of the Hoſpittall ſhall from tyme to tyme paye Halfe-yearly to the ſayd Curat for the Tyme beinge, by even Portions forth of the Rents as he ſhall receive the ſame : And yt ſhall be further provided and conditioned by every ſuch Leaſe ſoe to be made of the Premiſſes, that the Leſſee, his Executors nor Aſſignes, ſhall not alien the ſame, nor any Parte thereof, nor demiffe the ſame, nor any Parte thereof, longer then for One Yeare, without Lycence firſt had in Writtinge of the ſayd Warden, and the greater Parte of the Poore Men, with the Conſent of the ſayd Jhon Griffith dureinge his Liſſe, and after his Deceaſe, of the Parſon of Hopeſaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliſſe of Byſhoppe's Caſtle, or Three of them at leaſt in that Behalfe, unleſs it be where they diſpoſe of the ſame by their laſt Will and Teſtament : And as touching the Rectory of Churchſtocke, which is now in Leaſe, by Graunt thereof made by the late Queene Elizabeth, for the Tearme of Twenty Yeares yet to come and unexpired, and whereuppon there is reſerved the yearlye Rent of Sixteene Poundes Three Shillinges Fowre Pence, and noe more, and Fyve Poundes Sixe Shillinges Eighte Pence to the Curate for his Stipende ; wee doe ordayne and appoynt, that upon the Expiration of the ſayd Tearme, or uppon Surrender, Forfeiture, or other Determination whatſoever of the ſayd Leaſe, the ſayd Rectorye of Churchſtoke ſhall firſt happen to come to the Handes and Poſſeſſion of the Warden and Poore Men, that ſame ſhall be demiffed in ſuch Manner for the Tearme and under the ſame or like Conditions that we have before lymitted and appoynted for the Leaſſinge of the Rectorye of Knighton ; and that there ſhall be reſerved uppon the Leaſe ſoe to be from tyme to tyme made or graunted of the ſayd Rectory and Parſonage of Churchſtocke (accordinge to the Founder's Intention) the yearly Rente of Fowrescowre and Tenne Poundes, or more, whereof the Curate for the Tyme being shall have yearly for his Stypende Tenne Poundes paid unto hym Halfe-yearly by the Warden, at the Feastes or Dayes limitted to the Warden for Payment of the sayd Rente: And wee doe alsoe ordayne and appoynte, that all such Money as shall be rayfed or made, eyther by Increase of Rentes or Fynes uppon the sayd Leases, together with the Overplus of the present yearly Revenues thereof (if any shall be) all necessary Charges beinge deducted, shall be from tyme to tyme layd up in the Treasurie House, and be preserved and kept there for any extraordinary Occasion, as to defraye Charges of Reprations, and of Law Suites: And to the End that yt maie appeare, that all such States as at any Time shall be graunted of the Premisses, be and are demised and letten to the best Benefitte and Advantage of the Hospitall; we doe ordayne, that when any such Lease is propounded for and before the same is sealed, that the Warden shall upon the Daye by us before appoynted for takeinge his yearly Accompt, present the same fayrely ingrossed in Parchment unto the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Baylife of Byshopps Castle, or such of them as shall be then there to take his Accomptes, to the Ende the sayd Lease maie be there publyquely seald in their Presence, and that the sayd Fine and Overplus (if any be) of that Yeares Revenues, maie be then layd up as aforesaid in the Treasurie House, together with all such Money as shall be saved by Vacations of Places, eyther of the Warden, or of any of the Poore Men, betweene the Death of the one, and placing of the other.

CHAPTER XVII.

Of the Stocke in Money appoynted by the Founder in his Will to be lefte to this Hospitall.

Whereas the Founder of this Hospitall hath alsoe erected One other Hospitall in East Greenwich, in the Countye of Kent, for the Mayntenance of One Warden and Twenty Poore Men; and likewise a Third Hospitall at Ryseinge, in the County of Northfolke, for the Mayntenance of a Governesse, and Twelve other Poore Women; and by his last Will and Testament hath willed, that after the sayd Three Hospitalls were buylt and endowed, that some Stocke should be put into the same, and for that Purpose there was by us accordingly assigned the Some of Fowre hundred

Poundes,

Poundes, whereof One hundred for the Stock of this Hospitall, Two hundred for the Hospitall at Greenwich, and One hundred Poundes for the other at Ryseinge. Which sayd Stockes, if they should have been put into the severall Treasure Houses of the sayd Hospitalls to lye dead and not ymployed, would have bene a great Losse, besides the Daunger that myght happen by Casualtie, wee did therefore, by special Statut by us heretofore made, for the Government of the sayd Hospitall at Greenwich, assign and appoynt that the sayd Jhon Griffith, the Founder's Executor, forth of such Money as he had then remaininge in his Hands towards the Performance of his Maister's Will, and of such Things as he appoynted to be performed, should with the sayd Fowre hundred Poundes purchase Lands of Inheritance of the clear yearly Value of Twenty Poundes, to the end the Rentes, Issues, and Profettes thereof should be used and ymployed as hereafter in these Presentes is expressed, and not otherwise; that is to say, that the Some of Ten Poundes hereof yearly should be and remayne to the Use of that Hospitall at Greenwich, and Five Poundes yearly to this Hospitall, and the other Fyve Pounds to the Hospitall at Ryseinge, as in and by the said Statutes more at large appeareth. Which sayd Landes of the sayd Value of Twenty Poundes the sayd Jhon Griffith hath sithence accordingly purchased and assigned to the sayd Warden and Poore Men of the said Hospitall in Greenwich, in such Sorte as in and by the said Statute he is enjoyned; wee doe therefore order and appoynt that the said Some of Five Poundes, assigned as aforesaid to the Use of this Hospitall, be yearly paid in One entire Payment at the Feastes of All Suintes by the Warden of the Hospitall of Greenwich, upon Demaund thereof, to the Warden of this Hospitall, to be by hym from tyme to tyme ymployed as Parte and Parcell of the Revenues of this House.

C H A P T E R XVIII.

Of the Visitor.

Wee doe further ordayne, that the Byshoppe of Hereford for the Tyme beinge, by hymselfe or his special Commissary, have Authority to visitt the Hospitall, and all the Parsones in the same, Once in every Three Years, and oftner if Need shall requier, and to see the Statutes and Ordinances observed; and also to performe (accordinge to these Statutes and Ordinances) whatsoever by his Inquisition he shall finde to be amisse in the Government of the sayd Hospitall and
the

the Parsons of the same. And at every such Visitation the Byshoppe shall specially require the Parson of Hopesaye, the Vicar of Clune, and the Vicar and Bayliffe of Byshoppe Castle for the Tyme beinge, to geve their Attendance there upon hym or his Commissary. And the sayd Byshoppe or his Commissary shall not take of the Hospitall towards his Charges in Visittinge above One Payre of Gloves, of the Price of Tenn Shillinges.

CHAPTER XIX.

Of Readinge the Statutes.

Wee doe ordayne, that there shall be Two fayre Liedger Bookes, wherein these Statutes shall be written, the One of which shall be layde up, as is before appoynted, in the Chest in the Treasure House, amongst the Charters of greatest Importe, and the other shall remaine in the Custody of the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge; which sayd Booke he shall yearly bringe into the Hall uppon the Daye lymitted unto hym to passe his Accomptes, to the end that One of the Parsons so nominated as aforesayd to take they same maie then and there in his and their Poore Mens Presence publicly reade the Statutes; that they thereby may be the better instructed to examine the State of the House, and all Misdemeanours in the Warden and Poore Men, and how to redresse and punishe the same accordingly. And wee doe further ordayne, that the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge shall Fowre Tymes every Yeare, at the Fowre usuall Feasts of the Yeare; viz. the Nativity of our Lord God, the Annunciation of our blessed Lady the Virgine Mary, the Nativity of Saint Jhon Baptist, and Saynt Mychaell the Archangell, or within Fowre Dayes after every of the sayd Feasts, openly and distinctly read in the Common Hall of the Hospitall these Ordinances and Statutes. At which Tymes he shall admonishe all the Poore Men to be present, and to give attentive Care at the Readinge thereof, to the end they may be fresh in their Memoryes, whereby they may be more carefull and mindfull to observe them. And if any of the Poore Men doe obstinately refuse to be present at the Readinge of the Statutes as aforesayd, havinge Notice thereof, and noe lawfull Impedimente to the contrary why he could not be present, he shall for the First Offence forfeite One Mounth Paie, and for the Second Three Mounthes Paye, and for the Thyrd be for ever expelled the House.

CHAPTER XX.

Of the Oath, which the Warden and Poore Men are to take.

Wee doe ordayne, that the Warden now already placed in the Hospitall, and his Successors for ever after their Election, and before they be admitted to execute the Place, shall before the sayd Jhon Griffith during his Life, or before the Parson of Hopefaye, and the Vicar of Clune and Byshopps Castle for the Tyme beinge, or One of them, take the Oath hereafter ensweing.

The Forme of the Oath.

I A. B. doe sware, that I will to the uttermost of my Power from henceforth, soe longe as I remaine Warden of this Hospitall, well, and truly, and faithfully, by God's holy Assistance, observe, obey, performe, and fullfill all and every the Statutes, Lawes, and Ordinances of the same, which on my Part and in my Place are required to be performed. And I shall not hereafter at any Tyme willfully procure or give Assent unto any Endammage, Hurt, or Endammaginge of the said Hospitall, in any the Lands, Possessions, and Hereditamentes, or in any the moveable Goodes therof: But to my best Power and Skill shall sett forward the good Estate, Commoditie, and Well-fare therof, whiles I live.

So helpe me God and Christ Jesus.

Wee alsoe ordayne, that every One of the Poore Men now already placed in the Hospitall, and every One of the Poore Men that shall be elected unto any Place in the sayd Hospitall, shall from Tyme to Tyme for ever hereafter, before his Admission, mutatis mutandis, take the presedent Oath, before the Warden of the Hospitall for the Tyme beinge, in the Common Hall of the Hospitall, and in the Presence of the Poore Men, or the more Parte of them; with this Difference (instead of Warden) so longe as he shall be a Member of this Hospitall.

CHAPTER XXI.

Lastly, notwithstanding these foresayd Rules and Ordinances Wee doe reserve to ourselves Power and Aurhorytie, accordinge to his Majesties sayd Letters Pattentes, at all Tyme and Tymes dureinge our naturall Lives, to adde, to take away, to declare forvett, and change all or any of the foresayd Rules and Ordinances, and with the same to dispenpence, and new Statut to ordayne, as to us shall seem convenient.

The Consecration of the Chapel of Wyke-Champfleur, in the Pariſh of Brewton, in Somerſetſhire. By Arthur Lake, Lord Biſhop of Bath and Wells, July 18, 1624.

IN Dei nomine, Amen. Per preſens publicum inſtrumentum cuilibet evidenter appareat, & ſit notum. Quod die dominico, viz. decimo octavo die menſis Julij, Anno Domini juxta computationem Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ milleſimo ſexcenteſimo viceſimo quarto regniſque illuſtriſſimi in Chriſto principis, ac Domini noſtri Jacobi, Dei gratiâ, Angliæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ Regis, Fidei Defenſoris, &c. viceſimo ſecundo, & Scotiæ quinquageſimo ſeptimo, inter horam octavam & nonam ante meridianam ejusdem diei, in preſentia mei Willielmi Woodhowſe, Artium Magiſtri, Notarii Publici, Reverendus Pater, ac Dominus Arthurus, Providentia Divina, Bathoniensis & Wellensis epiſcopus, immediatè eum ſequente diſcreto viro Henrico Southworth armigero, Domino manerij de Weeke Champſleur, alias Wyke Chaumſlore, comitatu Somerſetenſe, ac dioceliſ noſtræ predictæ, eumque concomitantibus venerabilibus viris Timotheo Revett, Sacræ Theologiæ Profeſſore, Archidiaconatus Bathoniensis Archidiacono, Roberto Gorge Milite, Hugone Halfwell, & Edwardo Byſſe ſeniore Armigeris, cum multis aliis generoliſ & diſcretis perſoniſ, ab hoſpitio dicti Henrici Southworth ſito & ſituato in villâ de Weeke Champflower predicta, ad capellam ſive oratorium per eundem Henricum in dicta villa noviter erectam, & ampliata, more ſolenni progrediebatur. In cujus capellæ introitu ſive porticu gradus pauliſper ſiſtenti, a dicto Henrico Southworth, cum qua decuit reverentiâ, ſupplicatus eſt in hæc verba.

Reverend Father in God, whereas aunciently and Time out Mind in this Place there hath been a Chappell provided for Celebration and Obſervation of Divine Service, appointed for the Inhabitants of the Hamlett or Village of Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumſlore, to repair unto, and to ſerve God in, which, by reaſon of the Ruines and the great Decays thereof, I have pulled downe and wholly re-edified, and built anew, as now it is; and have alſo provided Ornaments neceſſary (according to the Rites of our Church) to be uſed for the Solemnization of Divine Service, to the ſetting forth of God's Glory therein; my humble Suite and Deſire to your good Lordſhip now is, that you will be pleaſed, out of your religious Care, to conſecrate this Place, with all the Ornaments thereof, thereof, being such as I have provided only for the Solemnization of Divine Service in this Place.

A quo hujusmodi responsum accepit.

If this be your Desire, you must first make an Oblation of the Place unto God, and devote it wholly to his Service.

Ad quod sic replicavit dictus Henricus.

I am right willing so to doe, and for that End and Purpose only have I built it, And here (O Lord!) out of my temporall Goods, which Thou of thy great and infinite Mercy hast given mee, I (in greatest Humility of Heart) humbly offer this Place, with the Ornaments which I have provided therefore, to be consecrated fully and wholly to thy Service. And therefore I divest my selfe of all or any Right which heretofore I have had in them. And in your Lordship I invest the Church totally and perpetually, with the Right and Possession of them.

Cui Dominus episcopus.

Seeing you have set out this Place for God's Service; and are desirous it shall be thereunto consecrated, I will, in God's Name, take Possession of it for his Service.

Et sic fatus, genua flectens, personas presentes, ut secum simul orarent, rogavit, collectam repetens.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our Doings, with Thy most gracious Favour, and further us with Thy continual Helpe, that in all our Works begunn, continued, and ended in Thee, wee may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally by Thy Mercy obtaine everlasting Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Quâ finitâ, semel erigens, ostium capellæ (quod antea clausum erat) aperuit, solusq; intrans, & post se claudens ostium, sic locutus est.

Peace be to this Howse.

In quâ, cum paululum temporis permanisset, revertens, ostium rursus aperuit, & multitudinem extrantem, ut intraret verbis invitavit hifce.

You may now, in God's Name, enter into God's Howse, that wee may goe on to consecrate it to his Service.

Simulque inter intrandum versiculum septimum Psalmi vicesimi quarti repetiit.

Lift up your Heads, O yee Gates, and bee yee lift up yee everlasting Doores! and the King of Glory shall come in.

TOM. III.

C c c

Sequens

Sequente autem multitudine (modo & formâ præcitatâ) intra cancellos dictæ capellæ progrediens, in sellâ ibi satis commode posita confedit, & dictum Henricum Southworth iussit ornamenta cæteraque ad usum dictæ capellæ a se parata & seposita, sibi exhibere. Qui primum exhibuit mensam solemniizando sacro sancto cœnæ Dominicæ sacramento dedicatam, cui manum imponens dictus Reverendus Pater dixit.

What is consecrated to God, let no Man profane.

Tunc obtulit dictus Henricus dicto Reverendo Patri reliqua ornamenta, & libros in catalogo indenturæ donationis per eundem Henricum dicto Reverendo Patri postea tradidit. Specificata quorum singula cum acciperet dictus pater, in mensam predictam deposuit, & manum singulis sic depositis imponens, verba consecrationis præfatæ pronunciavit, nempe,

What is consecrated to God, let no Man profane.

Quibus peractis, dictus Reverendus Pater conciunculum habuit de consecratione templorum & rerum sacrarum, in qua exposuit verba Apostoli in hunc fere modum.

That Things were consecrated to God by the { Word and Prayer.

And touching the Word there can be no Question; for in the Law, Levit. Chap. 29. God commandeth to reverence his Sanctuary, and in the Prophetts calleth the Temple his House of Prayer. In the Gospell, John, Chap. 2. Christ alledgeth the Place of the Prophet, and according to it reformes the Temple: The Apostle biddeth the Hebrews not to forsake τὸ ἐκκλησίαν, we render it Assemblies, but it is meeting in a Synagogue. Both he and St. James, writing to the Hebrews, give the Name of a Synagogue to the Place of Divine Worship; but writing to the Gentiles, St. Paul, 1 Cor. 11. contradistinguisheth Ecclesiam to private Houses. In the Acts these Places are called ἐκκλησίαι. Add herunto the Practise from the Beginning of the World continued in all Ages, following the Imperiall Constitutions and Canons of the Church, prescribing the Fabricke of such Places. There can be no Question then of the first Part of Sanctification God's Word and Will.

But what wee doe according to God's Ordinance, wee must pray, that in doing of it wee may have God's Blessing, that our Hope may be as well exercised, as our Faith is assured. Let us then come to the second Part of Consecration, humble and hearty Prayers unto God.

Deinde

Deinde dictus Reverendus Pater genua flectens publicè legit precationis formulam quæ sequitur.

Most glorious, most mercifull God and Father, Thou wert in this Place, and wee were not aware, therefore hath Thy Sanctuary been polluted. This hath been neglected as a prophane Howse. Thou hast stirred up the Spirit of Thy Servant; hee recalleth to Mind how reverend this Place was; his Heart Thou hast moved to delight in these sacred Stones; it grieved him to see them in the Dust. Therefore hath he offered willingly; he hath prepared it decently for Thy Service. Bee mercifull, wee beseech Thee, O Lord, to the hy-past Neglect, and lay not that Prophanation to our Charge.. By Thy Grace repaire the Ruines of his Spirituall Temple, that by his Guists hath repaired this Materiall. Multiply Thy Blessings upon him and his, b th in this Life, and that which is to come. And as for this Howse, wee beseech-Thee, O mercifull Father, to returne to it againe upon the Arke of thy Strength, our Saviour Jesus Christ. And let that Thy gracious Presence be testefyed therein unto us by the powerfull Operations of the Holy Ghost. Blessed Spirit, revive the Divine Oràcle, and Altar in this Place: Let Thy Word read here be a Light to our Feet, and a Lanterne to our Steps; and let the Liturgye that shall be said here be a Sacrifice of a sweet Smell, acceptable unto Thee. Let all that begg penitently Favour here, have Remission of their Sinns; and let them receive all expedient Blessings, by devoutly begging them here. Let all that come into this Howse in the Multitude of Thy Mercyes and in Thy Feare, worshiipp in this Holy Place, have a comfortable Experience, that this is nothing els but the Howse of God, and this is the Gate of Heaven. Blesse, Lord, by mee, whom Thou hast appointed to blesse in Thy Name; and let the Words which I have prayed be neare unto Thee, O Lord our God, Day and Night, that Thou mayst hallow this Place, and Thine Eyes and Thy Heart be there continually, even for the meritorious Intercession of our Blessed Savicur; to whom with Thee, and the Holy Ghost, be all Honour and Glory, World without End. Amen.

Quâ finitâ, semel erigens, & in sellâ rursum confidens sic fatus est.

How reverend now is this Place? Surely it is nothing els but the Howse of God; it is the Gate of Heaven.. Wherefor a whosoever henceforward approacheth this Place, let him put off his Shoes, that is, his earthly Cogitations and Affections, assuring himselfe, that the Ground whereupon he treadeth is Holy Ground.

Postea schedulam a me notario publico predicto in manus suas venerabiles porrectam, sententiam consecrationis capellæ predictæ continentem subscripsit, & subscriptam mihi prefato notario publico tradidit, ut publicè legeretur, & ut inter monumenta in archivis suis custodienda reponeretur. Indeque & de predicta, acta conficerentur in perpetuam rei memoriam mandavit & postulavit. Cujus quidem sententiæ tenor sequitur, & est talis.

In Dei nomine, Amen. Cum nobis supplicatum sit & declaratum ex parte discreti, & in Christo dilecti Henrici Southworth de Wells, comitatu Somersetenſe, armigeri, Domini manerij de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumſlore, in comitatu predicto. Quod ab antiquo, & a tempore cujus contrarij memoria hominis non exiſtit, fuerit ecclesia ſive capella in villa ſive hamletta de Weeke predicta, ad quam inhabitantes infra dictam hamlettam ſeu villam de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumſlore, per totum tempus predictum acceſſerint, & ibidem ſacris publice interſuerint, & Deo interſervierint. Et quod domus ſua infra villam, ſive hamlettam de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumſlore predictam, una cum habitationibus villanorum, tenentium ſuorum in dicta villa habitantium, adeo longè diſtet ab ecclesia parochiali de Brewton, dioceſecis noſtræ Bathoniensis & Wellenſis, ac comitatu Somersetenſe predicto, ut ad ſacras preces, & verbi divini predicationem, ſecundum leges hujus inclyti regni Angliæ in dictâ eccleſiâ audiendas, & ſacro ſanctum cœnæ Dominicæ ſacramentum dicti villani commodè, præſertim tempore hyemali, propter viarum incommoditatem & locorum diſtantiam, accedere non poſſint. Et quod capella predicta per aliquod tempus collapsa penitus, & deſtructa, nunc curâ & ſumptibus dicti Henrici Southworth, armigeri, conſtructa, de novo reædificata, & ampliata fuerit. Et propterea cum ſupplicatum ſit, ut nos capellam per eundem Henricum jam noviter (ut prædicitur) conſtructam, reædificatam, & ampliata in dictâ villâ de Weeke predicta, conſecrare velimus, in quâ dictus Henricus, & inhabitantes exiſtentes pro tempore poſſint divinis officiis pro more antiquo intereſſe, & ſacramenta recipere: Nos petitioni dicti Henrici annuentes, & deferre volentes, hanc capellam jam noviter conſtructam, reædificatam, & ampliata divino cultui & divinorum celebrationi, ac tam ad ſacramenta & ſacramentalia in eadem miniſtranda, quam ad divinas preces Deo fundendas, & verbum Dei purè & ſincerè proponendum, & predicandum, & de mortuos inhumando & ſepeliendo, ac cætera omnia ſacra & divina perficienda quæ de jure divino, ac etiam legibus, ſanctionibus, & conſtitutionibus Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ, Anglicanæ, in hac parte requisita sunt & necessaria, in Dei honorem & pro salute animarum, & usu omnium in eadem villâ sive hamlettâ de Weeke predictâ habitantium, (quantum in nobis est, & de jure, legibus, & statutis hujus inclyti regni Angliæ possumus, & nobis licet) consecramus, & per nomen Capellæ Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumflore, diocesis Bathoniensis & Wellensis, ac comitatus Somersfetenfis predicti dedicamus, & sic dedicatam, consecratam, & assignatam esse, & in futuris temporibus perpetuis remanere debere, palam & publicè pronunciamus & declaramus, & per nomen predictum perpetuis futuris temporibus nominandam & appellandam fore, decernimus, & sic per presentes nominamus, in nomine Patris, Filii, & Spiritus Sancti : Salvis semper juribus ecclesiæ parochialis de Brewton predictæ, & curati ibidem quorum dignitati, libertati, consuetudinibus, redditibus, commoditatibusve quibuscunq; hac nostra consecratione hujus capellæ sive oratorii, in nullo præjudicare vel derogare intendimus.

In cujus rei testimonium, sigillum nostrum episcopale (quo in similibus utimur) & manu nostra præsentibus apposuimus, die dominico existente, decimo octavo die mensis Julij, die, viz. consecrationis capellæ predictæ, anno regni domini nostri Jacobi, Dei gratia, Angliæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ Regis, Fidei Defensoris, &c. vicesimo secundo, & Scotiæ, quinquagesimo septimo, anno Domini millesimo sexcentesimo vicesimo quarto, & consecrationis nostræ anno octavo.

Hâc lecta, Reverendus Pater predictus verba in hunc ferè sensu protulit.

Seeing wee have now dedicated this Howse unto God's Service, wee cannot doe better, then while we are here assembled, to put it to that Use, and present as it were a first Fruit of Divine Service, in Hope that it will be continued by the Meanes of those who have desired the Consecration.

Quibus dictis, recitatæ sunt preces publicæ, cum psalmis, capitibus, epistolâ, & evangelio, presenti consecrationi congruentibus, dicto Reverendo Patre ministrante, Richardo Hadlie, & Thoma Woodyate, artium magistris capellanis ejus presentibus & assistentibus, & pro collectâ recitabatur hæc precatio.

O incomparable Deity and most glorious Majesty! Thou dwellest in Light which no Man can attaine unto. Thou fillest Heaven and Earth, yet dost Thou vouchsafe to grace these earthly Mansions with Thy sacred Presence; here art Thou pleased to entertaine a Communion with us sinfull Men. Wee beseech beseech Thee, O Lord, so to cloath all that shall doe Thee Service in this Place with Holynesse becomming Thy Howse, that their Devotion may be alwayse acceptable unto Thee. Let not the Entercourse be ever intercepted of Thy Grace descending upon them, and their Sacrifice ascending unto Thee. And after they have religiously testified their Royall Priesthood here on Earth, let them have the Honour to sacrifice before Thy Throne, Laud, Honour, and Glory to Thee for ever in Heaven. Amen.

Finitis precibus, Reverendus Pater suggestum conscendens, concionem habuit, quâ ea quæ ad negotium quod tunc præ manibus habebat pertinerent, abundi explicavit, versum tricesimum cap: decimi noni Levitici interpretans.

Thou shalt keepe my Sabbaoths, and reverence my Sanctuary, I am the Lord.

Finita concione, dictus Reverendus Pater ad sacram mensem accedens, sacro sanctum cœnæ Dominicæ sacramentum, secundum formam in Ecclesia Anglicana usitatam, summa cum gravitate & sanctimonia, solemnizavit.

Posteaq; ad cœmeterium sive locum sepulturæ cum toto suo comitatu, modo superius descripto, deductus est, ubi postquam circum totius loci ambitum, processu satis decoro, obambulasset, confedit, & post repetitionem petitionum & responsionum superius recitatarum (mutatis tantummodo mutandis) & oblationem per prefatum Henricum Southworth indenturæ donationis & schedulæ annexæ, nomina ornamentorum superius oblatores & consecratorum (ut prædicitur) continentis & specificantis, dictus Reverendus Pater orationunculam habuit de usu & consecratione cœmeteriorum. Quam cum finivisset, mandavit magistro Woodyate capellano predicto, ut legeret vicesimum tertium caput Genesew, quod cum sonora & intensa voce legisset, dictus Reverendus Pater alteram precationis formulam in scriptis conceptam, & a me notario publico prefato in manus ejus venerabilis traditam, legit, & statim populum, cum usitate benedictione & divini nominis invocatione, dimisit, cujus precationis formula talis erat.

*Blessed Saviour, Thou hast redeemed as well our Bodies as our Soules. Thou hast knitt even this our mortall Part as inseperably unto Thee, as Thyselfe art knitt inseperably unto the Nature of Man. To assure, to testify this, Thou dost in Baptisme make our Bodies Temples of Thy Holy Spirit, and in the Eucharist dost feed them also with the Food of everlasting Life; yet art Thou pleased, that in Conformity unto Thee, for a while our Soules shall lay aside these earthly Tabernacles; and that which was made of Dust shall be turned into Dust againe, and rest in the Grave, but rest in Peaca, and rest in Hope, because the Reliques of Thy Servants Mortality are always accompanied with the Pledges of Immortality, and are not only Bodies of Men, but of Thy Saints also. We beseech Thee for this Parcel of Ground now sett apart to be a sacred Dortor, that it may be a Monument to the Living, and remember them, that they have no Abiding-place in this World, and a Muniment to the Dead to keep their Resting-place from being profaned by irreligious Use. Let the Nearness of this Place to Thy Howse, in Witnes of the Dead's Communion with the Living, and the common Condition of Thy Church, prepare us to come with more Reverence before Thee; and let the Piety, which we learne in Thy Howse, preserve us from ever violating this Place. Finally, grant that this may be a Place of comfortable Repose to all that shall sleep therein, and that they may wait in Hope till the Time of their Change shall come. The Time when that which is sowne here in Corruption shall be raised in Incorruption, that which is sowne in Dishonour shall be raised again in Glory, that which is sowne in Weaknesse shall be raised in Power, that which is sowne a natural Body shall be raised a spirituall Body. In the meane time grant, that all wee which live may have our Conversation in Heaven, and thence looke for our Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile Bodies, and make them conformable to his glorious Body, according to the Working whereby he is able to subdue all Things to himself. To whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, for these and all other his Mercies, wee render, as wee are most bounden, all humble and hearty Thanks this Day and evermore. Amen.

In Dei nomine, Amen. Nos Arthurus, Providentiâ Divinâ, Bathoniensis & Wellensis episcopus, piæ & honestæ petitioni discreti, et Christo dilecti Henrici Southworth de Well: comitat: Somerset: armigeri, Domini manerii de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumflore, in dicto comitatu deferre volentes, hanc terræ parcellam quinquaginta unum pedes plus minus ab oriente ad occidentem in longitudine, & quadraginta octo pedes plus minus a septentrione ad austrum in latitudine continentem, commodè & decenter circumseptam, a pristinis & aliis quibuscunq; usibus communibus & prophanis separandam fore decernimus, juxta petitionem in hac parte factam. Ac eandem terræ parcellam in cœmeterium sive locum sepulturæ corporum demortuorum in villa de Weeke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumflore, comitatu Somersetenſe predicti: (quantum in nobis est & legibus, statutis, & canonibus hujus inclyti regni Angliæ possumus, atq; nobis licet) auctoritate nostra episcopali dedicamus & consecramus, & in usum tantummodo predictum, habendam, & tenendam novumque cœmeterium Capellæ Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis de Wyke Champflower, alias Wyke Chaumflore, comitatus Somersetenſis predicti deinceps in perpetuum nuncupandam & appellandam fore, eidemque capellæ annexandam fore decernimus, & ad omnem juris effectum volumus, in nomine Patris, Filii, & Spiritus Sancti, salvis semper juribus ecclesiæ parochialis de Brewton, diocesis nostræ Bathoniensis & Wellensis, ac comitatus predicti & curati ibidem, quorum dignitati, libertati, consuetudinibus, redditibus, commoditatibusve quibuscunq; hac nostra consecratione hujus cœmeterii in nullo præjudicare intendimus, vel derogare. In cujus rei testimonium, sigillum nostrum episcopale (quo in similibus utimur) & manum nostram præsentibus apposuimus, die dominico existente decimo octavo die Julii die, viz. consecrationis capellæ cœmeterii predictæ anno regni Domini nostri Jacobi, Dei gratiâ, Angliæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ Regis, Fidei Defensoris, &c. vicesimo secundo, & Scotiæ quinquagesimo septimo, anno Domini millesimo sexcentesimo vicesimo quarto, & consecrationis nostræ anno octavo.

The Petition of the Town of Cambridge to be made a City,

[From a MS. in the Archives of Saint John's College, Cambridge.]

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Petition of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects the Major, Bayliffs, and Burgeffes of the Town of Cambridge.

Most humbly Shewing,

THAT whereas they are a very antient Corporation, and hold the Town of your Majesty in Fee Farme, and do enjoy divers Hereditaments, Franchises, Liberties, and Jurisdictions, by virtue of divers Charters and Letters Patents to them granted by your Majesty, and divers of your most noble Progenitors, Kings and Queens of this Realme; and whereas in former antient Times Cambridge was One of the 28 principall Cities of England, and lately hath been exceedingly graced by your Highnesse's Accesse.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty, for more dignifying of the University and this Corporation, that the University of Cambridge, and the Corporation of the Town of Cambridge, may be ranked and settled in equall Degree with the University of Oxford, and the City of Oxford, and to that End to vouchsafe to renew the Charters of the said Town, and thereby incorporate them to be a City by the Name of the Maior, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Cambridge, with expresse Declaration, that there shall be such Officers from time to time within the same City and Corporation, and with such Liberties, Privileges, Franchises, and Jurisdictions, and in such Sort, as the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of England, now High Steward of the said Town, and the Lord Treasurer of England, now Chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and the Honourable your Majesties Attorney Generall, shall think meet: Unto whome may it please your Majesty to refer the Consideration thereof, with a Saving to the University of Cambridge of all their Liberties, Jurisdictions, Preeminences, and Immunities whatsoever.

And your said humble Petitioners shall be bound to pray to Almighty God for Preservation of your Majesty in Health, and long Life, with Encrease of all Royall Renown.

Letter

Letter to King James from the University of Cambridge, in Opposition to the Petition of the Town of Cambridge.

[From the Manuscript Collection of the Rev. Mr. Baker, late of Saint John's College, Cambridge.]

Beatissime Regum JACOBÆ,

PLETATIS vestræ culpa factum est, quæ prius ad academiam nostram tam splendide accessit, si nunc in aulam vestram, eandemque quæ nobis ultro prior alluxit pietatem, supplex academia nostra seipsam recipiat. Quam illi audaciam ignoscet profecto Clementia vestra; postquam intellexerit, eam non tam suamet ambitione adductam, quam adactam potius ambitu alieno, eo audaciæ procupisse.

Ardent quidem musæ nostræ omnes, pia conspiciendi principis sui libidine, sed iis non tam vehementes animorum impetus sunt, ut pudicitia suæ immemores, inter nobilium lares, ambitiosulæ volitarent, nisi huc eas, non nostra sed aliena pro nobis male sedula ambitio inique rapuisset: Quorum animis (qui magni profecto magis sunt, quam utiles) liceat nobis bonâ vestrâ cum venia (Clementissime Domine) humilitate nostra mederi, nec enim majoris fortunæ capaces nobis esse videmur, qui minorem, non sine perpetuâ lite exercemus.

Quærunt illi sibi nobisque civium libertatem, majoremque urbis, quam etiam nunc habent, prætorem, novam denique purpuram & ensigenilum; ac nos quidem purpuram iis haud invidemus, sed ensen metuimus: Prætorem quem habent, facile sustinemus, sed in majore aliquo, non tam illis honorem, quam nobis dominium parari, non sine causâ veremur. Postremo, in hac civium libertate, academici servitutem, vel maxime extimescimus. Sæpius enim edocti sumus, pristinis eorum delitigandi studiis, quantâ ferociâ publicam nostram paupertatem proculcarent, si quando nostris opibus, amicos sibi cœmerent, qui academici pacem vexarent.

Oramus itaque quam humillime majestatem vestram, ne nobis nolentibus, ita velit benefacere, ut nostri honoris nos semper deinceps pœniteat, neve splendidis his insidiis perire nos sinat, litiumq; immortalia secula pro beneficio nobis largiatur. Nos togati homines, nobis pacem a te petimus omnes, non aliis superblam: Et qui sub te libertatem jam habemus, haud magnopere quærimus civitatem.

Perlustrant illi omnia antiquorum suorum codicum archiva, errant oculis, cujusq; chartæ pulverem & fordes, tandemq;

Cantabrigiam nostram aliquoties civitatem scholarium dictam reperiant, fororiamq; nobis civitatem crepent. Nos autem, eorum culpâ & proditione amissum hoc decus, aut etiamnum a nobis (qui reipub: literariæ cives sumus) retentum arbitramur. Nec enim eorum hæc civitas dicta est, sed nostra; nec vero negotiatorum sed literarum. Quoniam itaq; cives sumus, liceat nobis libere Dominum nostrum affari. Non est sane, a quo tua majestas parietibus nostris primo alluxit, quod a te novum aliquem honorem inepte cuperemus. Quid alia mœnia quam præsidium tuum? Aliam libertatem, quam tuum imperium peteremus? Postremo cum tuus nos ensis publice defendat, quid a prætoris ense, domestica nobis vulnera accerferemus. Tu nobis solus libertas es, tu nobis Mœnia, tu & præsidium & dulce decus nostrum: Cujus summa majestas tanta literarum scientia perillustrata est, ut vestra ultima quidem laus sit, esse inter nos primus, meritoq; in omnibus (quam quod in regno tuo sis maximus) major meliorq; habearis; quinetiam & hæc ipsa in te scientia, eo divinisimo sacrarum rerum usu perreligiose animatur, ut non gratissima nobis ignorantia, in regi nostro, ipsius scientia magis imperet, an ejusdem scientiæ, religio magis dominetur, securi nesciamus.

Nos itaq; pedibus literatissimi, piissimiq; principis scientiæ religionisq; causam advolvimus; nos pietatem majorum tuorum verè regiam, pietati tuæ (rex inclyte) omnium majorum tuorum majori perauxie commendamus, petimusq; non ut novis honoribus fulgeamus, sed ut fruamur antiquis; neve vicinorum ambitione, quæ nostris opibus alitur, nos ipsi aliquando obruamur & conculcemur: Faxit Deus opt: max: ut serenissima tua majestas, pietatem & literas (quod studiosissime facit) ita semper colat, ut hæ, inter homines nunquam te mori sinant, illa vero, te inter cœlites vita & laribus æternis, excipiat. JACOBUS REX.

JACOBUS, Dei gratia, Magnæ Britanniae, Franciæ, et Hiberniæ Rex, Fidei Defensor, &c. Academiæ Cantabr. communi, salutem. Si jus civitatis impetret à nobis Cantabrigia, veremini, ne æmulæ urbis potentia crescente, miniatur academiæ securitas. Sat erat apud nos, metus vestri indicium fecisse, nec enim tam vobis convenit academiæ periculum deprecari, quam nobis sponte nostrâ, quicquid in speciem, illi noxium sit, avertere.

Glorietur urbs illa, se à majoribus nostris olim electam doctrinarum sedem, ingeniorum officinam, sapientiæ palæstram : quicquid his titulis addi potest, minus est. Non honestatur plebeiâ civitatis appellatione, musarum domicilium, vel sane literatorum dicatur civitas, vel quod in villa nomine vile est, incolarum tegatur celebritate. Hæc ejus sint privilegia, dignitatem academiæ comiter observare, cujus frequentia, facta est, seipsa major ; affluentes bonarum artium studiosos amice excipere, quorum concursu ditata est ; literarum denique honori ancillari, unde hæc illi nata est fælicitas. Hæc artes quibus crevit tenendæ, non aucupanda titularum novitas, incerti eventus. Faceffat popularis vocabuli fastus, unde certa oriatur æmulationis necessitas, quæ eo turpior urbi est futura, quo majori erga academiam est obstricta reverentiâ. Nolumus sacrum illud musarum asyllum, minaci prætoris ense temerari, nec strepere tetrica edicta, ubi septem geminus vestri chori auditur concentus. Satis est in vetere purpurâ invidiæ ; nova pompa, tam illi futura est supervacua, quam vobis suspecta. In nostra solius tutelâ est, post Deum opt. max. alma scientiarum mater : nostro fovebitur sceptro, indefessâ ejus fœcunditas non abortiet ad prætorii gladii tericulum. Nullum honoris titulum Cantabrigiæ indulgemus, qui cum academiæ sollicitudine junctus sit. Valete. Dat. è palatio nostro Westmonasterii, Quarto Kalend. Martii, Anno Dom. Millesimo Sexcentesimo Decimo Sexto. Concordat cum Originali: ita Testor,

The Marriage of Queene Mary unto Phillip Prince of Spayne; Son of Charles the 5th, Emperour, in the Cathedrall Church of Winchester, on Wensday 20th of July 1554.

FIRST, the said Church was richly hanged with Arras and Cloth of Gold; and in the Middle of the said Church, from the West Dore unto the Roode, was a Scaffold erected of Timber, at the End whereof was also raised a Mount covered all with redd Saye, and underneth the Roode Lofte were erected Two Traverses, One for the Queen on the Right Hand, and the other for the Prince on the Left Hand; which Places served very well for the Purpose. The Quire was also richly hanged with Cloth of Gould, and on each Side of the Alter were other Two rich Traverses as aforesaid for the Queen's Majesty and the Prince.

The Queene made her Entrye into the Cittie of Winchester, very richly in Apparell, on Saterdag the 21st of July, and was lodged in the Bishoppes Pallace. And Prince Philippe made his Entrye into the said Cittie on Munday after, being the 23 Julie, at whose Entrie the Mayor delivered to him the Keyes of the Cittie, which he received, and delivered them backe againe, being lodged at the Deanes House.

On Wednesday the 25. of July, being St. James's Day, the Prince, richly appareled in Cloth of Gould imbroydered, accompanied with a great Number of the Nobles of Spaine, in such Sorte as the like hath not bene seene, proceeded to the Church, and entred in at the West Dore, and passed to his Traverse all the Way on Foote: and to the Church he had noe Sword borne before him.

Then came the Queene's Majestie, accompanied with a great Number of the Nobilitie of the Realme, the Sword being borne before her by the Earl of Darby, and a great Number of Ladyes and Gentlewomen very richly appareled. Her Majesties Trayne was borne by the Marques of Winchester, assisted by Sir John Gage her Lo. Chamberlaine. And soe she proceeded to the Church, the Kings and Heralds of Armes in their Coats going before her from her Lodging on Foote to the Church, where entring at the West Dore, she passed on till she came to her Traverse. Then the Bishop of Winchester, Lo. Chancellor of England, which did the Divine Service, assisted by the Bishops of London, Duresme, Chechester, Lincolne, and Elye, all with their Crosiers borne before them, came oute of the Quire to the Mounte.

Then

Then came the Regent Figerda, whose Name was and presented to the Prince a solempne Oration, with a Patent sent from the Emperour to the Prince, of the Surrender of the Kingdom of Naples, freely given to him and his Heires, as by the said Patent was declared, which Patent was fayre sealed, and inclosed in a Cover of Silver gaulte.

This done, the Lo. Chamberlayne made a goodly Oration to the People, which was in Effect as followeth : Whereas the Emperor, by his Embassadors heere in England, hath concluded and contracted a Marriage betweene the Queenes Majestie and his chiefe Jewell and Sone and Heire Phillipe, Prince of Spayne, heere present, the Articles wherof are not unknowne to the whole Realme, and confirmed by Acte of Parliament, soe that there needeth noe further Rehearsal of that Matter, &c. and so likewise declared, that the Queene's Highnes had sent the Earle of Bedford and the Lo. Fitzwalter Ambassadors to the Realme of Spayne, for the Performance of the said Contract, which they have heere brought with the Consent of the whole Realme of Spayne for the full Conclusion of the same, as may appeare by this Instrument in Parchment, sealed with a Great Seale, conreyning, by Estimation, 12 Leaves.

Then the Lo. Chamberlayne delivered openly for the Solemnisation of this high Marriage, how that the Emperor had given his Sonne the Kingdome of Naples; so that whereas it was thought the Queenes Majestie should marrye but with a Prince, now it was manifested, that she should marrye with a King, and so proceeded to the Espousall, and with a loud Voyce said, If there be any Person that knoweth any lawfull Impedyment betweene these Two Parties, that they should not goe together according to the Contract concluded betweene both Realmes, that then they should come forth, and they should be heard, or els to proceede to the Celebration of the Mariage, which was pronounced in English and Latine; and when it came to the Guifte of the Queene, it was asked, who should give her? then the Marquis of Winchester, the E. of Derby, Bedford, and Pembroke gave her Highnes in the Name of the whole Realme.

Then all the People gave a great Shoute, praying God to send them Joye; and the Ringe being laid upon the Booke to be hallowed, the Prince layd also uppon the sayd Booke 3 Handfull of fyne Gould, which the Lady Margaret seeing, opened the Queenes Purse, and the Queene smilingly put up in the said Purse. And when they had inclosed their Hands, ymediately the Sword was advanced before the King by the Earl of Pembroke.

This

This done, the Trumpetts founded, and they both returned Hand in Hand, the Sworde beinge borne before them to their Traverfes in the Quire, the Queene going alwayes on the Right Hand, and their remayned untill Mafe was don, at which Tyme Wyne and Sopes were hallowed, and delivered unto them booth, and ymediately after Garter King of Armes, with the other Kings and Heraulds, published and proclaimed their Styles in Latine, Frenche, and English, and so they returned to the Bishop's Place both under One Canopie, borne by 7 Knights, the Queene on the Right Hand, and theire Swords borne before them. And so they proceeded to the Hall, where they both dyned under One Cloth of Estate.
